THE following Collection of Hymns has been compiled by a Committee of the Cheshire Pastoral Association. The work was undertaken to meet the wants of several societies within its own limits, and may not, therefore, have a very extended circulation beyond them ; for many compilations already engage public attention and patronage. Our object has been to make a selection embracing a large number and variety of hymns, adapted to all the purposes of public and private worship, and one which at the same time might be furnished at a low price.

We have sought to give it a lyrical character, and thus adapt it to the choir as well as to the pulpit. In pursuance of this idea, a greater variety of metres than usual has been introduced. By selecting also a large amount of introductory and closing hymns for worship, and by paying special regard to the Christian ordinances, to funeral and mourning occasions, to social and domestic worship, and to philanthropic, national, annual, and missionary celebrations, we have endeavoured to provide for wants which have not hitherto been sufficiently considered. Above all, we have made it our chief aim to give an earnest Scriptural tone to the work, by gathering together in one all the noblest strains of devotional poetry from whatever quarter and denomination, provided the sentiments were not inconsistent with our own faith. But if there should appear, here and there, the glimpse of a discarded doctrine, or the remnant of an antiquated creed, let it be remembered how difficult and ungracious a task it is to fetter the free wing of a rapt imagination and enkindled heart, though reason may sometimes pause and judgment condemn.

We have culled from a most extensive field of both the later and the earlier poets, and have introduced not a few hymns of merit, which have appeared in no previous compilation. Slight alterations have occasionally been made, but we have preferred to restore rather than to change. While we have wished to assemble the holy minstrels of every name and church in a loving brotherhood of harmony and devotion, that should make us forget, if possible, while singing the praises of God, the jars and discords of the great Christian family, we have, nevertheless, welcomed with a peculiar delight "the goodly fellowship" of our own sweet singers. We are indebted to the names of Adams, Barbauld, Bowring, Bryant, Bulfinch, Flint, Follen, Frothingham, Furness, Gilman, Moore, Norton, Peabody, Pierpont, and Ware for some of the finest hymns in the English language.

To those friends, who have kindly afforded us their aid in making this compilation, we would here express our thankful acknowledgments.

In the title of the book, we embody our leading idea and purpose in this enterprise, which have been to provide a collection, not of Jewish psalms or elegant songs, but essentially Christian hymns, pitched, so to say, after the grand master-tone of our faith, whatever intermingling subordinate notes they might have of joy or sorrow, encouragement or warning, praise or confession. We have striven that the high doctrines, duties, and promises of our holy religion might shine forth from these pages in their noon-day distinctness, and arrayed in all the charms of taste and melody, that the great Master might be honored with the love of his disciples, and the greater Father worshipped with the fervent adoration, praise, and thanksgiving of his children.

CHRISTIAN HYMNS.

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP, AND THE SABBATH.

1.

6 & 4s. M.

ANONYMOUS.

Solemn Invocation.

- 1 COME, thou Almighty King !
Help us thy name to sing ;
Help us to praise !
Father all-glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of Days !
- 2 Come, thou all-gracious Lord !
By heaven and earth adored,
Our prayer attend !
Come, and thy children bless ;
Give thy good word success ;
Make thine own holiness
On us descend !
- 3 Never from us depart ;
Rule thou in every heart,
Hence, evermore !

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

Thy sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

8 & 7s. M.

WESLEY'S COLL.

Divine Love.

- 1 LOVE divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heaven to earth come down !
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.
Father ! thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love thou art ;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every longing heart.
- 2 Breathe, O, breathe thy loving spirit
Into every troubled breast ;
Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find thy promised rest.
Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive,
Graciously come down, and never,
Never more thy temples leave.

TATE & BRADY

All exhorted to Adoration and Praise.

- 1 WITH one consent, let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise ;
Glad homage pay, with hallowed m.rth,
And sing before him songs of praise ; —
- 2 Assured that he is God alone,
From whom both we and all proceed, —
We whom he chooses for his own,
The flock which he delights to feed.

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

- 3 O, enter, then, his temple gate ;
Thence to his courts devoutly press ;
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless ;
- 4 For he 's the Lord, supremely good ;
His mercy is for ever sure ;
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

Love of Sabbath Service.

- 1 HOW sweet, upon this sacred day,
The best of all the seven,
To cast our earthly thoughts away,
And think of God and heaven !
- 2 How sweet to be allowed to pray
Our sins may be forgiven !
With filial confidence to say,
“ Father, who art in heaven ! ”
- 3 How sweet the words of peace to hear
From him to whom 't is given
To wake the penitential tear,
And lead the way to heaven !
- 4 And if to make our sins depart
In vain the will has striven,
He who regards the inmost heart
Will send his grace from heaven.
- 5 Then hail, thou sacred, blesséd day,
The best of all the seven,
When hearts unite their vows to pay
Of gratitude to Heaven !

Exhortation to Praise.

- 1 COME, sound his praise abroad,
And hymns of glory sing :

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

Jehovah is the sovereign God,
The universal King.

- 2 Come, worship at his throne ;
Come, bow before the Lord ;
We are his work and not our own ;
He formed us by his word.
- 3 To-day attend his voice,
Nor dare provoke his rod ;
Come, like the people of his choice,
And own your gracious God.

Seeking Refuge.

- 1 FORTH from the dark and stormy sky,
Lord, to thine altar's shade we fly ;
Forth from the world, its hope and fear,
Father, we seek thy shelter here :
Weary and weak, thy grace we pray ;
Turn not, O Lord, thy guests away.
- 2 Long have we roamed in want and pain ;
Long have we sought thy rest in vain ;
Wildered in doubt, in darkness lost,
Long have our souls been tempest-tost :
Low at thy feet our sins we lay ;
Turn not, O Lord, thy guests away.

RAFFLES

The Hour of Prayer.

- 1 BLEST hour, when mortal man retires
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.
- 2 Blest hour, when earthly cares resign
Their empire o'er his anxious breast,
While, all around, the calm divine
Proclaims the holy day of rest.

- 3 Blest hour, when God himself draws nigh,
 Well pleased his people's voice to hear,
 To hush the penitential sigh,
 And wipe away the mourner's tear.
- 4 Blest hour ! for where the Lord resorts
 Foretastes of future bliss are given,
 And mortals find his earthly courts
 The house of God, the gate of heaven.

Invitation to the House of God.

- 1 COME to the house of prayer,
 O thou afflicted, come ;
 The God of peace shall meet thee there ;
 He makes that house his home.
- 2 Come to the house of praise,
 Ye who are happy now ;
 In sweet accord your voices raise,
 In kindred homage bow.
- 3 Ye aged, hither come,
 For ye have felt his love ;
 Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,
 Your lips forget to move.
- 4 Ye young, before his throne,
 Come, bow ; your voices raise ;
 Let not your hearts his praise disown
 Who gives the power to praise.
- 5 Thou, whose benignant eye
 In mercy looks on all,
 Who seest the tear of misery,
 And hear'st the mourner's call, —
- 6 Up to thy dwelling-place
 Bear our frail spirits on,
 Till they outstrip time's tardy pace.
 And heaven on earth be won.

H. M. WILLIAMS.

Habitual Devotion.

- 1 WHILE thee I seek, protecting Power,
 Be my vain wishes stilled ;
And may this consecrated hour
 With better hopes be filled.
- 2 Thy love the power of thought bestowed ;
 'To thee my thoughts would soar ;
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed ;
 That mercy I adore.
- 3 In each event of life, how clear
 Thy ruling hand I see !
Each blessing to my soul more dear,
 Because conferred by thee.
- 4 In every joy that crowns my days,
 In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
 Or seek relief in prayer.
- 5 When gladness wings my favored hour,
 Thy love my thoughts shall fill ;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
 My soul shall meet thy will.
- 6 My lifted eye, without a tear,
 The gathering storm shall see ;
My steadfast heart shall know no fear ;
 That heart shall rest on thee.

The Lord's Day.

- 1 O FATHER, though the anxious fear
 May cloud to-morrow's doubtful way,
Nor fear nor doubt shall enter here ;
 All shall be thine at least to-day.
- 2 We will not bring divided hearts
 To worship at thy sacred shrine ;

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

But each unholy thought departs,
And leaves the temple wholly thine.

- 3 O Father, God below, above !
Man's noblest work is praising thee ;
Thy spirit o'er our hearts shall move,
And tune them all to harmony.

The Sabbath of the Soul.

- 1 SLEEP, sleep to-day, tormenting cares,
Of earth and folly born ;
Ye shall not dim the light that streams
From this celestial morn.
- 2 To-morrow will be time enough
To feel your harsh control ;
Ye shall not violate this day,
The Sabbath of my soul.
- 3 Sleep, sleep for ever, guilty thoughts ;
Let fires of vengeance die ;
And, purged from sin, may I behold
A God of purity !

Sabbath Worship.

- 1 HAIL to the Sabbath day !
The day divinely given,
When men to God their homage pay,
And earth draws near to heaven.
- 2 Lord, in this sacred hour
Within thy courts we bend,
And bless thy love, and own thy power,
Our Father and our Friend.
- 3 But thou art not alone
In courts by mortals trod ;

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

Nor only is the day thine own
When man draws near to God.

4 Thy temple is the arch
Of yon unmeasured sky ;
Thy Sabbath, the stupendous march
Of grand eternity.

5 Lord, may that holier day
Dawn on thy servants' sight ;
And purer worship may we pay
In heaven's unclouded light.

The Resurrection celebrated.

1 AWAKE, ye saints, awake,
And hail the sacred day ;
In loftiest songs of praise
Your joyful homage pay ;
Come bless the day | The type of heaven's
That God hath blest, | Eternal rest.

2 On this auspicious morn
The Lord of life arose,
And burst the bars of death,
And vanquished all our foes ;
And now he pleads | And reaps the fruit*
Our cause above, | Of all his love.

3 All hail, triumphant Lord !
Heaven with hosannas rings ;
And earth, in humbler strains,
Thy praise responsive sings ;
Worthy the Lamb, | Through endless years
That once was slain, | To live and reign.

The Sacrifice of the Heart.

1 WHEN, as returns this solemn day,
Man comes to meet his Maker, God.

- What rites, what honors, shall he pay ?
 How spread his sovereign name abroad ?
- 2 From marble domes and gilded spires
 Shall curling clouds of incense rise,
 And gems, and gold, and garlands, deck
 The costly pomp of sacrifice ?
- 3 Vain, sinful man ! creation's Lord
 Thy golden offerings well may spare ;
 But give thy heart, and thou shalt find
 Here dwells a God who heareth prayer.
- 4 O, grant us, in this solemn hour,
 From earth and sin's allurements free,
 To feel thy love, to own thy power,
 And raise each raptured thought to thee !

The Sabbath in the Sanctuary.

- 1 SAFELY through another week
 God has brought us on our way ;
 Let us now a blessing seek,
 Waiting in his courts to-day, —
 Day of all the week the best,
 Emblem of eternal rest.
- 2 While we seek supplies of grace,
 Through the dear Redeemer's name,
 Show thy reconciling face,
 Take away our sin and shame ;
 From our worldly cares set free,
 May we rest, this day, in thee.
- 3 Here we come thy name to praise ;
 Let us feel thy presence near ;
 May thy glory meet our eyes,
 While we in thy house appear ;
 Here afford us, Lord, a taste
 Of our everlasting feast.

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

- 4 May the gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners, comfort saints,
Make the fruits of grace abound,
Bring relief from all complaints :
Thus let all our Sabbaths prove,
Till we join the church above.

Praise to our Creator.

- 1 YE nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sovereign King ;
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice ;
With all your tongues his glory sing.
- 2 The Lord is God ; 't is he alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give ;
We are his work, and not our own,
The sheep that on his pastures live.
- 3 Enter his gates with songs of joy ;
With praises to his courts repair ;
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.
- 4 The Lord is good ; the Lord is kind ;
Great is his grace, his mercy sure ;
And all the race of man shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

The Sabbath welcomed.

- 1 WELCOME, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise ;
Welcome to this reviving breast
And these rejoicing eyes.
- 2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day ;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

3 One day amid the place
 Where Christ, my Lord, has been
 Is sweeter than ten thousand days
 Of pleasure and of sin.

4 My willing soul would stay
 In such a frame as this,
 Till called to rise and soar away
 To everlasting bliss.

Delight in the House of God.

1 HOW pleased and blest was I
 To hear the people cry,
 "Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
 Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
 We haste to Zion's hill,
 And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion, thrice happy place,
 Adorned with wondrous grace,
 And walls of strength embrace thee round;
 In thee our tribes appear,
 To pray, and praise, and hear
 The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 May peace attend thy gate,
 And joy within thee wait,
 To bless the soul of every guest;
 The man who seeks thy peace,
 And wishes thine increase,
 A thousand blessings on him rest.

The Sovereign Jehovah.

1 BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
 Ye nations bow with sacred joy;
 Know that the Lord is God alone;
 He can create and he destroy.

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

- 2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
 Made us of clay, and formed us men ;
And when, like wandering sheep, we strayed,
 He brought us to his fold again.
- 3 We are his people ; we his care ;
 Our souls, and all our mortal frame :
What lasting honors shall we rear,
 Almighty Maker, to thy name ?
- 4 We'll crowd thy gates, with thankful songs,
 High as the heaven our voices raise ;
And Earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
 Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 5 Wide as the world is thy command ;
 Vast as eternity thy love ;
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
 When rolling years shall cease to move.

The Lord's Day Morning.

- 1 AGAIN the Lord of life and light
 Awakes the kindling ray,
Unseals the eyelids of the morn,
 And pours increasing day.
- 2 O, what a night was that which wrapt
 The heathen world in gloom !
O, what a sun, which broke, this day,
 Triumphant from the tomb !
- 3 This day be grateful homage paid,
 And loud hosannas sung ;
Let gladness dwell in every heart,
 And praise on every tongue.
- 4 Ten thousand differing lips shall join
 To hail this welcome morn ;
Which scatters blessings from its wings
 To nations yet unborn.

Prayer for a Blessing on Public Worship.

- 1 TO thy temple we repair ;
Lord, we love to worship there ;
While to thee our prayers ascend
Let thine ear in love attend ;
- 2 While thy glorious name is sung,
Tune our lips, inspire our tongue ;
Then our joyful souls shall bless
Christ, the Lord our Righteousness.
- 3 While thy word is heard with awe,
While we tremble at thy law,
Let thy gospel's wondrous love
Every doubt and fear remove.
- 4 From thy house when we return,
Let our hearts within us burn ;
'Then, at evening, we may say,
" We have walked with God to-day "

- 1 O, COME, loud anthems let us sing,
Loud thanks to our Almighty King ;
For we our voices high should raise,
When our salvation's Rock we praise.
- 2 Into his presence let us haste,
To thank him for his favors past ;
To him address, in joyful songs,
The praise that to his name belongs.
- 3 O, let us to his courts repair,
And bow with adoration there ;
Down on our knees devoutly all
Before the Lord, our Maker, fall !

Longing for the House of God.

- 1 EARLY, my God, without delay,
I haste to seek thy face ;
My thirsty spirit faints away
Without thy cheering grace.
- 2 So pilgrims on the scorching sand,
Beneath a burning sky,
Long for a cooling stream at hand ;
And they must drink, or die.
- 3 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As thy forgiving love.
- 4 Thus, till my last, expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King ;
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing.

Pleasures of Spiritual Worship.

- 1 HOW sweet to bless the Lord,
And in his praises join,
With saints his goodness to record,
And sing his power divine !

Our love more ardent grow,
While rich supplies of Jesus' grace
Refresh our souls below.

Worship acceptable from every Place.

- 1 O THOU, to whom, in ancient time,
The lyre of Hebrew bards was strung,
Whom kings adored in songs sublime,
And prophets praised with glowing tongue ,
- 2 Not now on Zion's height alone
Thy favored worshipper may dwell,
Nor where, at sultry noon, thy Son
Sat, weary, by the patriarch's well.
- 3 From every place below the skies,
The grateful song, the fervent prayer,
The incense of the heart, may rise
To heaven, and find acceptance there.
- 4 O Thou, to whom, in ancient time,
The lyre of prophet-bards was strung,

To thee, at last, in every clime,
Shall temples rise and praise be sung.

The acceptable Worship.

- 1 FATHER of our feeble race,
Wise, beneficent, and kind,
Spread o'er nature's ample face
Flows thy goodness unconfined :
Musing in the silent grove,
Or the busy walks of men,
Still we trace thy wondrous love,
Claiming large returns again.
- 2 Lord, what offerings shall we bring,
At thine altars when we bow ?
Hearts, the pure, unsullied spring
Whence the kind affections flow ;
Soft compassion's feeling soul,
By the melting eye expressed ;
Sympathy, at whose control
Sorrow leaves the wounded breast ;—
- 3 Willing hands to lead the blind,
Heal the wounded, feed the poor ;
Love, embracing all our kind ;
Charity, with liberal store :
Teach us, O thou Heavenly King,
'Thus to show our grateful mind,
Thus th' accepted offering bring, —
Love to thee and all mankind.

Pay, O my soul, to God ;
Lift with thy hands a holy heart

Enjoyment in Worship.

- 1 SWEET is the task, O Lord,
Thy glorious acts to sing,
To praise thy name, and hear thy word,
And grateful offerings bring.
- 2 Sweet, at the dawning hour,
Thy boundless love to tell ;
And, when the night-wind shuts the flower,
Still on the theme to dwell.
- 3 Sweet, on this day of rest,
To join, in heart and voice,
With those who love and serve thee best,
And in thy name rejoice.
- 4 To songs of praise and joy
Be every Sabbath given,
That such may be our blest employ
Eternally in heaven.

Of mingled praise and prayer,

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

The eternal Sabbath.

- 1 LORD of the Sabbath, hear our vows,
 On this thy day, in this thy house,
 And own, as grateful sacrifice,
 The songs which from thy churches rise.
- 2 Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love ;
 But there 's a nobler rest above ;
 To that our longing souls aspire,
 With earnest hope and strong desire.
- 3 No more fatigue, no more distress,
 Nor sin, nor death, shall reach the place ;
 No groans to mingle with the songs
 Which warble from immortal tongues ; —
- 4 No rude alarms of raging foes ;
 No cares to break the long repose ;
 No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
 But sacred, high, eternal noon.
- 5 O long-expected day, begin !
 Dawn on these realms of woe and sin ;
 Fain would we leave this weary road,
 And sleep in death to rest with God.

Lowly Praise.

- 1 LORD, in heaven, thy dwelling-place,
 Hear the praises of our race,

And, while hearing, let thy grace
 Dews of sweet forgiveness pour ;
 While we know, benignant King,
 'That the praises which we bring
 Are a worthless offering
 Till thy blessing makes it more.

- 2 More of truth, and more of might,
 More of love, and more of light,
 More of reason, and of right,
 From thy pardoning grace be given !
 It can make the humblest song
 Sweet, acceptable, and strong,
 As the strains the angels' throng
 Pour around the throne of heaven.

CHRISTIAN PSALMIST.

Amidst Temptation.

- 1 MY gracious Lord, whose changeless love
 To me nor earth nor death can part,
 When shall my feet forget to rove ?
 Ah, what shall fix this faithless heart ?
- 2 Cold, weary, languid, heartless, dead,
 To thy dread courts I oft repair ;
 By conscience dragged, or custom led,
 I come, nor know that God is there.
- 3 O God, thy sovereign aid impart,
 And guard the gifts thyself hast given ;
 My portion thou, my treasure, art,
 And life, and happiness, and heaven.
- 4 Would aught with thee my wishes share,
 Though dear as life the idol be,
 The idol from my breast I 'll tear,
 Resolved to seek my all from thee.

Call to joyous Worship.

- 1 COME, we that love the Lord,
And let our joys be known ;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.
- 2 The sorrows of the mind
Be banished from the place ;
Religion never was designed
To make our pleasures less.
- 3 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below ;
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.
- 4 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry ;
We 're marching through Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high.

Introduction to Evening Worship.

- 1 HOW shall we praise thee, Lord of light !
How shall we all thy love declare !
The earth is veiled in shades of night,
But heaven is open to our prayer, —
That heaven, so bright with stars and suns, —
That glorious heaven which has no bound,
Where the full tide of being runs,
And life and beauty glow around.
- 2 We would adore thee, God sublime,
Whose power and wisdom, love and grace,
Are greater than the round of time,
And wider than the bounds of space

O, how shall thought expression find,
 All lost in thine immensity !
 How shall we seek thee, glorious Mind,
 Amid thy dread infinity !

- 3 But thou art present with us here,
 As in thy glittering, high domain ;
 And grateful hearts and humble fear
 Can never seek thy face in vain.
 Help us to praise thee, Lord of light ;
 Help us thy boundless love declare ;
 And, while we crowd thy courts to-night,
 Aid us, and hearken to our prayer.

Preparation of the Heart.

- 1 LORD, teach us how to pray aright,
 With reverence and with fear :
 Though dust and ashes in thy sight,
 We may, we must, draw near.
- 2 Burdened with guilt, convinced of sin,
 In weakness, want, and woe,
 Fightings without, and fears within,
 Lord, whither shall we go ?
- 3 God of all grace, we come to thee,
 With broken, contrite hearts ;
 Give what thine eye delights to see, —
 Truth in the inward parts.
- 4 Give deep humility ; the sense
 Of godly sorrow give ;
 A strong, desiring confidence,
 To hear thy voice and live ; —
- 5 Patience, to watch, and wait, and weep,
 Though mercy long delay ;
 Courage, our fainting souls to keep,
 And trust thee, though thou slay.

- 6 Give these, and then thy will be done ;
 Thus, strengthened with all might,
 We, by thy spirit and thy Son,
 Shall pray, and pray aright.

The Lord's Prayer.

- 1 OUR Heavenly Father, hear
 The prayer we offer now :
 Thy name be hallowed far and near ;
 To thee all nations bow.
- 2 Thy kingdom come ; thy will
 On earth be done in love,
 As saints and seraphim fulfil
 Thy perfect law above.
- 3 Our daily bread supply,
 While by thy word we live ;
 The guilt of our iniquity
 Forgive as we forgive.
- 4 From dark temptation's power
 Our feeble hearts defend ;
 Deliver in the evil hour,
 And guide us to the end.
- 5 Thine, then, for ever be
 Glory and power divine ;
 The sceptre, throne, and majesty
 Of heaven and earth are thine.

The Day of Rest.

- 1 THIS day let grateful praise ascend
 To thee, our Father and our Friend,
 Thee, Author of this holy light,
 Thee, throned in boundless power and might.
- 2 O, let the sacred hours be given
 To truth, to duty, and to heaven ;

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

While trusting faith and holy love
Rise fervent to thy throne above.

- 3 Grant that our earthly Sabbaths be
But dawnings of eternity,
To shadow forth the glorious rest,
The heavenly quiet, of the blest.

Homage and Devotion.

- 1 WITH sacred joy we lift our eyes
To those bright realms above,
That glorious temple in the skies,
Where dwells eternal love.
- 2 Before the gracious throne we bow
Of heaven's Almighty King ;
Here we present the solemn vow,
And hymns of praise we sing.
- 3 O Lord, while in thy house we kneel
With trust and holy fear,
Thy mercy and thy truth reveal,
And lend a gracious ear.
- 4 With fervor teach our hearts to pray,
And tune our lips to sing ;
Nor from thy presence cast away
The sacrifice we bring.

SIR J. E. SMITH.

Devout Worship of God.

- 1 PRAISE waits in Zion, Lord, for thee ;
Thy saints adore thy holy name ;
Thy creatures bend th' obedient knee,
And, humbly, thy protection claim.
- 2 Thy hand has raised us from the dust ;
The breath of life thy spirit gave ;
Where, but in thee, can mortals trust ?
Who, but our God, has power to save ?

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

- 3 Eternal Source of truth and light,
To thee we look, on thee we call ;
Lord, we are nothing in thy sight,
But thou to us art all in all.
- 4 Still may thy children in thy word
Their common trust and refuge see ;
O, bind us to each other, Lord,
By one great tie, — the love of thee.
- 5 So shall our sun of hope arise,
With brighter still and brighter ray,
Till thou shalt bless our longing eyes
With beams of everlasting day.

Engagedness in Devotion.

- 1 LORD, before thy presence come,
Bow we down with holy fear ;
Call our erring footsteps home,
Let us feel that thou art near.
- 2 Wandering thoughts and languid powers
Come not where devotion kneels ;
Let the soul expand her stores,
Glowing with the joy she feels.
- 3 At the portals of thine house,
We resign our earth-born cares :
Nobler thoughts our souls engross,
Songs of praise and fervent prayers.

Truth and Love.

- 1 O GOD, whose presence glows in all
Within, around us, and above !
Thy word we bless, thy name we call,
Whose word is truth, whose name is love.
- 2 That truth be with the heart believed
Of all who seek this sacred place ;

With power proclaimed, in peace received,
Our spirit's light, thy spirit's grace.

3 That love its holy influence pour,
To keep us meek and make us free,
And throw its binding blessings more
Round each with all, and all with thee.

4 Send down its angel to our side, —
Send in its calm upon the breast ;
For we would know no other guide,
And we can need no other rest.

2 O happy souls, who pray
Where God appoints to hear !

O happy men, who pay
Their constant service there !

They praise thee still ;		Who love the way
And happy they		To Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,

Till each in heaven appears :

O glorious seat,		Shall thither bring
When God, our King,		Our willing feet.

The Fount of Blessing.

1 FAR from mortal cares retreating,
Sordid hopes, and vain desires,

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

- Here, our willing footsteps meeting,
Every heart to heaven aspires.
- 2 From the fount of glory beaming,
Light celestial cheers our eyes,
Mercy from above proclaiming,
Peace and pardon from the skies.
- 3 Who may share this great salvation ?
Every pure and humble mind,
Every kindred, tongue, and nation,
From the stains of guilt refined.
- 4 Blessings all around bestowing,
God withholds his care from none,
Grace and mercy ever flowing
From the fountain of his throne.

Introduction to Evening Worship.

- 1 ON the first Christian Sabbath eve,
When his disciples met
O'er his lost fellowship to grieve,
Nor knew the Scripture yet, —
- 2 Lo ! in their midst his form was seen,
The form in which he died ;
Their Master's marred and wounded mien, —
His hands, his feet, his side.
- 3 Then were they glad their Lord to know,
And hailed him yet with fear ; —
Jesus, again thy presence show ;
Meet thy disciples here.
- 4 Be in our midst ; let faith rejoice
Our risen Lord to view,
And make our spirits hear thy voice
Say, " Peace be unto you ! "
- 5 And while with thee, in social hours,
We commune through thy word,

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

May our hearts burn, and all our powers

Blessedness of worshipping God in his Temple.

- 1 HOW pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are !
With long desire my spirit faints
To meet th' assemblies of thy saints.
- 2 Blest are the saints, who dwell on high,
Around thy throne, above the sky ;
Thy brightest glories shine above,
And all their work is praise and love.
- 3 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of thy grace ;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.
- 4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate ;
God is their strength ; and, through the road,
They lean upon their helper, God.
- 5 Cheerful they walk, with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length ;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

Prayer for special Favor.

- 1 WITHIN thy house, O Lord, our God,
In glory now appear ;
Make this a place of thine abode,
And shed thy blessings here.
- 2 When we thy mercy-seat surround,
Thy spirit, Lord, impart ;
And let thy gospel's joyful sound

Humble Worship.

- 1 WHEN before thy throne we kneel,
Filled with awe and holy fear,
Teach us, O our God, to feel
All thy sacred presence near.
- 2 Check each proud and wandering thought
When on thy great name we call ;
Man is naught, is less than naught ;
Thou, our God, art all in all.
- 3 Weak, imperfect creatures, we
In this vale of darkness dwell,
Yet presume to look to thee
'Midst thy light ineffable.
- 4 O, receive the praise that dares
Seek thy heaven-exalted throne ;
Bless our offerings, hear our prayers,
Infinite and Holy One !

The Sabbath and the Sanctuary.

- 1 THE festal morn, my God, is come,
That calls me to thy sacred dome,
Thy presence to adore :
My feet the summons shall attend,
With willing steps thy courts ascend,
And tread the hallowed floor.

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

- 2 With holy joy I hail the day,
That warns my thirsting soul away ;
What transports fill my breast !
For, lo ! my great Redeemer's power
Unfolds the everlasting door,
And leads me to his rest !
- 3 Hither, from earth's remotest end,
Lo ! the redeemed of God ascend,
Their tribute hither bring ;
Here, crowned with everlasting joy,
In hymns of praise their tongues employ,
And hail th' immortal King.

Sabbath Day.

- 1 WE bless thee for this sacred day,
Thou who hast every blessing given,
Which sends the dreams of earth away,
And yields a glimpse of opening heaven.
- 2 Lord, in this day of holy rest,
We would improve the calm repose ;
And, in thy service truly blest,
Forget the world, its joys and woes.
- 3 Lord, may thy truth upon the heart
Now fall and dwell as heavenly dew,
And flowers of grace in freshness start
Where once the weeds of error grew.
- 4 May prayer now lift her sacred wings,
Contented with that aim alone
Which bears her to the King of kings,
And rests her at his sheltering throne.

Supplication.

- 1 GREAT God, the followers of thy Son,
We bow before thy mercy-seat,

INTRODUCTION OF WORSHIP.

- To worship thee, the Holy One,
And pour our wishes at thy feet.
- 2 O, grant thy blessing here to-day !
O, give thy people joy and peace !
The tokens of thy love display,
And favor that shall never cease.
- 3 We seek the truth which Jesus brought ;
His path of light we long to tread ;
Here be his holy doctrines taught,
And here their purest influence shed.
- 4 May faith and hope and love abound ;
Our sins and errors be forgiven ;
And we, in thy great day, be found
Children of God, and heirs of heaven.

A Sabbath Morning.

- 1 HOW sweet, how calm, this Sabbath morn !
How pure the air that breathes,
And soft the sounds upon it borne,
And light its vapor wreaths !
- 2 It seems as if the Christian's prayer,

Exhortation to universal Praise.

- 1 YE saints and servants of the Lord,
The triumphs of his name record ;
His sacred name for ever bless :
Where'er the circling sun displays
His rising beams or setting rays,
Due praise to his great name address.
- 2 God, through the world, extends his sway !
The regions of eternal day
But shadows of his glory are :
To him whose majesty excels,
Who made the heaven wherein he dwells,
Let no created power compare.

 All ye lands, your voices raise ;
 Heaven and earth, with loud accord,
 Praise the Lord, for ever praise.

 Praise him from the depths beneath ;
 Praise him in the heights above ;
 Praise your Maker, all that breathe.

For a Blessing.

 Now met before thee here
 May meet together thus,
 When thou and thine appear :
 To thy blest presence may we come
 And dwell in an eternal home.

More bright than heaven's resplendent bow,
Jehovah's angel comes by night
To bless the sleeping world below ;
How soft the music of his tongue,
How sweet the hallowed strains he sung.

God glorious.

- 1 O, WORSHIP the King, all glorious above,
And gratefully sing his wonderful love,
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of Days,
Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.
- 2 O, tell of his might, and sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy, space ;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
- 3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite ?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.
- 4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail ;
Thy mercies how tender ! how firm to the end !
Our Maker, Defender, Preserver, and Friend.

While angels delight to hymn thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lisp to thy praise.

ANCIENT HYMNS.

Thrice Holy.

- 1 BRIGHT the vision that delighted
 Once the sight of Judah's seer ;
Sweet the countless tongues united
 To entrance the prophet's ear.
Round the Lord in glory seated,
 Cherubim and seraphim
Filled his temple, and repeated
 Each to each th' alternate hymn :—
- 2 “ Lord, thy glory fills the heaven ;
 Earth is with its fulness stored ;
Unto thee be glory given,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord ! ”
Heaven is still with glory ringing ;
 Earth takes up the angels' cry,
“ Holy, holy, holy,” singing,
 “ Lord of hosts, the Lord most high ! ”
- 3 Ever thus in God's high praises,
 Brethren, let our tongues unite,
Whilst our thoughts his greatness raises,
 And our love his gifts excite.
With his seraph train before him,
 With his holy church below,
Thus conspire we to adore him,
 Bid we thus our anthem flow :—

ADORATION, PRAISE, AND THANKSGIVING.

- 4 “ Lord, thy glory fills the heaven ;
Earth is with its fulness stored ;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord !
Thus thy glorious name confessing,
We adopt thy angels’ cry,
‘ Holy, holy, holy, ’ blessing
Thee, the Lord of hosts most high ! ”

Praise of God peculiarly due from Man

- 1 THERE seems a voice in every gale,
A tongue in every opening flower,
Which tells, O Lord ! the wondrous tale
Of thy indulgence, love, and power.
- 2 The birds that rise on soaring wing
Appear to hymn their Maker’s praise,
And all the mingling sounds of spring
To thee a general pæan raise.
- 3 And shall my voice, great God, alone
Be mute ’midst Nature’s loud acclaim ?
No ; let my heart with answering tone
Breathe forth in praise thy holy name.
- 4 And Nature’s debt is small to mine ;
Thou bad’st her being bounded be,
But — matchless proof of love divine —
Thou gav’st immortal life to me.

Universal Praise.

- 1 LET all the earth their voices raise,
To sing a lofty psalm of praise,
And bless the great Jehovah’s name ;
His glory let the heathen know,
His wonders to the nations show,
And all his works of grace proclaim.

- 2 He framed the globe, he spread the sky,
 And all the shining worlds on high ;
 He reigns complete in glory there :
 His beams are majesty and light,
 His glories how divinely bright !
 His temple how divinely fair !
- 3 Let heaven be glad, let earth rejoice,
 Let ocean lift its roaring voice,
 Proclaiming loud, “ Jehovah reigns ! ”
 For joy let fertile valleys sing,
 And tuneful groves their tribute bring
 To Him whose power the world sustains.
- 4 Come the great day, the glorious hour,
 When earth shall own his sovereign power,
 And barbarous nations fear his name ;
 Then shall the universe confess
 The beauty of his holiness,
 And in his courts his grace proclaim.

Song of Adoration.

- 1 LET one loud song of praise arise
 To God, whose goodness ceaseless flows,
 Who dwells enthroned above the skies,
 And life and breath on all bestows.
- 2 Let all of good this bosom fires
 To him, sole good, give praises due ;
 Let all the truth himself inspires
 Unite to sing him only true.
- 3 In ardent adoration joined,
 Obedient to thy holy will,
 Let all our faculties, combined,
 Thy just commands, O God, fulfil.
- 4 O, may the solemn-breathing sound
 Like incense rise before thy throne,

Where thou, whose glory knows no bound,
Great Cause of all things, dwell'st alone !

Majesty and Dominion of God.

- 1 COME, O my soul, in sacred lays
Attempt thy great Creator's praise :
But, O, what tongue can speak his fame ?
What verse can reach the lofty theme ?
- 2 Enthroned amid the radiant spheres,
He glory like a garment wears ;
To form a robe of light divine,
Ten thousand suns around him shine.
- 3 In all our Maker's grand designs,
Almighty power, with wisdom, shines ;
His works, through all this wondrous frame,
Declare the glory of his name.
- 4 Raised on devotion's lofty wing,
Do thou, my soul, his glories sing ;
And let his praise employ thy tongue
Till listening worlds shall join the song.

Praise for Mercies.

- 1 O, BLESS the Lord, my soul ;
His grace to thee proclaim ;
And all that is within me, join

- 2 O, bless the Lord, my soul ;
His mercies bear in mind ;
Forget not all his benefits ;
The Lord to thee is kind.
- 3 He will not always chide ;
He will with patience wait ;
His wrath is ever slow to rise,
And ready to abate.

- 4 The Lord forgives thy sins,
 Prolongs thy feeble breath ;
 He healeth thine infirmities,
 And ransoms thee from death.
- 5 He clothes thee with his love,
 Upholds thee with his truth,
 And like the eagle he renews
 The vigor of thy youth.
- 6 Then bless his holy name
 Whose grace hath made thee whole,
 Whose loving-kindness crowns thy days ;
 O, bless the Lord, my soul.

Harmony of Praise.

- 1 THOU who dwell'st enthroned above !
 Thou, in whom we live and move !
 Thou who art most great, most high !

- 2 O, how sweet, how excellent
 'T is when tongues and hearts consent,
 Grateful hearts, and joyful tongues,
 Hymning thee in tuneful songs !
- 3 When the morning paints the skies,
 When the stars of evening rise,
 We thy praises will record,
 Sovereign Ruler, mighty Lord !
- 4 Decks the spring with flowers the field ?
 Harvest rich doth autumn yield ?
 Giver of all good below !
 Lord, from thee these blessings flow.
- 5 Sovereign Ruler ! mighty Lord !
 We thy praises will record ;
 Giver of these blessings ! we
 Pour the grateful song to thee.

Praise from all Nature.

- 1 BEGIN the high celestial strain,
My raptured soul, and sing
A sacred hymn of grateful praise
To heaven's almighty King.
- 2 Ye curling fountains, as ye roll
Your silver waves along,
Repeat to all your verdant shores
The subject of the song.
- 3 Bear it, ye breezes, on your wings
To distant climes away,
And round the wide-extended world
The lofty theme convey.
- 4 Take up the burden of his name,
Ye clouds, as ye arise,
To deck with gold the opening morn,
Or shade the evening skies.
- 5 Long let it warble round the spheres,
And echo through the sky ;

ADORATION, PRAISE, AND THANKSGIVING.

Let angels, with immortal skill,
Improve the harmony ;—

Praise from all Creatures.

- 1 BEGIN, my soul, th' exalted lay ;
Let each enraptured thought obey,
And praise th' almighty name ;
Lo ! heaven, and earth, and seas, and skies,
In one melodious concert rise,
To swell th' inspiring theme.

ADORATION, PRAISE, AND THANKSGIVING.

- 2 Thou heaven of heavens, his vast abode,
Ye clouds, proclaim your Maker, God ;
Ye thunders, speak his power ;
Lo ! on the lightning's fiery wing,
In triumph rides th' Eternal King ;
Th' astonished worlds adore.
- 3 Ye deeps, with roaring billows, rise
To join the thunders of the skies ;
Praise Him who bids you roll ;
His praise in softer notes declare,
Each whispering breeze of yielding air,
And breathe it to the soul.
- 4 Wake, all ye soaring tribes, and sing ;
Ye feathered warblers of the spring,
Harmonious anthems raise
To Him who shaped your finer mould,
Who decked your glittering wings with gold,
And tuned your voice to praise.
- 5 Let man — by nobler passions swayed, —
Let man — in God's own image made —
His breath in praise employ,
Spread wide his Maker's name around,
Till heaven shall echo back the sound,
In songs of holy joy.

How bright on high its glories blaze !
How sweetly bloom below !
It streams from thine eternal throne ;
Through heaven its joys for ever run,
And o'er the earth they flow.
- 2 'T is love that paints the purple morn,
And bids the clouds, in air upborne,
Their genial drops distil ;
In every vernal beam it glows,
And breathes in every gale that blows,
And glides in every rill.
- 3 But in thy word I see it shine
With grace and glories more divine,
Proclaiming sins forgiven ;
There, Faith, bright cherub, points the way
To realms of everlasting day,
And opens all her heaven.

The Glory of God in his Works and in his Word.

- 1 THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord ;
In every star thy wisdom shines ;
But when our eyes behold thy word,
We read thy name in fairer lines.
- 2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
And nights, and days, thy power confess ;
But that blest volume thou hast writ
Reveals thy justice and thy grace.
- 3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
Around the earth, and never stand ;
So, when thy truth began its race,
It touched and glanced on every land.
- 4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest
Till through the world thy truth has run,
Till Christ has all the nations blest
That see the light or feel the sun.
- 5 Great Sun of Righteousness, arise !
O, bless the world with heavenly light !
Thy gospel makes the simple wise ;
Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

In souls renewed and sins forgiven ;
Lord, cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
And make thy word my guide to heaven

Praise the Lord.

- 1 PRAISE the Lord ; ye heavens adore him ;
Praise him, angels, in the height ,
Sun and moon, rejoice before him ;
Praise him, all ye stars of light.

- 2 Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken ;
 Worlds his mighty voice obeyed ;
 Laws, which never can be broken,
 For their guidance he hath made.
- 3 Praise the Lord, for he is glorious ;
 Never shall his promise fail ;
 God hath made his saints victorious ;
 Sin and death shall not prevail.
- 4 Praise the God of our salvation ;
 Hosts on high his power proclaim ;
 Heaven and earth, and all creation,
 Praise and magnify his name.

SACRED LYRICS.

Praise in the Courts of the Lord.

- 1 PRAISE ye Jehovah's name ;
 Praise through his courts proclaim ;
 Rise and adore ;
 High o'er the heavens above
 Sound his great acts of love,
 While his rich grace we prove,
 Vast as his power.
- 2 Now let the trumpet raise
 Triumphant sounds of praise,
 Wide as his fame ;
 There let the harp be found ;
 Organs, with solemn sound,
 Roll your deep notes around,
 Filled with his name.
- 3 While his high praise ye sing,
 Shake every sounding string :
 Sweet the accord !
 He vital breath bestows :
 Let every breath that flows
 His noblest fame disclose :
 Praise ye the Lord.

Perfections of God.

- 1 THE Lord Jehovah reigns ;
 His throne is built on high ;
 The garments he assumes
 Are light and majesty :
 His glories shine | No mortal eye
 With beams so bright | Can bear the sight.
- 2 The thunders of his hand
 Keep the wide world in awe,
 His power and justice stand
 To guard his holy law :
 And where his love | His truth confirms
 Resolves to bless, | And seals the grace.
- 3 And can this mighty King
 Of glory condescend ?
 And will he write his name
 My Father and my Friend ?
 I love his name, | Join all my powers
 I love his word : | And praise the Lord.

The surpassing Glory of God.

- 1 SINCE o'er thy footstool here below
 Such radiant gems are strown,
 O, what magnificence must glow,
 Great God, about thy throne !
 So brilliant here these drops of light —
 There the full ocean rolls — how bright !
- 2 If night's blue curtain of the sky —
 With thousand stars inwrought,
 Hung like a royal canopy
 With glittering diamonds fraught —
 Be, Lord, thy temple's outer veil,
 What splendor at the shrine must dwell !

- 3 The dazzling sun at noonday hour —
 Forth from his flaming vase
 Flinging o'er earth the golden shower
 'Till vale and mountain blaze —
 But shows, O Lord, one beam of thine :
 What, then, the day where thou dost shine !
- 4 O, how shall these dim eyes endure
 That noon of living rays !
 Or how our spirits, so impure,
 Upon thy glory gaze !
 Anoint, O Lord, anoint our sight,
 And fit us for that world of light.

Power and Majesty of God.

- 1 WITH reverence let the saints appear,
 And bow before the Lord ;
 His high commands with reverence hear,
 And tremble at his word.
- 2 How terrible thy glories be !
 How bright thine armies shine !
 Where is the power that vies with thee ?
 Or truth compared with thine ?
- 3 The northern pole, and southern, rest
 On thy supporting hand ;
 Darkness and day from east to west
 Move round at thy command.
- 4 Thy words the raging winds control,
 And rule the boisterous deep ;
 Thou mak'st the sleeping billows roll,
 The rolling billows sleep.
- 5 Justice and judgment are thy throne,
 Yet wondrous is thy grace ;
 While truth and mercy, joined in one,
 Invite us near thy face.

Exhortation to Praise.

- 1 YE tribes of Adam, join
 With heaven, and earth, and seas,
 And offer notes divine
 To your Creator's praise ;

Ye holy throng		In worlds of light
Of angels bright,		Begin the song.

- 2 The shining worlds above
 In glorious order stand,
 Or in swift courses move,
 By his supreme command :

He spake the word,		From nothing came
And all their frame		To praise the Lord

- 3 Let all the nations fear
 The God that rules above ;
 He brings his people near,
 And makes them taste his love ;

While earth and sky		His saints shall raise
Attempt his praise,		His honors high.

Praise from all Creatures.

- 1 NATURE, with all her powers, shall sing
 Her great Creator and her King ;
 Nor air, nor earth, nor skies, nor seas,
 Deny the tribute of their praise.

- 2 Ye seraphs, who sit near his throne,
 Begin to make his glories known ;
 Tune high your harps, and spread the sound
 Throughout creation's utmost bound.

- 3 O, may our ardent zeal employ
 Our loftiest thoughts and loudest songs ;
 Let there be sung, with warmest joy,
 Hosanna from ten thousand tongues.

- 4 Yet, mighty God, our feeble frame
 Attempts in vain to reach thy name ;
 The highest notes that angels raise
 Fall far below thy glorious praise.

God the Life and Light of the World.

- 1 THOU art, O God, the life and light
 Of all this wondrous world we see ;
 Its glow by day, its smile by night,
 Are but reflections caught from thee.
 Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
 And all things fair and bright are thine.
- 2 When day, with farewell beam, delays
 Among the opening clouds of even,
 And we can almost think we gaze
 Through golden vistas into heaven,
 Those hues that make the sun's decline
 So soft, so radiant, Lord, are thine.
- 3 When night, with wings of starry gloom,
 O'ershadows all the earth and skies,
 Like some dark, beauteous bird, whose plume
 Is sparkling with unnumbered eyes,
 That sacred gloom, those fires divine,
 So grand, so countless, Lord, are thine.
- 4 When youthful spring around us breathes,
 Thy spirit warms her fragrant sigh ;
 And every flower the summer wreaths
 Is born beneath thy kindling eye :
 Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
 And all things fair and bright are thine.

The Lord's Prayer.

- 1 O THOU, enthroned in worlds above,
 Our Father and our Friend,

- Lo ! at the footstool of thy love
 Thy children humbly bend.
- 2 All reverence to thy name be given,
 Thy kingdom wide displayed :
 And, as thy will is done in heaven,
 Be it on earth obeyed.
- 3 Our table may thy bounty spread,
 From thine exhaustless store,
 From day to day with daily bread,
 Nor would we ask for more.
- 4 That pardon we to others give,
 Do thou to us extend ;
 From all temptation, O, relieve,
 From every ill defend.
- 5 And now to thee belong, Most High,
 The kingdom, glory, power,
 Through the broad earth and spacious sky,
 Till time shall be no more.

The Voice of Nature.

- 1 THERE is a God, all nature speaks,
 Through earth, and air, and seas, and skies;
 See, from the clouds his glory breaks,
 When the first beams of morning rise !
- 2 The rising sun, serenely bright,
 O'er the wide world's extended frame
 Inscribes, in characters of light,
 His mighty Maker's glorious name.
- 3 Diffusing life, his influence spreads,
 And health and plenty smile around ;
 And fruitful fields and verdant meads
 Are with a thousand blessings crowned.

Confess the footsteps of the God,
And bow before him and adore.

Praise at all Times.

- 1 MY soul shall praise thee, O my God,
Through all my mortal days,
And in eternity prolong
Thy vast, thy boundless praise.
- 2 In every smiling, happy hour,
Be this my sweet employ ;
Thy praise refines my earthly bliss,
And heightens all my joy.
- 3 When anxious grief and gloomy care
Afflict my throbbing breast,
My tongue shall learn to speak thy praise,
And lull each pain to rest.
- 4 Nor shall my tongue alone proclaim
The honors of my God ;
My life, with all its active powers,
Shall spread thy praise abroad.

ADORATION, PRAISE, AND THANKSGIVING.

- 5 And when these lips shall cease to move,
When death shall close these eyes,
My soul shall then to nobler heights
Of joy and transport rise.
- 6 My powers shall then, in lofty strains,
Their grateful tribute pay ;
The theme demands an angel's tongue,
An everlasting day.

Shine to your Maker's praise.
- 3 He built those worlds above,

But saints that taste his saving love
Should sing his praises best.

To thee my all I owe :
Thy sovereign bounty is the spring
Whence all my blessings flow.
- 2 Thou ever good and kind,
A thousand reasons move,

- A thousand obligations bind,
 My heart to grateful love.
- 3 The creature of thy hand,
 On thee alone I live :
 My God, thy benefits demand
 More praise than tongue can give.

 My soul with strength divine ;
 Let all my powers to thee aspire,
 And all my days be thine.

God's Mercies above all Return.

- 1 IN glad amazement, Lord, I stand,
 Amidst the bounties of thy hand :
 How numberless those bounties are !
 How rich, how various, and how fair !
- 2 But, O, what poor returns I make !
 What lifeless thanks I pay thee back !
 Lord, I confess, with humble shame,
 My offerings scarce deserve the name.
- 3 Fain would my laboring heart devise
 To bring some nobler sacrifice ;
 It sinks beneath the mighty load,
 “ What shall I render to my God ? ”
- 4 To him I consecrate my praise,
 And vow the remnant of my days ;
 Yet what, at best, can I pretend
 Worthy such gifts from such a Friend !
- 5 In deep abasement, Lord, I see
 My emptiness and poverty :
 Enrich my soul with grace divine,
 And make me worthier to be thine.
- 6 Give me, at length, an angel's tongue,
 That heaven may echo with my song :

The theme, too great for time, shall be
The joy of long eternity.

Praise from the Works of God.

- 1 GREATEST of beings ! Source of life,
Sovereign of air, and earth, and sea !
All nature feels thy power, and all
A silent homage pays to thee.
- 2 Waked by thy hand, the morning sun
Pours forth to thee its earlier rays,
And spreads thy glories as it climbs ;
While raptured worlds look up and praise.
- 3 The moon to the deep shades of night
Speaks the mild lustre of thy name ;
While all the stars that cheer the scene
Thee, the great Lord of light, proclaim.
- 4 And groves, and vales, and rocks, and hills,
And every flower, and every tree,
Ten thousand creatures warm with life,
Have each a grateful song for thee.
- 5 But man was formed to rise to heaven :
And, blest with reason's clearer light,
He views his Maker through his works,
And glows with rapture at the sight.
- 6 Nor can the thousand songs that rise,
Whether from air, or earth, or sea,
So well repeat Jehovah's praise,
Or raise such sacred harmony.

Thanksgiving and Praise.

- 1 MY soul, praise the Lord, speak good of his name !
His mercies record, his bounties proclaim :
To God, their creator, let all creatures raise
The song of thanksgiving, the chorus of praise !

- 2 Though hid from man's sight, God sits on his throne,
 Yet here by his works their author is known :
 The world shines a mirror its Maker to show,
 And heaven views its image reflected below.
- 3 By knowledge supreme, by wisdom divine,
 God governs this earth with gracious design ;
 O'er beast, bird, and insect, his providence reigns,
 Whose will first created, whose love still sustains.
- 4 And man, his last work, with reason endued,
 Who, falling through sin, by grace is renewed ;
 To God, his creator, let man ever raise
 The song of thanksgiving, the chorus of praise !

Goodness of God.

- 1 GOD, thou art good ! each perfumed flower,
 The waving field, the dark green wood,
 The insect fluttering for an hour, —
 All things proclaim that God is good.
- 2 I hear it in each breath of wind ;
 The hills that have for ages stood,
 And clouds with gold and silver lined,
 All still repeat that God is good.
- 3 Each little rill, that many a year
 Has the same verdant path pursued,
 And every bird, in accents clear,
 Joins in the song that God is good.
- 4 The countless hosts of twinkling stars,
 That sing his praise with light renewed ;
 The rising sun each day declares,
 In rays of glory, God is good.
- 5 The moon, that walks in brightness, says
 That God is good ! and man, endued
 With power to speak his Maker's praise,
 Should still repeat that God is good.

Song of Gratitude and Praise.

- 1 GOD of my life, through all my days
I 'll tune the grateful notes of praise ;
The song shall wake with opening light,
And warble to the silent night.
- 2 When anxious care would break my rest,
And grief would tear my throbbing breast,
The notes of praise, ascending high,
Shall check the murmur and the sigh.
- 3 When death o'er nature shall prevail,
And all the powers of language fail,
Joy through my swimming eyes shall break,
And mean the thanks I cannot speak.
- 4 But, O, when that last conflict 's o'er,
And I am chained to earth no more,
With what glad accents shall I rise,
To join the music of the skies !
- 5 Then shall I learn th' exalted strains
That echo through the heavenly plains,
And emulate, with joy unknown,
The glowing seraphs round thy throne

Goodness of God.

- 1 THY goodness, Lord, our souls confess ;
 Thy goodness we adore ; —

- A spring whose blessings never fail ;
 A sea without a shore.
- 2 Sun, moon, and stars thy love declare
 In every golden ray ;
 Love draws the curtains of the night,
 And love brings back the day.
- 3 Thy bounty every season crowns
 With all the bliss it yields,
 With joyful clusters loads the vines,

Praising God for Mercies.

- 1 O, BLESS the Lord, my soul !
 Let all within me join,
 And aid my tongue to bless his name,
 Whose favors are divine.
- 2 O, bless the Lord, my soul,
 Nor let his mercies lie
 Forgotten in unthankfulness,
 And without praises die.
- 3 'T is he forgives thy sins,
 'T is he relieves thy pain,
 'T is he that heals thy sicknesses,
 And makes thee young again.
- 4 He crowns thy life with love,
 When ransomed from the grave :

PERFECTIONS AND PROVIDENCE OF GOD.

- He that redeemed my soul from death
Hath sovereign power to save.
- 5 He fills the poor with good ;
He gives the sufferers rest :
The Lord hath judgments for the proud,
And justice for th' oppressed.
- 6 His wondrous works and ways
He made by Moses known ;
But sent the world his truth and grace
By his belovéd Son.

God's wondrous Love.

- 1 O, FOR a shout of joy
Loud as the theme we sing !
To this divine employ
Your hearts and voices bring ;
Sound, sound, through all the earth abroad,
The love, th' eternal love, of God.
- 2 Unnumbered myriads stand,
Of seraphs bright and fair,
Or bow at his right hand,
And pay their homage there ;
But strive in vain, with loudest chord,
To sound the wondrous love of God.
- 3 Though earth and hell assail,
And doubts and fears arise,
The weakest shall prevail,
And grasp the heavenly prize,
And through an endless age record,
The love, th' unchanging love, of God.

God is Love.

- 1 COME, ye that know and fear the Lord,
And lift your souls above ;

- Let every heart and voice accord,
 'To sing, that God is love.
- 2 Behold, his loving-kindness waits
 For those who from him rove,
 And calls of mercy reach their hearts,
 'To teach them God is love.

 This best of blessings prove :
 Till warmer hearts, in brighter worlds,
 Shall shout that God is love.

 How kind his precepts are !
 Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,
 And trust his constant care.
- 2 His bounty will provide,
 His saints securely dwell ;
 That hand which bears creation up
 Shall guard his children well.
- 3 Why should this anxious load
 Press down your weary mind :
 O, seek your Heavenly Father's throne,
 And peace and comfort find.
- 4 His goodness stands approved,
 Unchanged from day to day ;
 I 'll drop my burden at his feet,
 And bear a song away.

The Earth full of the Goodness of God.

- 1 GOD, in the high and holy place,
 Looks down upon the spheres ;
 Yet, in his providence and grace,
 'To every eye appears.

- 2 He bows the heavens ; the mountains stand,
 A highway for our God ;
 He walks amidst the desert-land ;
 'T is Eden where he trod.
- 3 The forests in his strength rejoice ;
 Hark ! on the evening breeze,
 As once of old, Jehovah's voice
 Is heard among the trees.
- 4 In every stream his bounty flows,
 Diffusing joy and wealth ;
 In every breeze his spirit blows, —
 The breath of life and health.
- 5 His blessings fall in plenteous showers
 Upon the lap of earth,
 That teems with foliage, fruits, and flowers,
 And rings with infant mirth.
- 6 If God hath made this world so fair,
 Where sin and death abound,
 How beautiful beyond compare
 Will paradise be found !

Universal Goodness of God.

- 1 LORD ! thou art good ; all nature shows
 Its mighty author kind ;
 Thy bounty through creation flows,
 Full, free, and unconfined.
- 2 The whole, and every part, proclaims
 Thine infinite good-will ;
 It shines in stars, and flows in streams,
 And blooms on every hill.
- 3 We view it o'er the spreading main,
 And heavens which spread more wide ;
 It drops in gentle showers of rain,
 And rolls in every tide.
- 4 Long hath it been diffused abroad,
 Through ages past and gone ;
 Nor ever can exhausted be,
 But still keeps flowing on.
- 5 Through the vast whole it pours supplies,
 Spreads joy through every part :
 O, may such love attract my eyes,
 And captivate my heart !
- 6 My highest admiration raise,
 My best affections move !
 Employ my tongue in songs of praise,
 And fill my heart with love !

- 2 Let us sound his name abroad,
For of gods he is the God,
Who by wisdom did create
Heaven's expanse and all its state ;
- 3 Did the solid earth ordain
How to rise above the main :
Who, by his commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light ;

All the day his course to run ;
And the moon to shine by night,
'Mid her spangled sisters bright.

Providential Goodness of God.

- 1 GREAT Source of unexhausted good,
Who giv'st us health, and friends, and food,
And peace, and calm content,
Like fragrant incense, to the skies
Let songs of grateful praises rise,
For all thy blessings lent.
- 2 Through all the dangers of the day,
Thy providence attends our way,
To guard us and to guide ;
Thy grace directs our wandering will,
And warns us, lest seducing ill
Allure our souls aside.
- 3 Thy smiles, with a reviving light,
Cheer the long, darksome hours of night,
And gild the thickest gloom ;
Thy watchful love around our bed
Doth softly, like a curtain, spread,
And guard the peaceful room.
- 4 To thee our lives, our all, we owe,
Our peace and sweetest joys below,
And brightest hopes above ;
Then let our lives, and all that 's ours,
Our souls, and all our active powers,
Be sacred to thy love.

Providential Bounties improved.

- 1 FATHER of lights ! we sing thy name
Who kindlest up the lamp of day ;
Wide as he spreads his golden flame,
His beams thy power and love display.
- 2 Fountain of good ! from thee proceed
The copious drops of genial rain,
Which, o'er the hill and through the mead,
Revive the grass, and swell the grain.
- 3 Through the wide world thy bounties spread ;
Yet millions of our guilty race,
Though by thy daily bounty fed,
Affront thy law, and spurn thy grace.
- 4 Not so may our forgetful hearts
O'erlook the tokens of thy care ;
But what thy liberal hand imparts
Still own in praise, still ask in prayer.
- 5 So shall our suns more grateful shine,
And showers in sweeter drops shall fall,

When all our hearts and lives are thine,
And thou, O God ! enjoyed in all.

Through varied deaths my soul hath led,
Or turned aside the fatal hour,
Or lifted up my sinking head, —

Thy ruling providence I see ;
Assist me still my course to run,
And still direct my paths to thee.

But to my loving Father's breast,
Secure within thine arms to lie,
And safe beneath thy wings to rest ?
- 4 I have no skill the snare to shun ;
But thou, O God, my wisdom art :
I ever into ruin run ;

The Heavens declare the Glory of God.

- 1 THE spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim.
Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
Doth his Creator's power display ;
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty hand

- 2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
 The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
 And nightly to the listening earth
 Repeats the story of her birth ;
 Whilst all the stars which round her burn,
 And all the planets in their turn,
 Confirm the tidings as they roll,
 And spread the truth from pole to pole.
- 3 What though, in solemn silence, all
 Move round this dark terrestrial ball ;
 What though no real voice nor sound
 Amidst their radiant orbs be found ;
 In reason's ear they all rejoice,
 And utter forth a glorious voice ;
 For ever singing, as they shine, —
 " The hand that made us is divine."

Where living waters gently pass,
And full salvation flows.

He doth my soul reclaim,
And guides me, in his own right way,
For his most holy name.

God our Shepherd.

- 1 THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care ;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye :
My noonday walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.
- 2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary, wandering steps he leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.
- 3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,

Thy bounty shall my pains beguile ;
 The barren wilderness shall smile,
 With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
 And streams shall murmur all around.

- 4 Though in the paths of death I tread,
 With gloomy horrors overspread,
 My steadfast heart shall fear no ill ;
 For thou, O Lord ! art with me still ;
 Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
 And guide me through the dreadful shade.

God a Refuge.

- 1 FATHER, Refuge of my soul,
 Let me to thy bosom fly,
 While the nearer waters roll,
 While the tempest still is high :
 Hide me, O my Father, hide,
 Till the storm of life is past ;
 Safe into the haven guide ;
 O, receive my soul at last !
- 2 Other refuge have I none ;
 Helpless hangs my soul on thee ;
 Leave, O, leave me not alone !
 Still support and comfort me.
 All my trust on thee is stayed,
 All my help from thee I bring ;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of thy wing.
- 3 Thou, O God, art all I want ;
 Boundless love, through Christ, I find :
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
 Thou of life the fountain art ;
 Freely let me take of thee ;
 Reign, O Lord, within my heart ;

God's merciful Providence.

While darkness veils this mortal eye,
And wait thy wise, thy holy will,
Wrapped yet in fears and mystery :
I cannot, Lord, thy purpose see ;
Yet all is well, since ruled by thee.
- 2 When, mounted on thy clouded car,
Thou send'st thy darker spirits down,
I can discern thy light afar,
Thy light sweet beaming through thy frown :
And, should I faint a moment, then
I think of thee, and smile again.
- 3 So, trusting in thy love, I tread

What though some flattering dreams are gone ?

To praise him for his sacred word, —
That word, like manna, sent from heaven,
To all who seek it freely given ;
Its promises our fears remove,
And fill our hearts with joy and love.
- 2 It tells us, though oppressed with cares,
The God of mercy hears our prayers ;
Though steep and rough th' appointed way,
His mighty arm shall be our stay ;

Though deadly foes assail our peace,
His power shall bid their malice cease.

- 3 It tells who first inspired our breath,
And who redeemed our souls from death ;
It tells of grace, — grace freely given, —
And shows the path to God and heaven :
O, bless we, then, our gracious Lord,
For all the treasures of his word.

Whence sagest teachers may be taught,
And wisdom's self become more wise.
- 4 More glorious still as centuries roll,

The Seed of the Word.

- 1 O GOD, by whom the seed is given,
By whom the harvest blest ;
Whose word, like manna showered from heaven,
Is planted in our breast ;
- 2 Preserve it from the passing feet
And plunderers of the air ;
The sultry sun's intenser heat,
And weeds of worldly care !
- 3 Though buried deep, or thinly strown,
Do thou thy grace supply :
The hope in earthly furrows sown
Shall ripen in the sky.

The Scriptures our Light and Guide.

- 1 WHEN Israel through the desert passed,
A fiery pillar went before,
To guide them through the dreary waste,
And lessen the fatigues they bore.
- 2 Such is thy glorious word, O God ;
'T is for our light and guidance given ;
It sheds a lustre all abroad,
And points the path to bliss and heaven.
- 3 It fills the soul with sweet delight,
And quickens its inactive powers ;
It sets our wandering footsteps right,
Displays thy love and kindles ours.
- 4 Its promises rejoice our hearts ;
Its doctrines are divinely true ;
Knowledge and pleasure it imparts ;
It comforts and instructs us too.
- 5 Ye favored lands, who have this word !
Ye saints, who feel its saving power !
Unite your tongues to praise the Lord,
And his distinguished grace adore.

Heavenly Bread.

- 1 WHAT is the chaff, the word of man,
When set against the wheat ?
Can it a dying soul sustain,
Like that immortal meat ?

And those who by thy word are fed,
Their souls shall never die.

Divine Teachings and their happy Consequences.

- 1 BRIGHT Source of intellectual rays,
Father of spirits and of grace,
O, dart, with energy unknown
Celestial beamings from thy throne.
- 2 Thy sacred book we would survey,
Enlightened with that heavenly day,
And ask thy Spirit, with the word,
To teach our souls to know the Lord.
- 3 So shall our children learn the road
That leads them to their fathers' God ;
And, formed by lessons so divine,
Shall infant minds with knowledge shine.
- 4 So shall the haughtiest soul submit,
With children placed at Jesus' feet ;
The rising swell of pride shall cease,
And thy sweet voice be heard in peace.

The Riches of God's Word.

- 1 LET worldly men from shore to shore
Their chosen good pursue ;
Thy word, O Lord, we value more

Are opened to our sight ;
The purest gold without alloy,
And gems divinely bright.
- 3 The counsels of redeeming grace
These sacred leaves unfold ;
And here the Saviour's lovely face
Our raptured eyes behold.
- 4 Here light descending from above
Directs our doubtful feet ;

Power of God's Word.

Searching the Scriptures.

May we with firmness own,
Abhorring each evasive art,
And fearing thee alone.

Song of the Angels of Bethlehem.

- 1 HARK ! what mean those holy voices,
Sweetly sounding through the skies ?
Lo ! th' angelic host rejoices ;
Heavenly hallelujahs rise.
- 2 Listen to the wondrous story,
Which they chant in hymns of joy :
“ Glory in the highest, glory !
Glory be to God most high !
- 3 “ Peace on earth, good-will from heaven,
Reaching far as man is found :
Souls redeemed and sins forgiven : —
Loud our golden harps shall sound.
- 4 “ Christ is born, the great Anointed ;
Heaven and earth his praises sing !
O, receive whom God appointed,
For your Prophet, Priest, and King.”
- 5 Let us learn the wondrous story
Of our great Redeemer's birth ;
Spread the brightness of his glory,
Till it cover all the earth.

Nativity of Christ.

- 1 WHILE shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
- 2 “ Fear not,” said he, — for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind ;

- “ Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.
- 3 “ To you, in David’s town, this day
Is born, of David’s line,
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord ;
And this shall be the sign : —
- 4 “ ‘The heavenly babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid.’”
- 5 Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels praising God, and thus
Addressed their joyful song : —
- 6 “ All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace !
Good-will henceforth, from heaven to men,
Begin and never cease.”

Christmas Hymn.

- 1 CALM on the listening ear of night
Come heaven’s melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains !
- 2 Celestial choirs, from courts above,
Shed sacred glories there ;
And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
Make music on the air.
- 3 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply ;
And greet, from all their holy heights,
The dayspring from on high.
- 4 O’er the blue depths of Galilee
There comes a holier calm,

And Sharon waves, in solemn praise,
Her silent groves of palm.

- 5 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring;—
"Peace to the earth, — good-will to men,
From heaven's Eternal King!"
- 6 Light on thy hills, Jerusalem!
The Saviour now is born!
And bright on Bethlehem's joyous plains
Breaks the first Christmas morn.

Report of the Watchman.

- 1 WATCHMAN! tell us of the night,
What its signs of promise are.
Traveller! o'er yon mountain's height
See that glory-beaming star.
- 2 Watchman! does its beauteous ray
Aught of hope or joy foretell?
Traveller! yes; it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel.
- 3 Watchman! tell us of the night;
Higher yet that star ascends.
Traveller! blessedness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends.
- 4 Watchman! will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveller! ages are its own;
See, it bursts o'er all the earth.
- 5 Watchman! tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn.
Traveller! darkness takes its flight;
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
- 6 Watchman! let thy wanderings cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.

Traveller ! lo ! the Prince of Peace,
Lo ! the Son of God, is come.

The guiding Star. .

- 1 BRIGHT was the guiding star, that led,
With mild, benignant ray,
The Gentiles to the lowly bed
Where our Redeemer lay.
- 2 But, lo ! a brighter, clearer light
Now points to his abode ;
It shines through sin and sorrow's night,
To guide us to our Lord.
- 3 O, haste to follow where it leads ;
The gracious call obey,
Be rugged wilds, or flowery meads,
The Christian's destined way.
- 4 O, gladly tread the narrow path,
While light and grace are given ;
Who meekly follow Christ on earth
Shall reign with him in heaven.

Birth of Christ.

- 1 HAIL, all hail the joyful morn !
Tell it forth from earth to heaven,
That to us a child is born,
That to us a son is given.
- 2 Angels, bending from the sky,
Chanted at the wondrous birth ;
“Glory be to God on high,
Peace, — good-will to man on earth.”
- 3 Join we then our feeble lays
To the chorus of the sky ;
And, in songs of grateful praise,
Glory give to God on high.

The Coming of Christ.

- 1 GLORY to God, and peace on earth,
Was once by angels sung ;
Glad tidings of a Saviour's birth
Through plains of Bethlehem rung.
- 2 He came to make the feeble strong,
To heal the deaf and blind,
To give the dumb the voice of song,
And free the captive mind.
- 3 He came the light of life to show,
The true and living way ;
Where streams of joy unceasing flow,
And lead to endless day.
- 4 Glory to God ! the gospel's sound
Our churches echo still ;
Spread it, O Lord, the world around,
And with its spirit fill.
- 5 Glory to God ! our hearts acclaim ;
O, haste the happy time,
When songs shall sound the Saviour's name
O'er every distant clime.

Christmas.

- 1 WHEN in silence, o'er the deep,
Darkness kept its deathlike sleep ;
Soon as God his mandate spoke,
Light in wondrous beauty broke.
- 2 But a beam of holier light
Gilded Bethlehem's lonely night,
When the glory of the Lord,
Mercy's sunlight, shone abroad.
- 3 "Peace on earth, good-will to men,"
Burst the glorious anthem then ;

Angels, bending from above,
Joined that strain of holy love.

- 4 Floating o'er the waves of time,
Comes to us that song sublime,
Bearing to the pilgrim's ear,
Words to soothe, sustain, and cheer.
- 5 For creation's blessed light,
Praise to thee, thou God of might !
Seraph-strains thy name should bless
For the Sun of Righteousness !

Christmas Hymn.

- 1 O, LET your mingling voices rise,
In grateful rapture, to the skies,
And hail a Saviour's birth :
Let songs of joy the day proclaim,
When Jesus all-triumphant came
To bless the sons of earth.
- 2 He came to bid the weary rest,
To heal the sinner's wounded breast,
To bind the broken heart,
To spread the light of truth around,
And to the world's remotest bound
The heavenly gift impart.
- 3 He came our trembling souls to save
From sin, from sorrow, and the grave,
And chase our fears away ;
Victorious over death and time,
To lead us to a happier clime,
Where reigns eternal day.

The Song of Angels.

- 1 HARK ! what celestial sounds,
What music fills the air !

Soft warbling to the morn,
 It strikes the ravished ear :

Now all is still ;		In tuneful notes,
Now wild it floats,		Loud, sweet, and shrill.

2 Th' angelic hosts descend,
 With harmony divine :
 See how from heaven they bend,
 And in full chorus join :

“ Fear not,” say they ;		Jesus, your King,
“ Great joy we bring :		Is born to-day.”

3 He comes your souls to save
 From death's eternal gloom ;
 To realms of bliss and light
 He lifts you from the tomb :

Your voices raise,		Your songs unite
With sons of light ;		Of endless praise.

4 Glory to God on high !
 Ye mortals spread the sound,
 And let your raptures fly
 To earth's remotest bound ;

For peace on earth,		To man is given,
From God in heaven,		At Jesus' birth.

The Star of Bethlehem.

- 1 WHEN, marshalled on the nightly plain,
 The glittering host bestud the sky,
 One star alone of all the train
 Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.
- 2 Hark ! hark ! to God the chorus breaks,
 From every host, from every gem ;
 But one alone the Saviour speaks, —
 It is the Star of Bethlehem !
- 3 Once on the raging seas I rode ;
 The storm was loud, the night was dark ;

The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
The wind that tossed my foundering bark.

- 4 Deep horror then my vitals froze ;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem ;
When suddenly a star arose, —
It was the Star of Bethlehem.
- 5 It was my guide, my light, my all ;
It bade my dark forebodings cease ;
And, through the storm and danger's thrall,
It led me to the port of peace.
- 6 Now, safely moored, my perils o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
For ever, and for evermore, —
The Star — the Star of Bethlehem !

Have seen a glorious light ;
The people dwell in day, who dwelt
In death's surrounding night.
- 2 To hail thy rise, thou better Sun,
The gathering nations come,
With joy, as when the reapers bear
The harvest treasures home.
- 3 To us a child of hope is born,
To us a son is given ;
And him shall all the earth obey,
And all the hosts of heaven.

His reign no end shall know ;
His throne shall justice guard above,

Glory and Grace in Christ.

- 1 NOW to the Lord a noble song !
Awake, my soul ; awake, my tongue ;
Hosanna to th' eternal name,
And all his boundless love proclaim.
- 2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,
The brightest image of his grace ;
God, in the person of his Son,
Has all his mightiest works outdone.
- 3 The spacious earth and spreading flood
Proclaim the wise and powerful God ;
And thy rich glories from afar
Sparkle in every rolling star.
- 4 But in his looks a glory stands, —
The noblest labor of thine hands ;
The pleasing lustre of his eyes
Outshines the wonders of the skies.
- 5 Grace ! 't is a sweet, a charming theme ;
My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name ;
Ye angels, dwell upon the sound ;
Ye heavens, reflect it to the ground.

The Baptism and Inspiration of Jesus.

- 1 IN Judah's rugged wilderness,
Where Jordan rolls his flood,
In manners strict, and rude in dress,
The holy Baptist stood.
- 2 And while upon the river's side
The people thronged to hear,
" Repent," the sacred preacher cried ;
" The heavenly kingdom 's near."
- 3 Now Jesus to the stream descends ;
His feet the waters lave ;

- And o'er his head, that humbly bends,
 The Baptist pours the wave ;—
- 4 When, lo ! a heavenly form appears,
 Descending as a dove ;
 And wondrous sounds th' assembly hears,
 Proclaiming from above, —
- 5 “ This is my well-belovéd Son ;
 On him my spirit rests ;
 Now is his reign of grace begun ;
 Attend his high behests.”
- 6 The sacred voice has reached our ear,
 And still through distant lands
 Shall sound, till all his name revere,
 And honor his commands.

Christ's Message.

- 1 HARK ! the glad sound ! the Saviour comes !
 The Saviour promised long !
 Let every heart prepare a throne,
 And every voice a song.
- 2 On him the Spirit, largely poured,
 Exerts its sacred fire ;
 Wisdom and might, and zeal and love,
 His holy breast inspire.
- 3 He comes, the prisoner to release,
 In Satan's bondage held ;
 The gates of brass before him burst,
 The iron fetters yield.
- 4 He comes, from thickest films of vice
 To clear the mental ray,
 And on the eyeballs of the blind
 To pour celestial day.
- 5 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
 The bleeding soul to cure,

And with the treasures of his grace
 'T' enrich the humble poor.

- 6 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
 Thy welcome shall proclaim,
And heaven's eternal arches ring
 With thy belovéd name.

Blessedness of Gospel Times.

 Who stand on Zion's hill !
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
 And words of peace reveal !
- 2 How charming is their voice !
 How sweet the tidings are ! —
“ Zion, behold thy Saviour King !
 He reigns and triumphs here.”
- 3 How happy are our ears,
 That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
 And sought, but never found !
- 4 How blesséd are our eyes,
 That see this heavenly light !
Prophets and kings desired it long,
 But died without the sight.
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,
 And tuneful notes employ ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
 And deserts learn the joy.

HEMANS.

The Agony in Gethsemane.

- 1 HE knelt ; the Saviour knelt and prayed,
When but his Father's eye
Looked, through the lonely garden's shade,
On that dread agony ;
The Lord of high and heavenly birth
Was bowed with sorrow unto death.
- 2 The sun went down in fearful hour ;
The heavens might well grow dim,
When this mortality had power
To thus o'ershadow him ;
That he who came to save might know
The very depths of human woe.
- 3 He knew them all, — the doubt, the strife,
The faint, perplexing dread ;

- The mists that hang o'er parting life
 All darkened round his head ;
 And the Deliverer knelt to pray ;
 Yet passed it not, that cup, away.
- 4 It passed not, though the stormy wave
 Had sunk beneath his tread ;
 It passed not, though to him the grave
 Had yielded up its dead ;
 But there was sent him, from on high,
 A gift of strength, for man to die.
- 5 And was his mortal hour beset
 With anguish and dismay ?
 How may we meet our conflict yet
 In the dark, narrow way ?
 How, but through him that path who trod ?
 " Save, or we perish, Son of God."

Christ the Sufferer.

- 1 O, SUFFERING Friend of human kind !
 How, as the fatal hour drew near,
 Came thronging on thy holy mind
 The images of grief and fear.
- 2 Gethsemane's sad midnight scene,
 The faithless friends, th' exulting foes,
 The thorny crown, the insult keen,
 The scourge, the cross, before thee rose.
- 3 Did not thy spirit shrink dismayed,
 As the dark vision o'er it came ;
 And, though in sinless strength arrayed,
 Turn, shuddering, from the death of shame ?
- 4 Onward, like thee, through scorn and dread,
 May we our Father's call obey,
 Steadfast thy path of duty tread,
 And rise, through death, to endless day.

- 2 “ ’T is finished ! ” — all that Heaven foretold
By prophets in the days of old ;
And truths are opened to our view,
That kings and prophets never knew.
- 3 “ ’T is finished ! ” — Son of God, thy power
Hath triumphed in this awful hour ;
And yet our eyes with sorrow see
That life to us was death to thee.
- 4 “ ’T is finished ! ” — let the joyful sound

A solemn darkness veils the skies ;
A sudden trembling shakes the ground.
- 2 Here 's love and grief beyond degree ;
The Lord of glory dies for men !
But, lo ! what sudden joys we see !
Jesus, the dead, revives again !
- 3 The rising Lord forsakes the tomb ;
The tomb in vain forbids his rise ;
Cherubic legions guard him home,
And shout him welcome to the skies.
- 4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
How high our great Deliverer reigns ;

Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell,
And led the monster Death in chains.

- 5 Say, " Live for ever, wondrous King !
Born to redeem, and strong to save " ;
Then ask the monster, " Where 's thy sting ? "
And " Where thy victory, boasting grave ? "

Jesus dissipates its gloom !
Day of triumph through the skies,
See the glorious Saviour rise !

Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ, the Heavenly King.
- 4 Soon shall we hear him say,

Miraculous Character of Jesus Christ.

- 1 WHAT works of wisdom, power, and love
Do Jesus' high commission prove !
Attest his heaven-deriv'd claim,
And glorify his Father's name !
- 2 On eyes that never saw the day,
He pours the bright, celestial ray ;
And deafened ears, by him unbound,
Catch all the harmony of sound.
- 3 Lameness takes up its bed and goes
Rejoicing in the strength that flows
Through every nerve ; and, free from pain,
Pours forth to God the grateful strain.
- 4 The shattered mind his word restores,
And tunes afresh the mental powers ;
The dead revive, to life return,
And bid affection cease to mourn.
- 5 Canst thou, my soul, these wonders trace,
And not admire Jehovah's grace ?
Canst thou behold thy Saviour's power,
And not the God he served adore ?

Hymn for Easter.

- 1 LIFT your glad voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen, and man cannot die :
Vain were the terrors that gathered around him,
And short the dominion of death and the grave ;
He burst from the fetters of darkness that bound him.
Resplendent in glory, to live and to save :
Loud was the chorus of angels on high, —
The Saviour hath risen, and man shall not die.
- 2 Glory to God in full anthems of joy,
The being he gave us death cannot destroy :

Sad were the life we must part with to-morrow,
 If tears were our birthright, and death were our end ;
 But Jesus hath cheered the dark valley of sorrow,
 And bade us, immortal, to heaven ascend :
 Lift, then, your voices in triumph on high,
 For Jesus hath risen, and man shall not die.

Praise to the Saviour.

- 1 O, FOR a thousand tongues to sing
 My dear Redeemer's praise, —
 The glories of my Lord and King,
 The triumphs of his grace.
- 2 My gracious Master and my Lord,
 Assist me to proclaim,
 To spread through all the earth abroad,
 The honors of thy name.
- 3 Jesus ! the name that calms our fears,
 That bids our sorrows cease ;
 'T is music in the sinner's ears ;
 'T is life, and health, and peace.
- 4 He breaks the power of reigning sin ;
 He sets the prisoner free ;
 He makes the guilty conscience clean ;
 And all our sorrows flee.

ANCIENT HYMNS.

Rejoicing in Christ.

- 1 SWEET thy mem'ry, Saviour blest,
 In the true believer's breast ;
 Musing on thy precious name,
 Purest joys his heart inflame.
- 2 By the ear or tuneful tongue
 Naught so sweet is heard or sung ;
 Naught the mind can dwell upon
 Sweet as God's belovéd Son.

- 3 Thou the contrite sinner's stay,
 Who thy goodness can display ?
 How to those who seek thee kind !
 What, ah ! what, to those who find ?
- 4 Tongue can speak not their delight,
 Nor can pen of man indite ;
 None can know, but they who prove,
 What it is their Lord to love.

God's Mercy in Christ.

- 1 RAISE your triumphant songs
 To an immortal tune ;
 Let all the earth resound the deeds
 Celestial grace has done.
- 2 Sing how eternal love
 Its best Belovéd chose,
 And bade him raise our ruined race
 From their abyss of woes.
- 3 His hand no thunder bears,
 No terror clothes his brow,
 No bolts to drive our guilty souls
 To fiercer flames below.
- 4 Now, sinners, dry your tears ;
 Let hopeless sorrow cease ;
 Bow to the sceptre of his love,
 And take the offered peace.

The Cross of Christ.

- 1 IN the cross of Christ I glory,
 Towering o'er the wrecks of time ;
 All the light of sacred story
 Gathers round its head sublime.
- 2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
 Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,

Never shall the cross forsake me ;
Lo ! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds more lustre to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified ;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

Redeeming Love.

1 NOW begin the heavenly theme ;
Sing aloud in Jesus' name ;
Ye who his salvation prove
Triumph in redeeming love.

2 Ye who see the Father's grace
Beaming in the Saviour's face,
As to Canaan on ye move,
Praise and bless redeeming love.

3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears ;
Banish all your guilty fears ;
Welcome, all by sin oppressed,
Welcome to his sacred rest ;

4 Hither, then, your music bring ;
Strike aloud each cheerful string ;
Mortals, join the host above, —
Join to praise redeeming love.

DODDRIDGE

"He is risen."

1 YE humble souls that seek the Lord,
Chase all your fears away ;
And bow with reverence down, to see
The place where Jesus lay.

- 2 Thus low the Lord of life was brought, —
 Such wonders love can do !
 Thus cold in death that bosom lay
 Which throbb'd and bled for you.
- 3 But dry your tears and tune your songs,
 The Saviour lives again ;
 Not all the bolts and bars of death
 The conqueror could detain.
- 4 High o'er th' angelic band he rears
 His once dishonored head ;
 And through unnumbered years he reigns,
 Who dwelt among the dead.

Sun of Righteousness.

- 1 CHRIST, whose glory fills the skies,
 Christ, the true, the only light,
 Sun of Righteousness, arise,
 Triumph o'er the shades of night ;
 Dayspring from on high, be near ;
 Daystar, in my heart appear.
- 2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
 If thy light is hid from me ;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 'Till thy mercy's beams I see ;
 Till they inward light impart,
 Warmth and gladness to my heart.
- 3 Visit, then, this soul of mine ;
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief ;
 Fill me, radiant Sun divine ;
 Scatter all my unbelief ;
 More and more thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day.

The Way, the Truth, and the Life.

- 1 THOU art the Way ; to thee alone
From sin and death we flee
And he who would the Father seek
Must seek him, Lord, through thee.
- 2 Thou art the Truth ; thy word alone
True wisdom can impart ;
Thou, only, canst instruct the mind,
And purify the heart.
- 3 Thou art the Life ; the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm ;
And those who put their trust in thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.
- 4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life ;
Grant us to know that way,
That truth to keep, that life to win,
Which lead to endless day.

The Coming of Christ in the Power of his Gospel.

- 1 LORD Jesus, come ; for here
Our path through wilds is laid ;
We watch, as for the dayspring near,
Amid the breaking shade.
- 2 Lord Jesus, come ; for hosts
Meet on the battle plain ;
The patriot mourns, the tyrant boasts,
And tears are shed like rain.
- 3 Lord Jesus, come ; for still
Vice shouts her maniac mirth ;
The famished crave in vain their fill,
While teems the fruitful earth.
- 4 Hark ! herald voices near,
Lead on thy happier day ;

Come, Lord, and our hosannas hear ;
We wait to strow thy way.

- 5 Come, as in days of old,
With words of grace and power ;
Gather us all within thy fold,
And never leave us more.

Jesus precious to them that believe.

- 1 JESUS, I love thy charming name ;
'T is music to my ear ;
Fain would I sound it out so loud
That earth and heaven might hear.
- 2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul,
My transport and my trust :
Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.
- 3 Whate'er my noblest powers can wish
In thee doth richly meet ;
No light unto my eyes so dear,
No friendship half so sweet.
- 4 Thy grace shall dwell upon my heart,
And shed its fragrance there, —
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

Excellency of Christ.

- 1 O, COULD we speak the matchless worth,
O, could we sound the glories forth,
Which in our Saviour shine,
We 'd soar, and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel, while he sings,
In notes almost divine.

- 2 We 'd sing the characters he bears,
 And all the forms of love he wears,
 Exalted on his throne :
 In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
 We would, to everlasting days,
 Make all his glories known.
- 3 O, the delightful day will come,
 When Christ, our Lord, will bring us home,
 And we shall see his face :
 Then, with our Saviour, Brother, Friend,
 A blest eternity we 'll spend,
 Triumphant in his grace.

FROTHINGHAM.

Christ's Manifestation.

- 1 WE meditate the day
 Of triumph and of rest,
 When, shown of God, and shaped in clay,
 The Word was manifest.
- 2 Lord, give it gracious sweep,
 And here its errand bless,
 Whose mercy sent it o'er the deep,
 To glad a wilderness.
- 3 Ray out its starry light,
 To guide our pilgrim way, —
 A sign of hope to this world's night,
 And brighter than its day.
- 4 Again thy witness-voice !
 Again thy spirit-dove !
 That hearts may in its trust rejoice,
 And soften with its love.
- 5 Send round its blesséd cup
 As once in Galilee ;
 And catch our dull affections up
 To heaven, and Christ, and thee.

Christ's Precepts of Love.

- 1 BEHOLD, where, breathing love divine,
Our dying Master stands ;
His weeping followers, gathering round,
Receive his last commands.
- 2 From that mild Teacher's parting lips
What tender accents fell !
The gentle precept which he gave
Became its author well.
- 3 " Blest is the man whose softening heart
Feels all another's pain ;
To whom the supplicating eye
Was never raised in vain ; —
- 4 " Whose breast expands with generous warmth,
A stranger's woes to feel ;
And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.
- 5 " Peace from the bosom of his Lord,
My peace to him I give ;
And when he kneels before the throne,
His trembling soul shall live.
- 6 " Himself, through Christ, hath mercy found, —
Free mercy from above ;
That mercy moves him to fulfil
The perfect law of love."

The Examples of Christ and the Saints.

- 1 GIVE me the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
And bright their glories be.
- 2 Once they were mourners here below,
And wet their couch with tears ;

They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 I ask them whence their victory came ;
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.

4 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
For his own pattern given,
While the long cloud of witnesses
Shows the same path to heaven.

"That ye through his Poverty might be rich."

- 1 O'ER the dark wave of Galilee
The gloom of twilight gathers fast,
And on the waters drearily
Descends the fitful evening blast.
- 2 The weary bird hath left the air,
And sunk into his sheltered nest ;
The wandering beast has sought his lair,
And laid him down to welcome rest.
- 3 Still near the lake, with weary tread,
Lingers a form of human kind ;
And on his lone, unsheltered head
Flows the chill night-damp of the wind.
- 4 Why seeks he not a home of rest ?
Why seeks he not a pillowed bed ?
Beasts have their dens, the bird its nest ;
He hath not where to lay his head.
- 5 Such was the lot he freely chose,
To bless, to save the human race ;
And through his poverty there flows
A rich, full stream of heavenly grace.

MONTGOMERY

Singing the Song of the Redeemed.

- 1 SING we the song of those who stand
 Around th' eternal throne,
 Of every kindred, clime, and land,
 A multitude unknown.
- 2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here ;
 To-day, the young, the old,
 Our Saviour and his flock, appear
 One Shepherd and one fold.
- 3 Toil, trial, suffering, still await
 On earth the pilgrim's throng ;
 Yet learn we, in our low estate,
 The church triumphant's song.
- 4 " Worthy the Lamb, for sinners slain,"
 Cry the redeemed above,
 " Blessing and honor to obtain,
 And everlasting love."
- 5 " Worthy the Lamb," on earth we sing,
 " Who died our souls to save ;
 Henceforth, O Death, where is thy sting ?
 Thy victory, O Grave ?"
- 6 Then hallelujah ! power and praise
 To God in Christ be given ;
 May all who now this anthem raise
 Renew the song in heaven !

Moses and Christ.

- 1 NOT to the terrors of the Lord,
 The tempest, fire, and smoke ;
 Not to the thunder of that word
 Which God on Sinai spoke ;—
- 2 But we are come to Zion's hill,
 The city of our God,

- Where milder words declare his will,
And spread his love abroad.
- 3 Behold the great, the glorious host
Of angels, clothed in light ;
Behold the spirits of the just,
Whose faith is turned to sight ; —
- 4 Behold the blest assembly there,
Whose names are writ in heaven ;
And God, the Judge of all, declares
Their sins to be forgiven.
- 5 The saints on earth, and all the dead,
But one communion make ;
All join in Christ, their living Head,
And of his grace partake.
- 6 In such society as this
My weary soul would rest :
The man that dwells where Jesus is
Must be for ever blest.

Christ's Kingdom among the Gentiles.

- 1 JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journèys run ;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
- 2 For him shall endless prayer be made,
And endless praises crown his head ;
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.
- 3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song ;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.
- 4 Blessings abound where'er he reigns ;
The joyful prisoner bursts his chains,

The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

- 5 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King ;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud Amen.

Sleeping in Jesus.

- 1 ASLEEP in Jesus ! blesséd sleep !
From which none ever wakes to weep ;
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the dread of foes.
- 2 Asleep in Jesus ! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest ;
No fear, no woes, shall dim that hour,
Which manifests the Saviour's power.
- 3 Asleep in Jesus ! time nor space
Debars this precious hiding-place ;
On Indian plains, or Lapland snows,
Believers find the same repose.
- 4 Asleep in Jesus ! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be ;
But thine is still a blesséd sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

STEELE.

Example of the Saviour.

- 1 AND is the gospel peace and love ?
So let our conversation be ;
The serpent blended with the dove,
Wisdom and meek simplicity.
- 2 Whene'er the angry passions rise,
And tempt our thoughts or tongues to strife,
On Jesus let us fix our eyes,
Bright pattern of the Christian life !

- 3 O, how benevolent and kind !
 How mild ! how ready to forgive !
 Be this the temper of our mind,
 And his the rules by which we live.
- 4 To do his Heavenly Father's will
 Was his employment and delight :
 Humanity and holy zeal
 Shone through his life divinely bright !
- 5 Dispensing good where'er he came,
 The labors of his life were love ;
 If, then, we love our Saviour's name,
 Thus let us our relation prove.

Example of Christ.

- 1 MY dear Redeemer, and my Lord,
 I read my duty in thy word ;
 But in thy life the law appears
 Drawn out in living characters.
- 2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
 Such deference to thy Father's will,
 Such love, and meekness so divine,
 I would transcribe, and make them mine.
- 3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
 Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer,
 The desert thy temptations knew,
 Thy conflict, and thy victory, too
- 4 Be thou my pattern ; may I bear
 More of thy gracious image here ;
 Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
 Among the followers of the Lamb.

Attraction of the Cross.

- 1 BEHOLD th' amazing sight,
 The Saviour lifted high !

- Behold the Father's chief delight
 Expire in agony !
- 2 For whom, for whom, my heart,
 Were all these sorrows borne ?
 Why did he feel that piercing smart,
 And meet that various scorn ?
- 3 For love of us he bled,
 And all in torture died ;
 'T was love that bowed his fainting head,
 And oped his gushing side.
- 4 In sympathy of love
 Let all the earth combine ;
 And, drawn by cords so gentle, prove
 The energy divine.
- 5 In him our hearts unite,
 Nor share his grief alone,
 But from his cross pursue their flight,
 To his triumphant throne.

267.

L. M.

DODDRIDGE

Christ's Submission to his Father's Will.

- 1 " FATHER divine," the Saviour cried,
 While horrors pressed on every side,
 And prostrate on the ground he lay,
 " Remove this bitter cup away.
- 2 " But if these pangs must still be borne
 Or helpless man be left forlorn,
 I bow my soul before thy throne,
 And say, Thy will, not mine, be done."
- 3 Thus our submissive souls would bow,
 And, taught by Jesus, lie as low ;
 Our hearts, and not our lips alone,
 Would say, Thy will, not ours, be done.
- 4 Then, though like him in dust we lie,
 We 'll view the blissful moment nigh,

Which, from our portion in his pains,
Calls to the joy in which he reigns.

Christ the Light of the World.

- 1 BEHOLD ! the Prince of Peace,
The chosen of the Lord,
God's well beloved Son, fulfils
The sure prophetic word.
- 2 No royal pomp adorns
This King of Righteousness ;
Meekness and patience, truth and love,
Compose his princely dress.
- 3 The spirit of the Lord,
In rich abundance shed,
On this great Prophet gently lights,
And rests upon his head.
- 4 Jesus, the light of men !
His doctrine life imparts ;
O, may we feel its quickening power
To warm and glad our hearts.
- 5 Cheered by its beams, our souls
Shall run the heavenly way ;
The path which Christ has marked and trod
Will lead to endless day.

Christ the Sun of Righteousness.

- 1 TO thee, O God ! we homage pay,
Source of the light that rules the day !
Who, while he gilds all nature's frame,
Reflects thy rays and speaks thy name.
- 2 In louder strains we sing that grace
Which gives the Sun of Righteousness,
Whose nobler light salvation brings,
And scatters healing from his wings.

- 3 Still on our hearts may Jesus shine,
 With beams of light and love divine ;
 Quickened by him our souls shall live,
 And cheered by him shall grow and thrive.
- 4 O, may his glories stand confessed,
 From north to south, from east to west ;
 Successful may his gospel run,
 Wide as the circuit of the sun.
- 5 When shall that radiant scene arise,
 When, fixed on high, in purer skies,
 Christ all his lustre shall display
 On all his saints through endless day !

MONTGOMERY

Christ our Example in Suffering.

- 1 GO to dark Gethsemane,
 Ye that feel temptation's power ;
 Your Redeemer's conflict see ;
 Watch with him one bitter hour :
 Turn not from his griefs away ;
 Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.
- 2 Follow to the judgment-hall ;
 View the Lord of life arraigned ;
 O, the wormwood and the gall !
 O, the pangs his soul sustained !
 Shun not suffering, shame, or loss ;
 Learn of him to bear the cross.
- 3 Calv'ry's mournful mountain climb ;
 There, admiring at his feet,
 Mark that miracle of time,
 God's own sacrifice complete :
 " It is finished," hear him cry ;
 Learn of Jesus Christ to die.
- 4 Early hasten to the tomb
 Where they laid his breathless clay ;

All is solitude and gloom :
 Who has taken him away ?
 Christ is risen ; he meets our eyes :
 Saviour, teach us so to rise.

Example of Christ.

- 1 BEHOLD, where, in a mortal form,
 Appears each grace divine ;
 The virtues, all in Jesus met,
 With mildest radiance shine.
- 2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
 To give the mourner joy,
 To preach glad tidings to the poor,
 Was his divine employ.
- 3 'Midst keen reproach, and cruel scorn,
 Patient and meek he stood ;
 His foes, ungrateful, sought his life ;
 He labored for their good.
- 4 In the last hour of deep distress,
 Before his Father's throne,
 With soul resigned, he bowed, and said,
 " Thy will, not mine, be done !"
- 5 Be Christ our pattern and our guide ;
 His image may we bear ;
 O, may we tread his holy steps,
 His joy and glory share !

Jesus our Leader.

- 1 FEEBLE, helpless, how shall I
 Learn to live and learn to die ?
 Who, O God, my guide shall be ?
 Who shall lead thy child to thee ?
- 2 Blesséd Father, gracious One,
 Thou hast sent thy holy Son ;

- He will give the light I need,
 He my trembling steps will lead.
- 3 Through this world, uncertain, dim,
 Let me ever lean on him ;
 From his precepts wisdom draw,
 Make his life my solemn law.
- 4 Thus, in deed, and thought, and word,
 Led by Jesus Christ the Lord,
 In my weakness, thus shall I
 Learn to live and learn to die.
- 5 Learn to live in peace and love,
 Like the perfect ones above ;—
 Learn to die without a fear,
 Feeling thee, my Father, near.

The Teaching of Jesus.

- 1 HOW sweetly flowed the gospel sound
 From lips of gentleness and grace,
 When listening thousands gathered round,
 And joy and gladness filled the place !
- 2 From heaven he came, of heaven he spoke,
 To heaven he led his followers' way ;
 Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
 Unveiling an immortal day.
- 3 “ Come, wanderers, to my Father's home ;
 Come, all ye weary ones, and rest ” :
 Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
 Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.
- 4 Decay, then, tenements of dust !
 Pillars of earthly pride, decay !

A nobler mansion waits the just,
And Jesus has prepared the way.

- 1 GOD, in the gospel of his Son,
Makes his eternal counsels known ;
'T is here his richest mercy shines
And truth is drawn in fairest lines.
- 2 Wisdom its dictates here imparts,
To form our minds, to cheer our hearts ;
Its influence makes the sinner live ;
It bids the drooping saint revive.
- 3 Our raging passions it controls,
And comfort yields to contrite souls ;
It brings a better world in view,
And guides us all our journey through.

That feed upon the wind,
And vainly strive with earthly toys
To fill an empty mind, —
- 3 Eternal Wisdom has prepared
A soul-reviving feast,
And bids your longing appetites
The rich provision taste.

4 Ho ! ye that pant for living streams,
 And pine away, and die, —
 Here you may quench your raging thirst
 With springs that never dry.

 Stand open night and day ;

 They through the world obedient went,
 And spread the gospel of their Lord :
- 2 “ Go forth, ye heralds, in my name ;
 Bid all the world my grace receive ;
 The gospel jubilee proclaim,
 And call them to repent and live.
- 3 “ The joyful news to all impart,
 And teach them where salvation lies ;
 Bind up the broken, bleeding heart,
 And wipe the tear from weeping eyes.
- 4 “ Be wise as serpents where you go,
 But harmless as the peaceful dove,
 And let your heaven-taught conduct show
 That you ’re commissioned from above.

Efficacy and Success of the Gospel.

- 1 MARK the soft-falling snow
 And the diffusive rain !

To heaven, from whence it fell,
It turns not back again ;

But waters earth		And calls forth all
Through every pore,		Her secret store.

2 Arrayed in beauteous green,
The hills and valleys shine,
And man and beast are fed
By Providence divine :

The harvest bows		The copious seed
Its golden ears,		Of future years.

3 " So," saith the God of grace,
" My gospel shall descend,
Almighty to effect

The purpose I intend ;

Millions of souls		And bear it down
Shall feel its power,		To millions more."

- 1 LET everlasting glories crown
Thy head, my Saviour and my Lord ;
Thy hands have brought salvation down,
And stored the blessings in thy word.
- 2 In vain the trembling conscience seeks
Some solid ground to rest upon ;
With long despair the spirit breaks,
Till we apply to Christ alone.
- 3 How well thy blesséd truths agree !
How wise and holy thy commands !
Thy promises, how firm they be !
How firm our hope and comfort stands !
- 4 Should all the forms that men devise
Assault my faith with treacherous art,
I 'd call them vanity and lies,
And bind the gospel to my heart.

Come and welcome.

- 1 FROM the cross uplifted high,
Where the Saviour deigns to die,
What melodious sounds we hear,
Bursting on the ravished ear ! —
“ Love’s redeeming work is done ;
Come and welcome, sinner, come.
- 2 “ Spread for thee the festal board,
See, with richest dainties stored ;
To thy Father’s bosom pressed,
Yet again a child confessed,
Never from his house to roam,
Come and welcome, sinner, come.

Long hast borne the proud world’s scorn,
Long hast roamed the barren waste,
Weary pilgrim, hither haste !
- 3 Ye, who, tossed on beds of pain,
Seek for ease, but seek in vain :
Ye, whose swollen and sleepless eyes
Watch to see the morning rise :

- 4 Ye, by fiercer anguish torn,
 In remorse for guilt who mourn ;
 Here repose your heavy care !
 Conscience wounded, who can bear ?
- 5 Sinner, come ! for here is found
 Balm that flows for every wound ;
 Peace that ever shall endure ;
 Rest eternal, sacred, sure.

 And offer fervent prayer.
- 3 Come, let us share, without delay,
 The blessings of his grace ;
 Nor shall the years of distant life
 Their mem'ry e'er efface.
- 4 O, may our children ever haste
 To seek their fathers' God,
 Nor e'er forsake the happy path
 Their fathers' feet have trod.

DODDRIDGE.

Religion the one Thing needful.

- 1 WHY do we waste in trifling cares
 The lives divine compassion spares,
 While, in the various range of thought,
 The one thing needful is forgot ?
- 2 Our Father calls us from above,
 Our Saviour pleads his dying love,

Awakened conscience gives us pain ;
 Shall all these pleas unite in vain ?

- 3 Not so our dying eyes will view
 The objects which we now pursue ;
 Not so eternity appear,
 When the decisive hour is near.
- 4 Then wake, my soul, thy way prepare,
 And lose in this each meaner care ;
 With steady step that path be trod,
 Which through the grave conducts to God.

Gospel Invitations.

- 1 THE Spirit, in our hearts,
 Is whispering, “ Sinner, come ! ”
 The Bride, the church of Christ, proclaims
 To all his children, “ Come ! ”
- 2 Let him that heareth say
 To all about him, “ Come ! ”
 Let him that thirsts for righteousness,
 To Christ, the fountain, come !
- 3 Yes, whosoever will,
 O, let him freely come,
 And freely drink the stream of life ;
 ’T is Jesus bids him come.
- 4 Lo, Jesus, who invites,
 Declares, “ I quickly come ” :
 Lord, even so ! I wait thine hour :
 Jesus, my Saviour, come !

The Sinner entreated to awake.

- 1 SINNER, rouse thee from thy sleep ;
 Wake, and o’er thy folly weep ;
 Raise thy spirit, dark and dead ;
 Jesus waits his light to shed.

- 2 Wake from sleep ; arise from death ;
See the bright and living path ;
Watchful, tread that path ; be wise ;
Leave thy folly ; seek the skies.
- 3 Leave thy folly ; cease from crime ;
From this hour redeem thy time ;
Life secure without delay ;
Evil is thy mortal day.
- 4 O, then, rouse thee from thy sleep ;
Wake, and o'er thy folly weep ;
Jesus calls from death and night ;
Jesus waits to shed his light.

SELECT HYMN

Now the Day of Grace.

- 1 NOW is the day of grace ;
Now to the Father come ;
The Lord is calling, " Seek my face,
And I will guide you home."
- 2 The Saviour bids you speed ;
O, wherefore then delay ?
He calls in love ; he sees your need ;
He bids you come to-day.
- 3 To-day the prize is won ;
The promise is to save ;
Then, O, be wise ; to-morrow's sun
May shine upon your grave.

DODDRIDGE

A timely Improvement of Life.

- 1 THE swift-declining day,
How fast its moments fly !
While evening's broad and gloomy shade
Gains on the western sky.
- 2 Ye mortals ! mark its pace ;
Improve the hours of light ;

- And know, your Maker can command
 An instantaneous night.
- 3 His word blots out the sun
 In its meridian blaze ;
 And cuts from sanguine, vigorous youth
 The remnant of its days.
- 4 On the dark mountain's brow
 Your feet shall quickly slide,
 And from its airy summit dash
 Your momentary pride.
- 5 What most demands your care,
 O, be it still pursued !
 Lest, slighted once, the season fair
 Should never be renewed.
- 6 Then shall new lustre break
 Through horror's darkest gloom,
 And lead you to unchanging light,
 In a celestial home.

MONTGOMERY

Blessings of Christ's Kingdom.

- 1 HAIL to the Lord's Anointed,
 Great David's greater Son !
 Hail ! in the time appointed
 His reign on earth begun !
 He comes to break oppression,
 To set the captive free,
 To take away transgression,
 And rule in equity.
- 2 He comes, with succour speedy,
 To those who suffer wrong ;
 To help the poor and needy,
 And bid the weak be strong ;
 'To give them songs for sighing,
 Their darkness turn to light,
 Whose souls, condemned and dying,
 Were precious in his sight.

- 3 He shall descend like showers
 Upon the fruitful earth,
 And love and joy, like flowers,
 Spring in his path to birth ;
 Before him, on the mountains,
 Shall peace, the herald, go ;
 And righteousness, in fountains,
 From hill to valley flow.
- 4 For him shall prayer unceasing
 And daily vows ascend,
 His kingdom still increasing, —
 A kingdom without end :
 The tide of time shall never
 His covenant remove ;
 His name shall stand for ever ;
 That name to us is love.

ANONYMOUS

The Gospel gives Peace and Rest.

- 1 PEACE, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan
 Hath taught these rocks the notes of woe ;
 Cease thy complaints, suppress thy groan,
 And let thy tears forget to flow :
 Behold the precious balm is found,
 Which lulls thy pain, which heals thy wound.
- 2 Come, freely come, by sin oppressed,
 Unburden here the weighty load,
 Here find thy refuge and thy rest,
 And trust the mercy of thy God :
 Thy God 's thy Father, — glorious word !
 For ever love and praise the Lord.
- 3 As spring the winter, day the night,
 Peace sorrow's gloom shall chase away,
 And smiling joy, a seraph bright,
 Shall tend thy steps and near thee stay ;
 Whilst glory weaves th' immortal crown,
 And waits to claim thee for her own.

CAMPBELL'S COLL.

Pleading the Promise of the Spirit.

- 1 O THOU that hearest prayer,
 Attend our humble cry,
 And let thy servants share
 Thy blessing from on high :
 We plead the promise of thy word ;
 Grant us thy holy spirit, Lord.
- 2 If earthly parents hear
 Their children when they cry, —
 If they, with love sincere,
 Their varied wants supply, —
 Much more wilt thou thy love display,
 And answer when thy children pray.
- 3 Our Heavenly Father, thou ;
 We, children of thy grace :
 O, let thy spirit now
 Descend and fill the place :
 So shall we feel the heavenly flame,
 And all unite to praise thy name.
- 4 O, may that sacred fire,
 Descending from above,
 Our languid hearts inspire
 With fervent zeal and love :
 Enlighten our beclouded eyes,
 And teach our grovelling souls to rise.
- 5 And send thy spirit down
 On all the nations, Lord,
 With great success to crown
 The preaching of thy word,
 Till heathen lands shall own thy sway,
 And cast their idol gods away.

290. 8, 6, & 4s. M. SPIRIT OF THE PSALMS.The Holy Spirit the Comforter.

- 1 OUR blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender, last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
With us to dwell.
- 2 He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, convince, subdue ;
All powerful as the wind he came,
As viewless too.
- 3 He came sweet influence to impart,
A gracious, willing guest,
While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.
- 4 And his that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breeze of even,
That checks each fault, that calms each fear,
And speaks of heaven.
- 5 And every virtue we possess,
And every victory won,
And every thought of holiness,
Are his alone.
- 6 Spirit of purity and grace,
Our weakness, pitying, see ;
O, make our hearts thy dwelling-place,
And worthier thee.

291. L. M. BURDER'S COLL.Quickening Spirit.

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, calm my mind,
And fit me to approach my God ;
Remove each vain, each worldly thought,
And lead me to thy blest abode.
- 2 Hast thou imparted to my soul
A living spark of holy fire ?

O, kindle now the sacred flame,
And make me burn with pure desire.

- 3 A brighter faith and hope impart,
And let me now my Saviour see ;
O, soothe and cheer my burdened heart,
And bid my spirit rest in thee.

For Ferrency of Devotion.

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.
- 2 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise ;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
- 3 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers ;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

Whate'er that sin may be,
That we, with humble, holy heart,
May worship only thee.

Sanctifying Influence.

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, come ;
Let thy bright beams arise ;
Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
The darkness from our eyes.
- 2 Convince us all of sin ;
Lead us to thine abode,
And to our wondering view reveal
Thy mercies, O our God !
- 3 Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.
- 4 'T is thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part
And new-create the whole.
- 5 Dwell, Spirit, in our hearts ;
Our minds from bondage free ;
Then shall we know, and praise, and love,
And rise at length to thee.

The teaching Spirit.

- 1 HOLY Spirit, from on high,
Bend o'er us a pitying eye ;
Now refresh the drooping heart,
Bid the power of sin depart.
- 2 Light up every dark recess
Of our heart's ungodliness ;
Show us every devious way
Where our steps have gone astray.
- 3 Teach us, with repentant grief,
Humbly to implore relief ;

Then the Saviour's love reveal,
And our broken spirits heal.

- 4 May we daily grow in grace,
And pursue the heavenly race,
Trained in wisdom, led by love,
Till we reach our rest above.

Our Guide.

- 1 Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With light and comfort from above ;
Be thou our guardian, thou our guide ;
O'er every thought and step preside.
- 2 To us the light of truth display,
And make us know and choose thy way ,
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.
- 3 Lead us to holiness, — the road
Which we must take to dwell with God ,
Lead us to Christ, — the living way, —
Nor let us from his pastures stray ; —
- 4 Lead us to God, — our final rest, —
To be with him for ever blest ;
Lead us to heaven, its bliss to share, —
Fulness of joy for ever there.

For a holy Heart.

 Thy heavenly grace impart,
 And by thy holy spirit write
 Thy law upon my heart :

 Let naught my purpose move ;
 O, let my faith more steadfast be,
 And more intense my love !
- 2 Imbue my constant mind
 With deep humility,
 And let an ardent zeal be joined
 With perfect charity ;
 That grace to me impart,
 With meekness to reprove,
 To hate the sin with all my heart,
 And still the sinner love.
- 3 Long as my trials last,
 Long as the cross I bear,
 O, let my soul on thee be cast
 In confidence and prayer !
 Conduct me to the shore

 Where storm and tempest rise no more,
 Where sin and sorrow cease.

To speed me in thy way,
Lest I should loiter in my race,
Or turn my feet astray.
- 3 Are not thy mercies sovereign still,
And thou a faithful God ?
Wilt thou not grant me warmer zeal
To run the heavenly road ?

- 4 Does not my heart thy precepts love,
 And long to see thy face ?
 And yet how slow my spirits move
 Without enlivening grace !

 That spake a present Deity ?
 3 And as, upon the sacred page,

 O'er records of a holier age,
 Hath not thy heart within thee burned ?

- 4 It was the voice of God that spake
 In silence to thy silent heart ;
 And bade each worthier thought awake,
 And every dream of earth depart.

- 1 WHAT is this that stirs within,
 Loving goodness, hating sin,
 Always craving to be blest,
 Finding here below no rest ?
- 2 Naught that charms the ear or eye

Faith the Evidence of Things not seen.

- 1 FAITH is the brightest evidence
Of things beyond our sight ;
It pierces through the veil of sense,
And dwells in heavenly light.
- 2 It sets time past in present view,
Brings distant prospects home,
Of things a thousand years ago,
Or thousand years to come.
- 3 By faith we know the world was made
By God's almighty word ;
We know the heavens and earth shall fade
And be again restored.
- 4 Abra'm obeyed the Lord's command,
From his own country driven ;
By faith he sought a promised land,
But found his rest in heaven.

- 5 Thus through life's pilgrimage we stray,
 The promise in our eye ;
 By faith we walk the narrow way
 That leads to joy on high.

 Though pressed by every foe,
 That will not tremble on the brink
 Of any earthly woe ! —
- 2 That will not murmur nor complain
 Beneath the chastening rod,
 But, in the hour of grief or pain,
 Will lean upon its God ; —
- 3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
 When tempests rage without ;
 That when in danger knows no fear,
 In darkness feels no doubt ; —
- 4 That bears, unmoved, the world's dread frown,
 Nor heeds its scornful smile ;
 That seas of trouble cannot drown,
 Nor Satan's arts beguile ; —
- 5 A faith that keeps the narrow way
 Till life's last hour is fled,
 And with a pure and heavenly ray
 Lights up a dying bed.
- 6 Lord, give us such a faith as this,
 And then, whate'er may come,
 We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
 Of an eternal home.

 And, when the joys of sense depart,
 To live by faith alone.

 It is the substance of his hope,
 His proof of things unseen ;
 It is the anchor of his soul
 When tempests rage and billows roll.
- 2 Faith is the polar star
 That guides the Christian's way,
 Directs his wanderings from afar
 To realms of endless day ;
 It points the course, where'er he roam,
 And safely leads the pilgrim home.
- 3 Faith is the rainbow's form
 Hung on the brow of heaven,
 The glory of the passing storm,
 The pledge of mercy given ;
 It is the bright, triumphal arch,
 Through which the saints to glory march.

- 4 The faith that works by love,
 And purifies the heart,
 A foretaste of the joys above
 To mortals can impart ;
 It bears us through this earthly strife,
 And triumphs in immortal life.

A living Faith.

- 1 MISTAKEN souls, that dream of heaven,
 And make their empty boast
 Of inward joys, and sins forgiven,
 While they are slaves to lust !
- 2 How vain are fancy's airy flights,
 If faith be cold and dead ;
 None but a living power unites
 To Christ, the living Head.
- 3 'T is faith that purifies the heart ;
 'T is faith that works by love ;
 That bids all sinful joys depart,
 And lifts the thoughts above.
- 4 This faith shall every fear control
 By its celestial power,
 With holy triumph fill the soul
 In death's approaching hour.

Walking by Faith.

- 1 'T IS by the faith of joys to come
 We walk through deserts dark as night ;
 Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
 Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
- 2 The want of sight she well supplies ;
 She makes the pearly gates appear ;
 Far into distant worlds she pries,
 And brings eternal glories near.

- 3 With joy we tread the desert through,
 While faith inspires a heavenly ray,
 Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
 And rocks and dangers fill the way.
- 4 So Abra'm by divine command
 Left his own house to walk with God ;
 His faith beheld the promised land,
 And fired his zeal along the road.

Faith in the invisible God.

- 1 ALMIGHTY and immortal King,
 Thy peerless splendors none can bear ;
 But darkness veils seraphic eyes,
 When God with all his glory 's there.
- 2 Yet faith can pierce the awful gloom,
 The great Invisible can see,
 And with its tremblings mingle joy,
 In fixed regards, great God, to thee.
- 3 This one petition would it urge,
 To bear thee ever in its sight ;
 In life, in death, in worlds unknown,
 Its only portion and delight.

Soaring by Faith.

- 1 THERE is a glorious world on high,
 Resplendent with eternal day ;
 Faith views the blissful prospect nigh,
 While God's own word reveals the way.
- 2 There shall the servants of the Lord
 With never-fading lustre shine ;
 Surprising honor ! vast reward !
 Conferred on man by love divine.
- 3 Rescued from that destructive way,
 Where erring folly thoughtless roves,

The heavenly virtue they display,
Which Jesus taught, and God approves.

- 4 The shining firmament shall fade,
And sparkling stars resign their light ;
But these shall know nor change nor shade,
For ever fair, for ever bright.
- 5 On wings of faith and strong desire,
O, may our spirits daily rise ;
And reach at last the shining choir,
In the bright mansions of the skies.

Power of Faith.

- 1 FAITH adds new charms to earthly bliss,
And saves us from its snares ;
It yields support in all our toils
And softens all our cares.
- 2 The wounded conscience knows its power
The healing balm to give ;
That balm the saddest heart can cheer,
And make the dying live.
- 3 Unveiling wide the heavenly world,
Where endless pleasures reign,
It bids us seek our portion there,
Nor bids us seek in vain.
- 4 There, still unshaken, would we rest,
Till this frail body dies,
And then, on faith's triumphant wing,
To endless glory rise.

Faith the Source of Triumph.

- 1 O, FOR an overcoming faith,
To cheer my dying hour,
To triumph o'er the monster, Death,
And all his frightful power.

- 2 Joyful, with all the strength I have,
 My quivering lips would sing,
 Where is thy boasted victory, Grave?
 O Death! where is thy sting?
- 3 Pardon and life, — how dear each word!
 God life and pardon sends,
 And, by our dying, rising Lord,
 Insures to all his friends.
- 4 All glory be to God on high,
 And endless thanks be paid,
 Who makes us conquerors though we die,
 Through Christ, our living Head.

Faith without Works is dead.

- 1 AS body when the soul has fled,
 As barren trees, decayed and dead,
 Is faith; a hopeless, lifeless thing,
 If not of righteous deeds the spring.
- 2 One cup of healing oil and wine,
 One tear-drop shed on mercy's shrine,
 Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to thee,
 Than lifted eye or bended knee.
- 3 In true and heaven-born faith, we trace
 The source of every Christian grace;
 Within the pious heart it plays,
 A living fount of joy and praise.
- 4 Kind deeds of peace and love betray
 Where'er the stream has found its way;
 But where these spring not rich and fair,
 The stream has never wandered there.

Faith in Joys unseen.

- 1 O, COULD our thoughts and wishes fly,
 Above these gloomy shades,

To those bright worlds beyond the sky,
Which sorrow ne'er invades ! —

- 2 There joys, unseen by mortal eyes,
Or reason's feeble ray,
In ever-blooming prospects rise,
Unconscious of decay.
- 3 Lord ! send a beam of light divine,
To guide our upward aim ;
With one reviving touch of thine,
Our languid hearts inflame.
- 4 O, then, on faith's sublimest wing,
Our ardent hope shall rise
To those bright scenes, where pleasures spring,
Immortal, in the skies.

The Solace of Faith.

- 1 WHEN human hopes and joys depart,
I give thee, Lord, a contrite heart ;
And on my weary spirit steal
The thoughts that pass all earthly weal.
- 2 I cast above my tearful eyes,
And muse upon the starry skies ;
And think that He who governs there
Still keeps me in his guardian care.
- 3 I gaze upon the opening flower,
Just moistened with the evening shower ;
And bless the love which made it bloom,
To chase away my transient gloom.
- 4 I think, whene'er this mortal frame
Returns again to whence it came,
My soul shall wing its happy flight
To regions of eternal light.

Help thou mine Unbelief.

- 1 FATHER, when o'er our trembling hearts
Doubt's shadows gathering brood,
When faith in thee almost departs,
And gloomiest fears intrude,
Forsake us not, O God of grace,
But send those fears relief ;
Grant us again to see thy face ;
Lord, help our unbelief.
- 2 When sorrow comes, and joys are flown,
And fondest hopes lie dead,
And blessings, long esteemed our own,
Are now for ever fled ;
When the bright promise of our spring
Is but a withered leaf,
Lord, to thy truths still let us cling ;
Help thou our unbelief.
- 3 And when the powers of nature fail
Upon the couch of pain,
Nor love nor friendship can avail
The spirit to detain ;
Then, Father, be our closing eyes
Undimmed by tears of grief ;
And, if a trembling doubt arise,
Help thou our unbelief.

God our Hope.

- 1 ETERNAL Source of joys divine,
To thee my soul aspires :
O, could I say, The Lord is mine !
'T is all my soul desires.
- 2 Thy smile can give me real joy,
Unmingled and refined,

Substantial bliss without alloy,
And lasting as the mind.

3 Thy smile can gild the shade of woe,
Bid stormy troubles cease,
And spread the dawn of heaven below,
And sweeten pain to peace.

4 My Hope, my Trust, my Life, my Lord,
Assure me of thy love ;
O, speak the kind, transporting word,
And bid my fears remove :

5 Then shall my thankful powers rejoice,
And triumph in my God,
Till heavenly rapture tune my voice
To sound thy praise abroad.

Hope.

- 1 BORNE o'er the ocean's stormy wave,
The beacon's light appears,
When yawns the seaman's watery grave,
And his lone bosom cheers.
- 2 Then, should the raging ocean foam,
His heart shall dauntless prove,
To reach, secure, his cherished home,
The haven of his love.
- 3 So, when the soul is wrapt in gloom,
To worldly grief a prey,
Thy beams, blest Hope, beyond the tomb,
Illume the pilgrim's way.
- 4 They point to that serene abode
Where holy faith shall rest,
Protected by the sufferer's God,
And be for ever blest.
- 5 O, still, though sorrow's rayless night
O'ershade our worldly way,

May pure religion's holy light
Shine with o'erpowering ray.

The Hope of Heaven.

To mansions in the skies,
I bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.
- 2 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
And storms of sorrow fall,
May I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all !

In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

Hope in Trouble.

- 1 WHEN musing sorrow weeps the past,
And mourns the present pain,
'T is sweet to think of peace at last,
And feel that death is gain.
- 2 'T is not that murmuring thoughts arise,
And dread a Father's will ;
'T is not that meek submission flies,
And would not suffer still.
- 3 It is that heaven-born faith surveys
The path that leads to light,
And longs her eagle plumes to raise,
And lose herself in sight.
- 4 It is that troubled conscience feels
The pangs of struggling sin,

And sees, though far, the hand that heals,
And ends the strife within.

- 5 O, let me wing my hallowed flight
From earthborn woe and care,
And soar above these clouds of night,
My Saviour's bliss to share.

God our only Hope.

- 1 WHEN rest of all, and hopeless care
Would sink us to the tomb,
What power shall save us from despair,
What dissipate the gloom ?
- 2 No balm that earthly plants distil
Can soothe the mourner's smart,
No mortal hand, with lenient skill,
Bind up the broken heart.
- 3 But One alone, who reigns above,
Our woe to joy can turn,
And light the lamp of life and love,
That long has ceased to burn.
- 4 Then, O my soul ! to that One flee,
To God thy woes reveal ;
His eye alone thy wounds can see,
His power alone can heal.

Joyful Hope.

- 1 KNOW, my soul ! thy full salvation ;
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care,
Joy to find in every station,
Something still to do or bear :
Think what spirit dwells within thee ;
Think what Father's smiles are thine ;
Think what Jesus did to win thee ; —
Child of heaven ! canst thou repine ?

- 2 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
 Armed with faith and winged with prayer,
 Heaven's eternal day 's before thee,
 God's own hand shall guide thee there :
 Soon shall close thine earthly mission,
 Soon shall pass thy pilgrim-days ;
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

The Christian rejoicing in Hope.

- 1 CHILDREN of the Heavenly King,
 As ye journey, sweetly sing ;
 Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
 Glorious in his works and ways.
- 2 Ye are travelling home to God,
 In the way the fathers trod ;
 They are happy now, and ye
 Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Shout, ye little flock and blest ;
 You on Jesus' throne shall rest ;
 There your seat is now prepared,
 There your kingdom and reward.
- 4 Lord, submissive make us go,
 Gladly leaving all below ;
 Only thou our Leader be,
 And we still will follow thee.

Gratitude and Hope.

- 1 MY soul, triumphant in the Lord,
 Proclaim thy joys abroad,
 And march with holy vigor on,
 Supported by thy God.
- 2 Through every winding maze of life
 His hand has been my guide ;

And in his long-experienced care
My heart shall still confide.

3 Beyond the choicest joys of time,
Thy courts on earth I love ;
But, O, I burn with strong desire
To dwell with thee above.

4 There, joined with all the shining band,
My soul would thee adore,
A pillar in thy temple fixed,
To be removed no more.

The Christian's Experience a Ground for Hope.

1 WHEN God revealed his gracious name,
And changed my mournful state,
My rapture seemed a pleasing dream,
The grace appeared so great.

2 The world beheld the glorious change,
And did thy hand confess ;
My tongue broke out in unknown strains,
And sung surprising grace.

3 The Lord can clear the darkest skies,
Can give us day for night,
Make drops of sacred sorrow rise
To rivers of delight.

4 Let those that sow in sadness wait
Till the fair harvest come ;
They shall confess their sheaves are great,
And shout the blessings home.

The Hope, the Star, the Voice.

1 THERE is a hope, a blesséd hope,
More precious and more bright
Than all the joyless mockery
The world esteems delight.

- 2 There is a star, a lovely star,
 That lights the darkest gloom,
 And sheds a peaceful radiance o'er
 The prospects of the tomb.
- 3 There is a voice, a cheering voice,
 That lifts the soul above,
 Dispels the painful, anxious doubt,
 And whispers, "God is love."
- 4 That voice, aloud from Calvary's height,
 Proclaims the soul forgiven ;
 That star is revelation's light ;
 That hope, the hope of heaven.

Hope of Reunion above.

- 1 WHEN floating on life's troubled sea,
 By storms and tempests driven,
 Hope, with her radiant finger, points
 To brighter scenes in heaven.
- 2 She bids the storms of life to cease,
 The troubled breast be calm ;
 And in the wounded heart she pours
 Religion's healing balm.
- 3 Her hallowed influence cheers life's hours
 Of sadness and of gloom ;
 She guides us through this vale of tears,
 To joys beyond the tomb.
- 4 And when our fleeting days are o'er,
 And life's last hour draws near,
 With still unwearied wing she hastes
 To wipe the falling tear.
- 5 She bids the anguished heart rejoice :
 Though earthly ties are riven,
 We still may hope to meet again
 In yonder peaceful heaven.

344. C. M. CHRISTIAN PSALMIST

Faith, Hope, and Charity.

- 1 FAITH, hope, and love now dwell on earth,
And earth by them is blest ;
But faith and hope must yield to love,
Of all the graces best.
- 2 Hope shall to full fruition rise,
And faith be sight above ;
These are the means, but this the end,
For saints for ever love.

345. L. M. WATTS.

Religion vain without Love.

- 1 HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews,
And nobler speech than angels use,
If love be absent, I am found,
Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.
- 2 Were I inspired to preach and tell
All that is done in heaven and hell, —
Or could my faith the world remove, —
Still I am nothing without love.
- 3 Should I distribute all my store
To feed the hungry, clothe the poor, —
Or give my body to the flame,
To gain a martyr's glorious name, —
- 4 If love to God and love to men
Be absent, all my hopes are vain ;
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,
'The work of love can e'er fulfil.

346. L. M. WATTS.

Love to God and our Neighbour.

- 1 THUS saith the first, the great command :
“ Let all thy inward powers unite
To love thy Maker and thy God
With utmost vigor and delight.

- 2 “ Then shall thy neighbour next in place
 Share thine affections and esteem ;
 And let thy kindness to thyself
 Measure and rule thy love to him.”
- 3 This is the sense that Moses spoke ;
 This did the prophets preach and prove ;
 For want of this the law is broke,
 And the whole law ’s fulfilled by love.
- 4 But, O, how base our passions are !
 How cold our charity and zeal !
 Lord, fill our souls with heavenly fire,
 Or we shall ne’er perform thy will.

Brotherly Love.

- 1 HOW sweet, how heavenly, is the sight,
 When those that love the Lord
 In one another’s peace delight,
 And thus fulfil his word ! —
- 2 When each can feel his brother’s sigh,
 And with him bear a part ;
 When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
 And joy from heart to heart ! —
- 3 When, free from envy, scorn, and pride,
 Our wishes all above,
 Each can his brother’s failings hide,
 And show a brother’s love !
- 4 Love is the golden chain that binds
 The happy souls above ;
 And he ’s an heir of heaven that finds
 His bosom glow with love.

Union and Peace.

- 1 BLEST are the sons of peace,
 Whose hearts and hopes are one,

- Whose kind designs to serve and please
Through all their actions run.
- 2 Blest is the pious house,
Where zeal and friendship meet ;
Their songs of praise, their mingled vows,
Make their communion sweet.
- 3 From those celestial springs
Such streams of pleasure flow,
As no increase of riches brings,
Nor honors can bestow.
- 4 Thus, when on Aaron's head
They poured the rich perfume,
The oil through all his raiment spread,
And fragrance filled the room.
- 5 Thus, on the heavenly hills,
The saints are blest above,
Where joy, like morning dew, distils,
And all the air is love.

- 1 PEOPLE of the living God,
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.
- 2 Now to you my spirit turns, —
Turns, a fugitive unblest ;
Brethren, where your altar burns,
O, receive me into rest.
- 3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave ;
Where you dwell shall be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave.
- 4 Mine the God whom you adore ;
Your Redeemer shall be mine ;

Earth can fill my soul no more ;
Every idol I resign.

The Christian Graces.

- 1 FAITH, hope, and charity, these three,
Yet is the greatest charity ;
Father of lights, these gifts impart
To mine and every human heart.
- 2 Faith, that in prayer can never fail,
Hope, that o'er doubting must prevail,
And charity, whose name above
Is God's own name, for God is love.
- 3 The morning star is lost in light,
Faith vanishes at perfect sight,
The rainbow passes with the storm
And hope with sorrow's fading form.
- 4 But charity, serene, sublime,
Beyond the reach of death and time,
Like the blue sky's all-bounding space,
Holds heaven and earth in its embrace.

Christian Unity.

- 1 HOW beautiful the sight
Of brethren who agree
In friendship to unite,
And bonds of charity :
'T is like the precious ointment shed
O'er all his robes, from Aaron's head.
- 2 'T is like the dews that fill
The cups of Hermon's flowers,
Or Zion's fruitful hill,
Bright with the drops of showers,
When mingling odors breathe around,
And glory rests on all the ground.

3 For there the Lord commands
 Blessings, a boundless store,
 From his unsparing hands,
 Yea, life for evermore :
Thrice happy they who meet above
To spend eternity in love.

 The Christian world o'erspread ;
Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,

- 2 Among the saints on earth
 Let mutual love be found ;
Heirs of the same inheritance,
 With mutual blessings crowned.
- 3 Envy and strife, be gone,
 And only kindness known,
Where all one common father have,
 One common master own.

 Resemble that above ;
Where springs of purest pleasure rise,
 And every heart is love.

Christian Friendship.

- 1 HOW blest the sacred tie that binds
In union sweet according minds !
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts, and faith, and hopes are one !
- 2 To each the soul of each how dear !
What jealous love, what holy fear !
How doth the generous flame within
Refine from earth and cleanse from sin !

- 3 Their streaming eyes together flow
 For human guilt and mortal woe ;
 Their ardent prayers together rise
 Like mingling flames in sacrifice.
- 4 Together shall they seek the place
 Where God reveals his awful face :
 How high, how strong, their raptures swell,
 There 's none but kindred souls can tell.
- 5 Nor shall the glowing flame expire
 When nature droops her sickening fire ;
 Then shall they meet in realms above,
 A heaven of joy, — because of love.

The Law of Love.

- 1 FAR from thy servants, God of grace,
 Th' unfeeling heart remove,
 And form in our obedient souls
 The image of thy love.
- 2 O, may our sympathizing breasts
 The generous pleasure know,
 Kindly to share in others' joy,
 And weep for others' woe !
- 3 Where'er the helpless sons of grief
 In low distress are laid,
 Soft be our hearts their pains to feel,
 And swift our hands to aid.
- 4 O, be the law of love fulfilled
 In every act and thought,
 Each angry passion far removed,
 Each selfish view forgot !
- 5 Be thou, my heart, dilated wide
 With this kind, social grace,
 And, in one grasp of fervent love,
 All earth and heaven embrace.

The Law of Sympathy.

- 1 ALL nature feels attractive power,
A strong, embracing force ;
The drops that sparkle in the shower,
The planets in their course.
- 2 Thus in the universe of mind
Is felt the law of love ;
The charity, both strong and kind,
For all that live and move.
- 3 In this fine, sympathetic chain
All creatures bear a part ;
Their every pleasure, every pain,
Linked to the feeling heart.
- 4 More perfect bond, the Christian plan
Attaches soul to soul ;
Our neighbour is the suffering man,
Though at the farthest pole.
- 5 To earth below, from heaven above,
The faith in Christ professed
More clear reveals that God is love,
And whom he loves is blest

Charitable Judgment.

- 1 ALL-SEEING God ! 't is thine to know
The springs whence wrong opinions flow ;
To judge, from principles within,
When frailty errs, and when we sin.
- 2 Who among men, great Lord of all,
Thy servant to his bar shall call ?
Judge him, for modes of faith, thy foe,
And doom him to the realms of woe ?
- 3 Who with another's eye can read ?
Or worship by another's creed ?
Trusting thy grace, we form our own,
And bow to thy commands alone.

While, faithful, we improve our light,
Condemning none, but zealous still
To learn and follow all thy will.

The Properties of Christian Charity.

- 1 LET men of high conceit and zeal
Their fervor and their faith proclaim :
If charity be wanting still,
The rest is but a sounding name.
- 2 Patient and meek, she suffers long,
And slowly her resentments rise :
Soon she forgets the greatest wrong,
And rage retires, and malice dies.
- 3 She envies none their better state,
But makes her neighbour's bliss her own :

Nor vaunts herself with mind elate,
 But still a modest air puts on.

- 4 This is the grace that reigns on high,
 And brightly will for ever burn,
 When hope shall in fruition die,
 And faith to sight triumphant turn.

Love to all Mankind.

- 1 O GOD, my Father and my King,
 Of all I have, or hope, the spring !
 Send down thy spirit from above,
 And fill my heart with heavenly love.
- 2 May I from every act abstain,
 That hurts or gives another pain :
 And bear a sympathizing part,
 Whene'er I meet a wounded heart.
- 3 And let my neighbour's prosperous state
 A mutual joy in me create ;
 His virtuous triumph let me join ;
 His peace and happiness be mine.
- 4 And though my neighbour's hate I prove,
 Still let me vanquish hate with love,
 And every secret wish suppress,
 That would abridge his happiness.
- 5 Let love through all my conduct shine,
 An image fair, though faint, of thine ;
 Thus let me his disciple prove,
 Who came to manifest thy love.

Christ's Love to Enemies our Example.

- 1 GOD of our mercy and our praise,
 Thy glory is our song ;
 We 'll speak the honors of thy grace
 With a rejoicing tongue.

- 2 When Christ among the sons of men
 In humble form was found,
 With cruel slanders, false and vain,
 They compassed him around.
- 3 Their miseries his compassion moved,
 Their peace he still pursued ;
 They rendered hatred for his love,
 And evil for his good.
- 4 Their malice raged without a cause ;
 Yet, with his dying breath,
 He prayed for murderers on his cross
 And blest his foes in death.

 Our stubborn sins will fight and reign,
 If love be absent there.
- 3 This is the grace that lives and sings,
 When faith and hope shall cease ;
 'T is this shall strike our joyful strings

For the Spirit of Love.

- 1 GIVER of peace and unity,
Send down thy mild, pacific Dove ;

And breathe the spirit of thy love.
- 2 We all shall think and speak the same
Delightful lesson of thy grace,
One undivided Christ proclaim,
And jointly glory in thy praise
- 3 O, let us take a softer mould,
Blended and gathered into thee ;
Under one Shepherd make one fold,
Where all is love and harmony.
- 4 Subdue in us the carnal mind,
The enmity of sin destroy ;
With cords of love our passions bind,
And gently melt us into joy.

And force thy wondering foes to say,
“ Behold these Christians, how they love ! ”

Who lends the poor without reward,
Or gives with liberal hands.

To all the sons of need,
So God shall answer his request
With blessings on his seed.
- 3 In times of danger and distress,
Some beams of light shall shine,

REPENTANCE AND REFORMATION.

To show the world his righteousness,
And give him peace divine.

- 4 His works of piety and love
Remain before the Lord ;
Sweet peace on earth, and joys above,
Shall be his sure reward.

Charity.

- 1 GO to the pillow of disease,
Where night gives no repose,
And on the cheek where sickness preys,
Bid health to plant the rose.
- 2 Go where the friendless stranger lies ;
To perish is his doom ;
Snatch from the grave his closing eyes,
And bring his blessing home.
- 3 Thus what our Heavenly Father gave
Shall we as freely give ;
Thus copy him who lived to save,
And died that we might live.

Prayer for Repentance.

- 1 O, FOR that tenderness of heart
Which bows before the Lord,
That owns how just and good thou art,
And trembles at thy word !
- 2 O, for those humble, contrite tears,
Which from repentance flow,

That sense of guilt, which, trembling, fears
The long-suspended blow !

3 O Lord, to me in pity give,
For sin the deep distress,
The pledge thou wilt at last receive,
And bid me die in peace.

4 O, fill my soul with faith and love,
And strength to do thy will ;
Raise my desires and hopes above ;
Thyself to me reveal.

Sense of Sin.

1 JESUS demands this heart of mine,
Demands my love, my joy, my care ;
But ah ! how dead to things divine,
How cold, my best affections are !

2 'T is sin, alas ! with dreadful power,
Divides my Saviour from my sight ;
O, for one happy, shining hour
Of sacred freedom, sweet delight !

3 Come, gracious Lord ; thy love can raise
My captive powers from sin and death,
And fill my heart and life with praise,
And tune my last, expiring breath.

Solemn Apprehension.

1 WHEN, rising from the bed of death,
O'erwhelmed with guilt and fear,
I see my Maker face to face, —
O, how shall I appear !

2 If yet, while pardon may be found,
And mercy may be sought,
My heart with inward terror shrinks,
And trembles at the thought, —

- 3 When thou, O Lord, shall stand disclosed
 In majesty severe,
 And sit in judgment on my soul, —
 O, how shall I appear !
- 4 But there 's forgiveness, Lord, with thee ;
 Thy nature is benign ;
 Thy pardoning mercy I implore,
 For mercy, Lord, is thine.
- 5 O, let thy boundless mercy shine
 On my benighted soul,
 Correct my passions, mend my heart,
 And all my fears control.

Painful Recollections.

- 1 AS o'er the past my memory strays,
 Why heaves the secret sigh ?
 'T is that I mourn departed days,
 Still unprepared to die.
- 2 The world and worldly things beloved
 My anxious thoughts employed ;
 And time, unhallowed, unimproved,
 Presents a fearful void.
- 3 Yet, Holy Father, wild despair
 Chase from my laboring breast :
 Thy grace it is which prompts the prayer ;
 That grace can do the rest.
- 4 My life's brief remnant all be thine ;
 And when thy sure decree
 Bids me this fleeting breath resign,
 O, speed my soul to thee.

Sins confessed and mourned.

- 1 GOD of mercy, God of love,
 Hear our sad, repentant song ;

- Sorrow dwells on every face,
 Penitence on every tongue.
- 2 Deep regret for follies past,
 Talents wasted, time misspent ;
 Hearts debased by worldly cares,
 Thankless for the blessings lent ;
- 3 Foolish fears, and fond desires,
 Vain regrets for things as vain ;
 Lips too seldom taught to praise,
 Oft to murmur and complain :
- 4 These, and every secret fault,
 Filled with grief and shame we own ;
 Humbled at thy feet we lie,
 Seeking pardon from thy throne.
- 5 God of mercy, God of grace,
 Hear our sad, repentant songs ;
 O, restore thy suppliant race,
 Thou to whom all praise belongs.

Secret Self-examination.

- 1 RETURN, my roving heart, return,
 And life's vain shadows chase no more ;
 Seek out some solitude to mourn,
 And thy forsaken God implore.
- 2 O thou great God, whose piercing eye
 Distinctly marks each deep retreat,
 In these sequestered hours draw nigh,
 And let me here thy presence meet.
- 3 Through all the windings of my heart,
 My search let heavenly wisdom guide,
 And still its radiant beams impart
 Till all be known and purified.
- 4 Then let the visits of thy love
 My inmost soul be made to share,

Till every grace combine to prove
That God has fixed his dwelling there.

VILLAGE HYMNS

The Prodigal's Return.

- 1 THE long-lost son, with streaming eyes,
From folly just awake,
Reviews his wanderings with surprise ;
His heart begins to break.
- 2 " I starve," he cries, " nor can I bear
The famine in this land,
While servants of my Father share
The bounty of his hand.
- 3 " With deep repentance I 'll return
And seek my Father's face ;
Unworthy to be called a son,
I 'll ask a servant's place."
- 4 Far off the Father saw him move,
In pensive silence mourn,
And quickly ran, with arms of love,
To welcome his return.
- 5 Through all the courts the tidings flew,
And spread the joy around ;
The angels tuned their harps anew ;
The long-lost son is found !

Absence from God.

Contrition's humble sigh ;
Whose hand indulgent wipes the tears
From sorrow's weeping eye !
- 2 See, low before thy throne,
A wretched wanderer mourn ;
Hast thou not bid me seek thy face ?
Hast thou not said, " Return " ?

- 3 Absent from thee, my light, —
 Without one cheering ray, —
 Through dangers, fears, and gloomy night,
 How desolate my way !
- 4 On this benighted heart
 With beams of mercy shine ;
 And let thy healing voice impart
 A taste of joys divine.
- 5 Thy presence can bestow
 Delights which never cloy ;
 Be this my solace here below,
 And my eternal joy !

 O, may it virtue's strength restore,
 And raise devotion's flame !

 With heart and life, with tongue and hands,
 I 'll cheerfully obey.
- 3 No more will I transgress,
 As I too oft have done ;
 But every sinful thought suppress,
 Each sinful action shun.
- 4 My Father thus I 'll claim,
 And prove myself his son ;
 And, while I bear the filial name,
 The filial duties own.

 Lord, write thy laws upon my heart,
 That I may do thy will.

Sufficiency of Grace.

- 1 KIND are the words that Jesus speaks
To cheer the drooping saint :
“ My grace sufficient is for you,
Though nature’s powers may faint.
- 2 “ My grace its glories shall display,
And make your griefs remove ;
Your weakness shall the triumphs tell
Of boundless power and love.”
- 3 What though my griefs are not removed ?
Yet why should I despair ?
For, if my Saviour’s arm support,
I can the burden bear.
- 4 O thou, my Saviour and my Lord,
’T is good to trust thy name ;
Thy power, thy faithfulness, and love,
Will ever be the same.
- 5 Weak as I am, yet through thy grace
I all things can perform,
And, smiling, triumph in thy name
Amid the raging storm.

To thee I make my sorrows known,
And lift my weeping eyes.
- 3 The burden which I feel,
Thou only canst remove .

REPENTANCE AND REFORMATION.

Deliverance from deep Distress.

- 1 I WAITED patient for the Lord ;
He bowed to hear my cry ;
He saw me resting on his word,
And brought salvation nigh.
2 He raised me from a gloomy pit,
Where, mourning, long I lay,
And from my bonds released my feet, —
Deep bonds of miry clay.
3 Firm on a rock he made me stand,
And taught my cheerful tongue
To praise the wonders of his hand,
In new and thankful song.
4 I 'll spread his works of grace abroad ;
The saints with joy shall hear,
And sinners learn to make my God
Their only hope and fear.
5 How many are thy thoughts of love !
Thy mercies, Lord, how great !
We have not words nor hours enough
Their numbers to repeat.

 O, let a ray of light divine

 To light and liberty.

 Our multitude of sins forgive ;
 And for thy own possession take,
 And bid us to thy glory live ;
 Live in thy sight, and gladly prove

- 2 The covenant of forgiveness seal,
 And all thy mighty wonders show ;
 Our hidden enemies expel,
 And conquering them to conquer go,
 Till all of pride and wrath be slain,
 And not one evil thought remain.

Inconstancy lamented.

Are emblems of the fickle mind ;
The morning cloud and early dew
Bring our inconstancy to view.

Only a faint resemblance bear ;
Nor can there aught in nature be
So changeable and frail as we.
- 3 Our outward walk and inward frame
Are scarcely through an hour the same :
We vow, and straight our vows forget,
And then those very vows repeat.

Our folly and unsteadfastness :
When shall these hearts more stable be,
Fixed by thy grace alone on thee ?

The Day-spring from on High.

- 1 GREAT God, wert thou extreme to mark
The deeds we do amiss,
Before thy presence who could stand ?
Who claim thy promised bliss ?
But, O, all merciful and just,
Thy love surpasseth thought ;
A gracious Saviour has appeared,
And peace and pardon brought.

- 2 Thy servants in the temple watched
 The dawning of the day,
 Impatient with its earliest beams
 Their holy vows to pay ;
 And chosen saints far off beheld
 That great and glorious morn,
 When the glad day-spring from on high
 Auspiciously should dawn.
- 3 On us the Sun of Righteousness
 Its brightest beams hath poured ;
 With grateful hearts and holy zeal,
 Lord, be thy love adored ;
 And let us look with joyful hope
 To that more glorious day,
 Before whose brightness sin and death
 And grief shall flee away.

Prayer for Mercy in spiritual Need.

- 1 LORD, have mercy when we pray
 Strength to seek a better way ;
 When our wakening thoughts begin
 First to loathe their cherished sin ;
 When our weary spirits fail,
 And our aching brows are pale ;
 When our tears bedew thy word ;
 Then, O, then, have mercy, Lord !
- 2 Lord, have mercy when we lie
 On the restless bed and sigh, —
 Sigh for death, yet fear it still,
 From the thought of former ill ;
 When the dim, advancing gloom
 Tells us that our hour has come ;
 When is loosed the silver cord ;
 Then, O, then, have mercy, Lord

- 3 Lord, have mercy when we know
 First how vain this world below ;
 When its darker thoughts oppress,
 Doubts perplex, and fears distress ;
 When the earliest gleam is given
 Of the bright but distant heaven ;
 Then thy fostering grace afford ;
 Then, O, then, have mercy, Lord !

Pardon.

- 1 SOFT are the fruitful showers that bring
The welcome promise of the spring,
And soft the vernal gale :
Sweet the wild warblings of the grove,
The voice of nature and of love,
That gladden every vale.
- 2 But softer in the mourner's ear
Sounds the mild voice of mercy near,
That whispers sins forgiven ;
And sweeter far the music swells,
When to the raptured soul she tells
Of peace and promised heaven.
- 3 Fair are the flowers that deck the ground ;
And groves and gardens, blooming round,
Unnumbered charms unfold :

Bright is the sun's meridian ray,
 And bright the beams of setting day,
 That robe the clouds in gold.

- 4 But far more fair the pious breast,
 In richer robes of goodness dressed,
 Where heaven's own graces shine ;
 And brighter far the prospects rise,
 That burst on faith's delighted eyes,
 From glories all divine.

Devout Joy.

- 1 "JOY to those that love the Lord !"
 Saith the sure, eternal word ;
 Not of earth the joy it brings,
 Tempered in celestial springs.
- 2 'T is the joy of pardoned sin
 When we feel 't is well within ;
 'T is the joy that fills the breast
 When the passions sink to rest.
- 3 'T is a joy that, seated deep,
 Leaves not when we sigh and weep ;
 Spreads itself in virtuous deeds,
 Sighs for woe, in pity bleeds.
- 4 Stern and awful are its tones
 When the patriot martyr groans,
 And, the death-pulse beating high,
 Rapture blends with agony.
- 5 Tend'rer is the form it wears,
 Touched in love, dissolved in tears,
 When, subdued, at Jesus' feet,
 Sinners clasp the mercy-seat.
- 6 Joy e'en here ! a budding flower,
 Struggling with the storm and shower,
 Till its season to expand,
 Planted in its native land.

What is Prayer ?

- 1 PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed,
The motion of a hidden fire,
That trembles in the breast.
- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try,
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
The watchword at the gates of death ;
He enters heaven with prayer.
- 5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways ;
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, " Behold, he prays ! "
- 6 In prayer, on earth, the saints are one •
They 're one in word and mind ;
When with the Father and the Son
Sweet fellowship they find.
- 7 O Thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer thyself hast trod ;
Lord, teach us how to pray !

Prayer.

- 1 PRAYER is the breath of God in man,
Returning whence it came ;
Love is the sacred fire within,
And prayer the rising flame.
- 2 It gives the burdened spirit ease,
And soothes the troubled breast ;
Yields comfort to the mourners here,
And to the weary rest.
- 3 When God inclines the heart to pray,
He hath an ear to hear ;
To him there 's music in a sigh,
And beauty in a tear.
- 4 The humble suppliant cannot fail
To have his wants supplied,
Since he for sinners intercedes
Who once for sinners died.

The Mercy-seat.

- 1 FROM every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat ;
'T is found before the mercy-seat.
- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads, —
A place of all on earth most sweet ;
It is the heavenly mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend ;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more ;

And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

Secret Prayer.

- 1 I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
- 2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all his promises to plead
Where none but God can hear.
- 3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.
- 4 I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven ;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.
- 5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

Pray without ceasing.

- 1 GO when the morning shineth,
Go when the noon is bright,
Go when the eve declineth,
Go in the hush of night ;
Go with pure mind and feeling,
Fling earthly thought away,
And, in thy closet kneeling,
Do thou in secret pray.

- 2 Remember all who love thee,
 All who are loved by thee ;
 Pray, too, for those who hate thee,
 If any such there be ;
 Then for thyself, in meekness,
 A blessing humbly claim,
 And blend with each petition
 Thy great Redeemer's name.
- 3 Or, if 't is e'er denied thee
 In solitude to pray,
 Should holy thoughts come o'er thee
 When friends are round thy way,
 E'en then the silent breathing,
 Thy spirit raised above,
 Will reach his throne of glory,
 Where dwells eternal love.
- † O, not a joy or blessing
 With this can we compare, —
 The grace our Father gave us
 To pour our souls in prayer :
 Whene'er thou pin'st in sadness,
 Before his footstool fall ;
 Remember, in thy gladness,
 His love, who gave thee all.

Secret Prayer.

 In earnest pleading flows ;
 Devotion dwells upon the theme,

- 2 Faith grasps the blessing she desires ;
 Hope points the upward gaze ;

All utterance faileth there ;
But Christian spirits comprehend,
And God accepts the prayer.

My soul in secret bless ;
So wilt thou deign, in worlds above,

Though sorrows cloud life's dreary way,
This is our solace, — let us pray.

 And all the woes that throng us now,

 Hear us in heaven, thy dwelling, now,
 And answer, and forgive.
- 2 When, harassed by ten thousand foes,
 Our helplessness we feel,
 O, give the weary soul repose,
 The wounded spirit heal.
- 3 When dire temptations gather round,
 And threaten or allure,
 By storm or calm, in thee be found
 A refuge strong and sure.
- 4 When age advances, may we grow
 In faith, in hope, and love,
 And walk in holiness below
 To holiness above.
- 5 Let earthly joys and cares depart ;
 Let pain and sorrow cease ;
 Be thou the portion of our heart ;
 In thee may we have peace.

TOGLADY

Prayer for Light.

- 1 LIGHT of those whose dreary dwelling
Borders on the shades of death !
Rise on us, thyself revealing,
Rise, and chase the clouds beneath.
- 2 Thou, of life and light creator !
In our deepest darkness rise ;
Scatter all the night of nature,
Pour the day upon our eyes.
- 3 Still we wait for thine appearing ;
Life and joy thy beams impart ;
Chasing all our fears, and cheering
Every meek and contrite heart.
- 4 Save us, in thy great compassion,
O thou God of peace and love !
G'ive the knowledge of salvation,
Fix our hearts on things above.

HEMANS.

Prayer for Help in Necessity.

- 1 LOWLY and solemn be
Thy children's cry to thee,
Father divine, —
A hymn of suppliant breath,
Owing that life and death
Alike are thine.
- 2 O Father, in that hour
When earth all helping power
Shall disavow, —
When spear, and shield, and crown,
In faintness are cast down, —
Sustain us, thou !

- 3 By him who bowed to take
 The death-cup for our sake,
 The thorn, the rod, —
 From whom the last dismay
 Was not to pass away, —
 Aid us, O God !
- 4 While trembling o'er the grave,
 We call on thee to save,
 Father divine !
 Hear, hear our suppliant breath ;
 Keep us, in life and death,
 Thine, only thine

Prayer for Wisdom.

- 1 ALMIGHTY God, in humble prayer
 To thee our souls we lift ;
 Do thou our waiting minds prepare
 For thy most needful gift.
- 2 We ask not golden streams of wealth
 Along our path to flow ;
 We ask not undecaying health,
 Nor length of years below.
- 3 We ask not honors which an hour
 May bring and take away ;
 We ask not pleasure, pomp, and power,
 Lest we should go astray.
- 4 We ask for wisdom : — Lord, impart
 The knowledge how to live ;
 A wise and understanding heart
 To all before thee give.
- 5 The young remember thee in youth,
 Before the evil days !
 The old be guided by thy truth
 In wisdom's pleasant ways !

WESLEYAN

For Purity of Heart.

- 1 O, FOR a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free ;
A heart that always feels how good,
Thou, Lord, hast been to me.
- 2 O, for a humble, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him who dwells within ;—
- 3 A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine,
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
Conformed, O Lord, to thine.
- 4 Thy temper, gracious Lord, impart ;
Come quickly from above ;
O, write thy name upon my heart ;
Thy name, O God, is love.

Prayer for Self-consecration.

- 1 O GOD, my strength, my hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hearest prayer.
- 2 O, for a godly fear,
A quick-discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly !—
- 3 A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer !
- 4 Lord, let me still abide,
Nor from my hope remove,

Till thou my patient spirit guide
To better worlds above.

Prayer for Supplies of Grace.

- 1 THOU Fount of blessing, God of love,
To thee our hearts we raise ;
Thine all-sustaining power we prove,
And gladly sing thy praise.
- 2 Thine, wholly thine, we long to be ;
Our sacrifice receive ;
Made, and preserved, and saved, by thee,
To thee ourselves we give.
- 3 To thee our every wish aspires ;
For all thy mercy's store,
The sole return thy love requires
Is that we ask for more.
- 4 For more we ask ; we open, Lord,
Our hearts t' embrace thy will :
Renew us by thy quickening word,
And from thy fulness fill.

EXETER COLL

The Influence of habitual Piety.

- 1 BLEST is the man who fears the Lord !
His well established mind,
In every varying scene of life,
Shall true composure find.
- 2 Oft through the deep and stormy sea
The heavenly footsteps lie ;
But on a glorious world beyond
His faith can fix its eye.
- 3 Though dark his present prospects be,
And sorrows round him dwell,
Yet hope can whisper to his soul,
That all shall issue well.

- 4 Full in the presence of his God,
 Through every scene he goes ;
 And, fearing him, no other fear
 His steadfast bosom knows.
- 5 No dangers can his soul alarm,
 No gloomy views affright ;
 For faith assures his humble heart,
 Whatever is, is right.

ANONYMOUS

“ Trust ye in the Lord.”

- 1 WHEN grief and anguish press me down,
 And hope and comfort flee,
 I cling, O Father, to thy throne,
 And stay my heart on thee.
- 2 When clouds of dark temptation rise,
 And pour their wrath on me,
 To thee for aid I turn my eyes,
 And fix my trust on thee.
- 3 When death invades my peaceful home,
 The sundered ties shall be
 A closer bond, in time to come,
 To bind my heart to thee.
- 4 Lord, — “ Not my will but thine be done ! ”
 My soul from fear set free,
 Her faith shall anchor at thy throne,
 And trust alone in thee.

Confidence in God.

- 1 SOON as I heard my Father say,
 “ Ye children, seek my grace,”
 My heart replied, without delay,
 “ I ’ll seek my Father’s face.”
- 2 Let not thy face be hid from me,
 Nor frown my soul away ;

And teach my stubborn soul to bend
In love to thy decree.

- 2 Whatever come, if thou wilt bless
The brightness and the gloom,
And temper joy, and soothe distress,
I fear no earthly doom.
- 3 Life cannot give a cureless sting ;
Death can but crown my joy,
And waft me far, on angel's wing,
To heaven's divine employ.

Security and Comfort in God.

- 1 WHEN, overwhelmed with grief,
My heart within me dies,
Helpless, and far from all relief,
To heaven I lift mine eyes.
- 2 O, lead me to the Rock
That 's high above my head,
And make the covert of thy wings
My shelter and my shade.
- 3 Within thy presence, Lord,
For ever I 'll abide ;
Thou art the tower of my defence,
The refuge where I hide.
- 4 Thou givest me the lot
Of those that fear thy name ;
If endless life be their reward,
I shall possess the same.

Safety in God.

- 1 THEY who on the Lord rely
Safely dwell, though danger 's nigh ;
Lo ! his sheltering wings are spread
O'er each faithful servant's head.

- 2 Vain temptation's wily snare ;
 Christians are Jehovah's care ;
 Harmless flies the shaft by day,
 Or in darkness wings its way.

 Angel guards their vigils keep ;
 Death and danger may be near,
 Faith and love have naught to fear.

God the supreme Good.

- 1 IN vain we trace creation o'er
 In search of sacred rest,
 The whole creation is too poor
 To make us fully blest.
- 2 In vain would this low world employ
 Each flattering, specious wile ;
 For what can yield a real joy
 But our Creator's smile ?
- 3 Let earth with all her charms depart,
 Unworthy of the mind ;
 In God alone this restless heart
 An equal bliss can find.

 To whom our wishes tend !
 Do not these wishes rise from thee,
 And in thy favor end ?

Secret Communion with God.

- 1 'T WAS in the watches of the night
 I thought upon thy power ;
 I kept thy lovely face in sight,
 Amid the darkest hour.
- 2 While I lay resting on my bed,
 My soul arose on high ;

My God, my life, my hope, I said,
Bring thy salvation nigh.

3 I strive to mount thy holy hill ;
I walk the heavenly road ;
Thy glories all my spirit fill,
While I commune with God.

4 Thy mercy stretches o'er my head
'The shadow of thy wing ;
My heart rejoices in thine aid,
And I thy praises sing.

Seeking after God.

1 THOU hidden love of God, whose height,
Whose depth, unfathomed, no man knows,
I see from far thy beauteous light ;
Inly I sigh for thy repose ;
My heart is pained ; nor can it be
At rest till it find rest in thee.

2 Thy secret voice invites me still
'The sweetness of thy yoke to prove ;
And fain I would ; but though my will
Seem fixed, yet wide my passions rove ;
Yet hindrances strow all the way ;
I aim at thee, yet from thee stray.

3 'T is mercy all, that thou hast brought
My mind to seek her peace in thee ;
Yet, while I seek, but find thee not,
No peace my wandering soul shall see.
O, when shall all my wanderings end,
And all my steps to thee-ward tend ?

4 Is there a thing beneath the sun
That strives with thee my heart to share ?
Ah, tear it thence, and reign alone,
The Lord of every motion there ;
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it hath found repose in thee

Walking with God.

- 1 THRICE happy souls, who, born from heaven,
While yet they sojourn here,
Do all their days with God begin,
And spend them in his fear.
- 2 'Midst hourly cares, may love present
Its incense to thy throne ;
And, while the world our hands employs,
Our hearts be thine alone.
- 3 As sanctified to noblest ends,
Be each refreshment sought ;
And by each various providence
Some wise instruction brought.
- 4 When to laborious duties called,
Or by temptations tried,
We 'll seek the shelter of thy wings,
And in thy strength confide.
- 5 As different scenes of life arise,
Our grateful hearts would be
With thee, amidst the social band,
In solitude with thee.
- 6 In solid, pure delights like these,
Let all our days be past ;
Nor shall we then impatient wish,
Nor shall we fear, the last.

Walking with God.

- 1 O, FOR a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb !
- 2 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed !
How sweet their memory still !

But now I find an aching void
The world can never fill.

- 3 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest ;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.
- 4 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.
- 5 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame ;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Living to God.

- 1 O, DRAW me, Father, after thee,
So shall I run and never tire ;
With gracious words still comfort me ;
Be thou my hope, my sole desire :
Free me from every weight ; nor fear
Nor sin can come, if thou art here.
- 2 From all eternity, with love
Unchangeable thou hast me viewed ;
Ere knew this beating heart to move,
Thy tender mercies me pursued ;
Ever with me may they abide,
And close me in on every side.
- 3 In suffering be thy love my peace,
In weakness be thy love my power ;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
My God ! in that important hour,
In death as life be thou my guide,
And bear me through death's whelming tide.

Following after God.

- 1 O GOD, thou art my God alone ;
Early to thee my soul shall cry,
A pilgrim in a land unknown,
A thirsty land, whose springs are dry.
- 2 Yet, through this rough and thorny maze,
I follow hard on thee, my God ;
Thine hand unseen upholds my ways ;
I lean upon thy staff and rod.
- 3 Thee, in the watches of the night,
When I remember, on my bed,
Thy presence makes the darkness light ;
Thy guardian wings are round my head.
- 4 Better than life itself thy love,
Dearer than all beside to me ;
For whom have I in heaven above,
Or what on earth, compared with thee ?
- 5 Praise with my heart, my mind, my voice,
For all thy mercy, I will give ;
My soul shall still in God rejoice ;
My tongue shall bless thee while I live.

The Child of God.

- 1 QUIET, Lord, my froward heart ;
Make me teachable and mild,
Upright, simple, free from art ;
Make me as a little child ;
From distrust and envy free,
Pleased with all that pleases thee.
- 2 What thou shalt to-day provide,
Let me as a child receive ;
What to-morrow may betide,
Calmly to thy wisdom leave ;

'T is enough that thou wilt care ;
Why should I the burden bear ?

- 3 As a little child relies
On a care beyond his own,
Knows he 's neither strong nor wise,
Fears to stir a step alone, —
Let me thus with thee abide,
As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

Joy in the Presence of God.

- 1 SHINE on our souls, Eternal God !
With rays of beauty shine ;
O, let thy favor crown our days,
And all their round be thine.
- 2 Did we not raise our hands to thee,
Our hands might toil in vain ;
Small joy success itself could give,
If thou thy love restrain.
- 3 With thee let every week begin,
With thee each day be spent,
For thee each fleeting hour improved,
Since each by thee is lent.
- 4 Thus cheer us through this desert road,
Till all our labors cease,
And heaven refresh our weary souls
With everlasting peace.

God's sustaining Presence.

- 1 FATHER and Friend, thy light, thy love,
Beaming through all thy works, we see,
Thy glory gilds the heavens above,
And all the earth is full of thee.
- 2 Thy voice we hear, thy presence feel,
Whilst thou, too pure for mortal sight,

- Involvd in clouds, invisible,
 Reignest the Lord of life and light.
- 3 We know not in what hallowed part
 Of the wide heavens thy throne may be ,
 But this we know, — that where thou art,
 Strength, wisdom, goodness, dwell with thee.
- 4 And through the various maze of time,
 And through th' infinity of space,
 We follow thy career sublime,
 And all thy wondrous footsteps trace.

 Sustained by this delightful thought, —
 Since thou, their God, art everywhere,
 They cannot be where thou art not.

Dependence on God.

- 1 TO keep the lamp alive,
 With oil we fill the bowl ;
 'T is water makes the willow thrive,
 And grace that feeds the soul.
- 2 The Lord's unsparing hand
 Supplies the living stream ;
 It is not at our own command,
 But still derived from him.
- 3 Man's wisdom is to seek
 His strength in God alone ;
 And e'en an angel would be weak,
 Who trusted in his own.
- 4 Retreat beneath his wings,
 And in his grace confide ;
 'This more exalts the King of kings
 Than all your works beside.

 Grace issues from his throne ;

Self-abandonment to God.

- 1 FOUNTAIN of light and living breath,
Whose mercies never fail nor fade,
Fill us with life that hath no death,
Fill us with light that hath no shade ;
Appoint the remnant of our days
To see thy power and sing thy praise.
- 2 Lord God of gods ! before whose throne
Stand storms and fire, O, what shall we
Return to heaven that is our own,
When all the world belongs to thee ?
We have no offering to impart
But praises and a wounded heart.
- 3 Great God, whose kingdom hath no end,
Into whose secrets none can dive,
Whose mercy none can apprehend,
Whose justice none can feel and live ;
What our weak minds cannot aspire
To know, Lord, teach us to admire.

Imploring the constant Presence of God.

- 1 WHEN Israel, of the Lord beloved,
Out from the land of bondage came,
Her father's God before her moved,
An awful guide in smoke and flame.
- 2 By day, along th' astonished lands,
The cloudy pillar glided slow ;
By night, Arabia's crimsoned sands
Returned the fiery column's glow.
- 3 Thus present still, though now unseen,
When brightly shines the prosperous day,

Be thoughts of thee a cloudy screen,
To temper the deceitful ray !

In shade and storm, the frequent night,
Be thou, long suffering, slow to wrath,
A burning and a shining light !

God speaking Peace to his People.

- 1 UNITE, my roving thoughts, unite
In silence soft and sweet ;
And thou, my soul, sit gently down
At thy great Sovereign's feet.
- 2 Jehovah's awful voice is heard ;
Yet gladly I attend ;
For, lo ! the everlasting God
Proclaims himself my friend.
- 3 Harmonious accents to my soul
The sound of peace convey ;
The tempest at his word subsides,
And winds and seas obey.
- 4 By all its joys, I charge my heart
To grieve his love no more,
But, charmed by melody divine,
To give its follies o'er.
- 5 Let this my every hour employ,
Till I thy glory see,
Enter into my Master's joy,
And find my heaven in thee !

Wisdom and Virtue sought from God.

- 1 SUPREME and universal Light !
Fountain of reason ! Judge of right !
Parent of good ! whose blessings flow
On all above, and all below :
- 2 Assist us, Lord, to act, to be,
What nature and thy laws decree ;
Worthy that intellectual flame,
Which from thy breathing spirit came !
- 3 Our moral freedom to maintain,
Bid passion serve, and reason reign,
Self-poised and independent still
On this world's varying good or ill.
- 4 No slave to profit, shame, or fear,
O, may our steadfast bosoms bear,
The stamp of heaven, — an upright heart,
Above the mean disguise of art !
- 5 May our expanded souls disclaim
The narrow view, the selfish aim ;
But with a Christian zeal embrace
Whate'er is friendly to our race.

- 6 O Father, grace and virtue grant !
 No more we wish, no more we want :
 To know, to serve thee, and to love,
 Is peace below, — is bliss above.

Watching, Prayer, and Perseverance.

- 1 A CHARGE to keep I have,
 A God to glorify,
 A never dying soul to save,
 And fit it for the sky ;
 To serve the present age,
 My calling to fulfil :
 O, may it all my powers engage
 To do my Master's will !
- 2 Arm me with jealous care,
 As in thy sight to live ;
 And, O, thy servant, Lord, prepare
 The strict account to give :
 Help me to watch and pray,
 And on thyself rely,
 Assured, if I my trust betray,
 I shall forsaken die.

Watchfulness.

- 1 I WANT a principle within
 Of jealous, godly fear ;
 A sensibility of sin,
 A pain to find it near,
- 2 I want the first approach to feel
 Of pride, or fond desire ;
 To catch the wandering of my will,
 And quench the kindling fire.
- 3 From thee that I no more may part,
 No more my goodness grieve,

The filial awe, the fleshly heart,
The tender conscience give.

- 4 Quick as the apple of an eye,
O God ! my conscience make ;
Awake my soul when sin is nigh,
And keep it still awake.

The Ways of Wisdom.

- 1 O, HAPPY is the man who hears
Instruction's faithful voice ;
And who celestial wisdom makes
His early, only choice !
- 2 Wisdom has treasures greater far
Than east or west unfold ;
And her rewards more precious are
Than is the gain of gold.
- 3 In her right hand she holds to view
A length of happy years ;
And in her left, the prize of fame
And honor bright appears.
- 4 She guides the young, with innocence,
In pleasure's path to tread ;
A crown of glory she bestows
Upon the hoary head.
- 5 According as her labors rise,
So her rewards increase ;
Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.

Though him thou canst not see, nor trace
The workings of his hands.

- 2 He gives the conquest to the weak,
Supports the sinking heart,
And courage, in the evil hour,
His heavenly aids impart.
- 3 Mere human power shall fast decay,
And youthful vigor cease ;
But they who wait upon the Lord
In strength shall still increase.
- 4 They with unwearied feet shall tread
The path of life divine,
With growing ardor onward move,
With growing brightness shine.
- 5 On eagles' wings they mount, they soar ;
Their wings are faith and love ;
Till, past the cloudy regions here,
They rise to heaven above.

 His arm will all their rage repel,
 And make their efforts vain.
- 3 Fear not the want of outward good ;
 For his he will provide,
 Grant them supplies of daily food,
 And give them heaven beside.
- 4 Fear not that he will e'er forsake,
 Or leave his work undone ;
 He 's faithful to his promises,
 And faithful to his Son.
- 5 Fear not the terrors of the grave,
 Nor death's relentless sting ;
 He will from endless wrath preserve,
 To endless glory bring.

Imploring Succour.

- 1 FATHER, who in the olive shade,
 When the dark hour came on,
 Didst, with a breath of heavenly aid,
 Strengthen thy Son, —
- 2 O, by the anguish of that night,
 Send us down blest relief ;
 Or, to the chastened, let thy might
 Hallow this grief.
- 3 And thou, that, when the starry sky
 Saw the dread strife begun,
 Didst teach adoring faith to cry,
 “ Thy will be done ! ” —
- 4 By thy meek spirit, thou, of all
 That e'er have mourned the chief,

Blest Saviour, if the stroke must fall,
Hallow this grief.

Love to Christ.

- 1 THERE 'S not a hope with comfort fraught,
Triumphant over death and time,
But Jesus mingles in the thought,
Forerunner of our course sublime.
- 2 His image meets me in the hour
Of joy, and brightens every smile ;
I see him, when the tempests lower,
Each terror soothe, each grief beguile.
- 3 I see him in the daily round
Of social duty, mild and meek ;
With him I tread the hallowed ground
Communion with my God to seek.
- 4 I see his pitying, gentle eye,
When lonely want appeals for aid ;
I hear him in the frequent sigh,
That mourns the waste which sin has made.
- 5 I meet him at the lowly tomb ;
I weep where Jesus wept before ;
And there, above the grave's dark gloom,
I see him rise, and weep no more.

Christ the Way, the Truth, and the Life

- 1 THOU art the Way ; and he who sighs,
Amid this starless waste of woe,
To find a pathway to the skies,
A light from heaven's eternal glow,
By thee must come, thou Gate of love,
Through which the saints undoubting trod,
Till faith discovers, like the dove,
An ark, a resting-place in God.

- 2 Thou art the Truth, whose steady day
 Shines on through earthly blight and bloom ;
 The pure, the everlasting Ray,
 The Lamp that shines e'en in the tomb ;
 The Light that out of darkness springs,
 And guideth those that blindly go ;
 The Word whose precious radiance flings
 Its lustre upon all below.
- 3 Thou art the Life, the blesséd Well
 With living waters gushing o'er,
 Which those that drink shall ever dwell
 Where sin and thirst are known no more.
 Thou art the mystic Pillar given,
 Our Lamp by night, our Light by day ;
 Thou art the sacred Bread from heaven ;
 Thou art the Life, the Truth, the Way.

Enjoyment of Christ's Love.

- 1 JESUS, thy boundless love to me
 No thought can reach, no tongue declare ;
 Unite my thankful heart to thee,
 And reign without a rival there.
- 2 Thy love, how cheering is its ray !
 All pain before its presence flies ;
 Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
 Where'er its healing beams arise.
- 3 O, let thy love my soul inflame,
 And to thy service sweetly bind ;
 Transfuse it through my inmost frame,
 And mould me wholly to thy mind.
- 4 Thy love, in sufferings, be my peace ;
 Thy love, in weakness, make me strong ;
 And, when the storms of life shall cease,
 Thy love shall be in heaven my song.

Looking unto Jesus.

1 THOU, who didst stoop below,
 To drain the cup of woe,
 And wear the form of frail mortality, —
 Thy blesséd labors done,
 Thy crown of victory won, —
 Hast passed from earth, — passed to thy home on high.

2 It was no path of flowers,
 Through this dark world of ours,
 Belovéd of the Father, thou didst tread ;
 And shall we in dismay
 Shrink from the narrow way,
 When clouds and darkness are around it spread ?

3 O Thou, who art our life,
 Be with us through the strife ;
 Thy own meek head by rudest storms was bowed ;
 Raise thou our eyes above,
 To see a Father's love
 Beam, like a bow of promise, through the cloud.

4 E'en through the awful gloom,
 Which hovers o'er the tomb,
 That light of love our guiding star shall be ;
 Our spirits shall not dread
 The shad'wy way to tread,
 Friend, Guardian, Saviour, which doth lead to thee.

SIR J. E. SMITH.

"It is I; be not afraid."

1 WHEN power divine, in mortal form,
 Hushed with a word the raging storm,
 In soothing accents, Jesus said,
 "Lo, it is I; be not afraid."

2 So, when in silence nature sleeps,
 And his lone watch the mourner keeps,

One thought shall every pang remove, —
Trust, feeble man, thy Maker's love.

- 3 God calms the tumult and the storm ;
He rules the seraph and the worm ;
No creature is by him forgot,
Of those who know, or know him not.
- 4 And when the last dread hour shall come,
While trembling nature waits her doom,
This voice shall wake the pious dead, —
“ Lo, it is I ; be not afraid.”

Fear not.

- 1 WHENE'ER the clouds of sorrow roll,
And trials whelm the mind, —
When, faint with grief, thy wearied soul
No joys on earth can find, —
Then lift thy voice to God on high,
Dry up the trembling tear,
And hush the low, complaining sigh :
“ Fear not ” ; thy God is near.
- 2 When dark temptations spread their snares,
And earth with charms allures,
And when thy soul, oppressed with fears,
The world's assault endures,
Then let thy Father's friendly voice
Thy fainting spirit cheer,
And bid thy trembling heart rejoice :
“ Fear not ” ; thy God is near.
- 3 And when the final hour shall come,
That calls thee to thy rest,
To dwell within thy heavenly home,
A welcome, joyful guest,
Be calm ; though Jordan's waves may roll,
No ills shall meet thee there ;

Angels shall whisper to thy soul,
 "Fear not"; thy God is near.

Submission to the Divine Disposal.

- 1 O LORD ! my best desires fulfil,
 And help me to resign
 Life, health, and comfort to thy will,
 And make thy pleasure mine.
- 2 Why should I shrink at thy command,
 Whose love forbids my fears ;
 Or tremble at thy gracious hand,
 That wipes away my tears ?
- 3 No ! let me rather freely yield
 What most I prize to thee ;
 Who never hast a good withheld,
 Nor wilt withhold from me.
- 4 Wisdom and mercy guide my way ;
 Shall I resist them both ;
 Short-sighted creature of a day,
 And crushed before the moth ?
- 5 But, ah ! my heart within me cries,
 Still bind me to thy sway ;
 Else the next cloud that veils the skies,
 Drives all these thoughts away.

Holy Resignation.

- 1 AUTHOR of good, to thee we turn :
 Thine ever wakeful eye
 Alone can all our wants discern,
 Thy hand alone supply.
- 2 O, let thy love within us dwell,
 Thy fear our footsteps guide ;
 That love shall vainer loves expel,
 That fear all fears beside.

- 3 And, O, by error's force subdued,
 Since oft, with stubborn will,
 We blindly shun the latent good,
 And grasp the specious ill, —
- 4 Not what we wish, but what we want,
 Let mercy still supply :
 The good we ask not, Father, grant ;
 The ill we ask, deny.

The Peace of God in Affliction.

- 1 WHEN anguish bows me down, I turn,
 O God, with trusting heart, to thee ;
 And holy thoughts still shine and burn,
 And cheer my cold, sad destiny.
- 2 The stars of heaven are shining on,
 Though these frail eyes are dim with tears ;
 The hopes of earth, indeed, are gone ;
 But are not ours th' immortal years ?
- 3 Father, forgive the heart that clings,
 Thus trembling, to the joys of time :
 And bid my soul on angel-wings
 Ascend into a purer clime.
- 4 There shall no doubts disturb its trust,
 No sorrow dim celestial love ;
 But these afflictions of the dust
 Like shadows of the night remove.
- 5 E'en now, above, there 's radiant day,
 While clouds and darkness brood below ;
 Then, Father, joyful on my way
 To drink the bitter cup I go.

With filial love and trust to say,

They calm and soothe the troubled mind,
And bid all care be still.

In joy or grief, in life or death,
My every wish control.

To imitate thy Son !
Teach me, O God, in truth to pray,
“ Thy will, not mine, be done.”

Blessedness of Submission in Trials.

- 1 WHEN I can trust my all with God,
In trial's fearful hour,
Bow, all resigned, beneath his rod,
And bless his sparing power,
A joy springs up amid distress,
A fountain in the wilderness.
- 2 O, blesséd be the hand that gave, —
Still blesséd when it takes ;
Blesséd be he who smites to save, —
Who heals the heart he breaks :
Perfect and true are all his ways,
Whom heaven adores and death obeys.

COTTON

Contentment and Resignation.

- 1 IF solid happiness we prize,
Within our breasts the jewel lies ;
Nor need we roam abroad :

The world has little to bestow ;
 From well formed hearts our joys must flow,
 Hearts that delight in God.

- 2 Then let us, with a grateful mind,
 Take what our Father, ever kind,
 Doth graciously bestow ;
 The blessings which he sends, enjoy,
 And in his praise find sweet employ,
 From whom our comforts flow.
- 3 To be resigned, when ill's betide,
 Patient, when favors are denied,
 And pleased with favors given ;
 This is the wise, the virtuous part :
 This is that incense of the heart,
 Whose fragrance reaches heaven.
- 4 Thus through life's changing scenes we 'll go,
 Its checkered paths of joy and woe
 With holy care we 'll tread ;
 Quit its vain scenes without a tear,
 Without a trouble or a fear,
 And mingle with the dead.
- 5 For conscience, like a faithful friend,
 Shall through the gloomy vale attend,
 And cheer our dying breath ;
 Shall, when all other comforts cease,
 Like a kind angel, whisper peace,
 And smooth the bed of death.

Affliction Blessed.

- 1 HOW tender is thy hand,
 O thou most gracious Lord !
 Afflictions come at thy command,
 And leave us at thy word.
- 2 How gentle was the rod,
 That chastened us for sin !

How soon we found a gracious God,
Where deep distress had been !

3 A Father's hand we felt,
A Father's heart we knew ;
'Mid tears of penitence we knelt,
And found his word was true.

4 Now we will bless the Lord,
And in his strength confide ;
For ever be his name adored,
For there is none beside.

The Benefit of Affliction.

- 1 O GOD, to thee my sinking soul
In deep distress doth fly ;
'Thy love can all my griefs control,
And all my wants supply.
- 2 How oft, when dark misfortune's band
Around their victim stood,
The seeming ill, at thy command,
Hath changed to real good !
- 3 The tempest that obscured the sky
Hath set my bosom free
From earthly care and sensual joy,
And turned my thoughts to thee.
- 4 Affliction's blast hath made me learn
To feel for others' woe,
And humbly seek, with deep concern,
My own defects to know.
- 5 Then rage, ye storms ; ye billows, roar ;
My heart defies your shock ;
Ye make me cling to God the more, —
To God, my sheltering Rock.

What I am still so slow to learn, —
That God is love, and changes not,
Nor knows the shadow of a turn.

But, when my faith is sharply tried,
I find myself a learner yet,
Unskilful, weak, and apt to slide.

 Mustering his pale, terrific bands ;
 There pleasure's silken banners spread,
 And willing souls are captive led.
- 3 See where rebellious passions rage,
 And fierce desires and lusts engage ;
 The meanest foe of all the train
 Has thousands and ten thousands slain.

Of heavenly truth, and heavenly love.

- 6 The terror and the charm repel,
And powers of earth, and powers of hell ;
The Man of Calvary triumphed here ; —
Why should his faithful followers fear ?

DODDRIDGE.

The Way to the Heavenly City.

- 1 SING, ye redeeméd of the Lord,
Your great Deliverer sing ;
Pilgrims, for Zion's city bound,
Be joyful in your King.
- 2 A hand divine shall lead you on
Through all the blissful road,
Till to the sacred mount you rise,
And see your Father, God.
- 3 There, garlands of immortal joy
Shall bloom on every head ;
While sorrow, sighing, and distress
Like shadows all are fled.
- 4 March on in your Redeemer's strength,
Pursue his footsteps still,
And let the prospect cheer your eye,
While laboring up the hill.

The heavenly Race.

- 1 AWAKE, our souls ; away, our fears ;
Let every trembling thought be gone ;
Awake, and run the heavenly race,
And put a cheerful courage on.
- 2 True, 't is a strait and thorny road,
And mortal spirits tire and faint ;
But they forget the mighty God,
Who feeds the strength of every saint ; —

- 3 The mighty God, whose matchless power
 Is ever new and ever young,
 And firm endures, while endless years
 Their everlasting circles run.
- 4 From thee, the overflowing spring,
 Our souls shall drink a full supply ;
 While those who trust their native strength
 Shall melt away, and droop, and die.
- 5 Swift as an eagle cuts the air,
 We 'll mount aloft to thine abode ;
 On wings of love our souls shall fly,
 Nor tire amid the heavenly road.

The Christian Race.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul ! stretch every nerve,
 And press with vigor on ;
 A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
 And an immortal crown.
- 2 A cloud of witnesses around
 Hold thee in full survey ;
 Forget the steps already trod,
 And onward urge thy way.
- 3 'T is God's all-animating voice
 That calls thee from on high ;
 'T is his own hand presents the prize
 To thine uplifted eye ; —
- 4 That prize, with peerless glories bright,
 Which shall new lustre boast,
 When victors' wreaths and monarchs' gems
 Shall blend in common dust.

Active Piety.

- 1 LABORERS of Christ, arise,
 And gird you for the toil ;

- The dew of promise from the skies
 Already cheers the soil.
- 2 Go where the sick recline,
 Where mourning hearts deplore ;
 And, where the sons of sorrow pine,
 Dispense your hallowed lore.
- 3 Urge, with a tender zeal,
 The erring child along,
 Where peaceful congregations kneel,
 And pious teachers throng.
- 4 Be faith, which looks above,
 With prayer, your constant guest,
 And wrap the Saviour's changeless love
 A mantle round your breast.
- 5 So shall you share the wealth,
 That earth may ne'er despoil,
 And the blest gospel's saving health
 Repay your arduous toil.

The Use of present Opportunities.

- 1 CHILDREN of light, awake !
 At Jesus' call arise,
 Forth with your leader to partake
 His toils, his victories.
- 2 Ye must not idly stand,
 His sacred voice who hear,
 Arm for the strife the feeble hand,
 The holy standard rear.
- 3 Naught doth the world afford,
 But toil must be the price ;
 Wilt thou not, servant of the Lord,
 Then toil for paradise ?
- 4 Awake, ye sons of light !
 Strive till the prize be won ;

Far spent already is the night ;
The day comes brightening on.

Religion a Support in Life.

- 1 WHEN gloomy thoughts and fears
The trembling heart invade,
And all the face of nature wears
A universal shade, —
- 2 Religion can assuage
The tempest of the soul ;
And every fear shall lose its rage
At her divine control.
- 3 Through life's bewildered way,
Her hand unerring leads ;
And o'er the path her heavenly ray
A cheering lustre sheds.
- 4 When reason, tired and blind,
Sinks helpless and afraid,

How powerful is thine aid !

And find thy sweet relief,
To brighten every gloomy hour
And soften every grief.

Sickness and Recovery.

- 1 MY God, thy service well demands
The remnant of my days ;
Why was this fleeting breath renewed,
But to renew thy praise ?
- 2 Thine arms of everlasting love
Did this weak frame sustain,
When life was hovering o'er the grave,
And nature sunk with pain.

- 3 I calmly bowed my fainting head
 On thy dear, faithful breast,
 And waited for my Father's call
 To his eternal rest.
- 4 Back from the borders of the grave,
 At thy command, I come ;
 Nor will I ask a speedier flight
 To my celestial home.
- 5 Where thou appointest mine abode
 There would I choose to be ;
 For in thy presence death is life,
 And earth is heaven with thee.

Comfort in Sickness and Death.

- 1 WHEN sickness shakes the languid frame,
 Each dazzling pleasure flies ;
 Phantoms of bliss no more obscure
 Our long-deluded eyes.
- 2 The tottering frame of mortal life
 Shall crumble into dust ;
 Nature shall faint — but learn, my soul,
 On nature's God to trust.
- 3 The man whose pious heart is fixed
 On his all-gracious God,
 In every frown may comfort find,
 And kiss the chastening rod.
- 4 Nor him shall death itself alarm ;
 On heaven his soul relies ;
 With joy he views his Maker's love,
 And with composure dies.

Trusting God in old Age.

- 1 MY God, my everlasting hope,
 I live upon thy truth ;

Thy hands have held my childhood up,
And strengthened all my youth.

2 Still has my life new wonders seen
Repeated every year ;

Behold my days that yet remain,
I trust them to thy care.

3 Cast me not off when strength declines,
When hoary hairs arise ;

And round me let thy glory shine,
Whene'er thy servant dies.

4 Then, in the history of my age,
When men review my days,

They 'll read thy love in every page,
In every line thy praise.

Old Age anticipated.

1 WHEN in the vale of lengthened years
My feeble feet shall tread,
And I survey the various scenes
Through which I have been led, —

2 How many mercies will my life
Before my view unfold !
What countless dangers will be passed,
What tales of sorrow told !

3 But yet, my soul, if thou canst say,
I 've seen my God in all,
In every blessing owned his hand,
In every loss his call ; —

4 If piety has marked my steps,
And love my actions formed,
And purity possessed my heart,
And truth my lips adorned ; —

5 If I an aged servant am
Of Jesus and of God,

I need not fear the closing scene,
Nor dread th' appointed road.

- 6 This scene will all my labors end,
This road conduct on high ;
With comfort I 'll review the past,
And triumph though I die.

Sustaining Grace in old Age implored.

The Guide of all my days,
I have declared thy heavenly truth,
And told thy wondrous ways.
- 2 Wilt thou forsake my hoary hairs,
And leave my fainting heart ?
Who shall sustain my sinking years,
If God, my strength, depart ?
- 3 Let me thy power and truth proclaim
Before the rising age,
And leave a savor of thy name
When I shall quit the stage.

Attends my next remove ;
O, may these poor remains of breath
Teach all the world thy love.

Blessedness of the Righteous.

- 1 BLEST are the humble souls that see
Their emptiness and poverty :
Treasures of grace to them are given,
And crowns of joy laid up in heaven.
- 2 Blest are the meek, who stand afar
From rage and passion, noise and war ;
God will secure their happy state,
And plead their cause against the great.

- 3 Blest are the souls that thirst for grace,
Hunger and long for righteousness ;
They shall be well supplied, and fed
With living streams and living bread.
- 4 Blest are the pure, whose hearts are clean,
Who never tread the ways of sin ;
With endless pleasure they shall see
A God of spotless purity.
- 5 Blest are the men of peaceful life,
Who quench the coals of growing strife ;
They shall be called the heirs of bliss,
The sons of God, — the God of peace
- 6 Blest are the faithful, who partake
Of pain and shame for Jesus' sake ;
Their souls shall triumph in the Lord ;
Eternal life is their reward.

Death of an Infant.

Frail, smiling solace of an hour ;
So soon our transient comforts fly,
And pleasure only blooms to die.
- 2 Is there no kind, no healing art,
To soothe the anguish of the heart ?
Spirit of grace, be ever nigh :
Thy comforts are not made to die.

Hope wipes the tear from sorrow's eye,
And faith points upward to the sky.

Death of a Child.

- 1 LIFE is a span, — a fleeting hour :
How soon the vapor flies !
Man is a tender, transient flower,
That e'en in blooming dies.
- 2 The once-loved form, now cold and dead,
Each mournful thought employs ;
And nature weeps, her comforts fled,
And withered all her joys.
- 3 Hope looks beyond the bounds of time,
When what we now deplore
Shall rise in full, immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more.
- 4 Cease, then, fond nature, cease thy tears ;
Thy Saviour dwells on high ;
There everlasting spring appears ;
There joys shall never die.

Death of Children.

- 1 SURE, to the mansions of the blest
When infant innocence ascends,
Some angel brighter than the rest
The spotless spirit's flight attends.
- 2 On wings of ecstasy they rise,
Beyond where worlds material roll,
Till some fair sister of the skies
Receives the unpolluted soul.
- 3 There, at th' Almighty Father's hand,
Nearest the throne of living light,
The choirs of infant seraphs stand,
And dazzling shine, where all are bright.
- 4 For when the Lord of mortal breath
Decrees his bounty to resume,

And points the silent shaft of death,
Which speeds an infant to the tomb, —

- 5 No passion fierce, no low desire,
Has quenched the radiance of the flame ;
Back to its God the living fire
Returns, unsullied, as it came.

But withers in the rising day,
Thus lovely was this infant's dawn,
Thus swiftly fled its life away.

Had ever burnt with wrong desires,
Had ever spurned at Heaven's control,

Death of a young Person.

By death's resistless hand,

O, may this truth, impressed
With awful power, " I, too, must die,"
Sink deep in every breast.
- 3 Let this vain world delude no more ;
Behold the opening tomb !
It bids us seize the present hour, --
To-morrow death may come.

 With cleansing, healing power ;
 This only can prepare the heart
 For death's surprising hour.

The Young cut off in their Prime.

- 1 THE morning flowers display their sweets,
 And gay their silken leaves unfold,
 As careless of the noontide heats,
 As fearless of the evening cold.
- 2 Nipped by the wind's untimely blast,
 Parched by the sun's directer ray,
 The momentary glories waste,
 The short-lived beauties die away.
- 3 So blooms the human face divine,
 When youth its pride of beauty shows ;
 Fairer than spring the colors shine,
 And sweeter than the virgin rose.
- 4 Or worn by slowly rolling years,
 Or broke by sickness in a day,
 The fading glory disappears,
 The short-lived beauties die away.
- 5 Yet these, new rising from the tomb,
 With lustre brighter far shall shine ;
 Revive with ever-during bloom,
 Safe from diseases and decline.
- 6 Let sickness blast, let death devour,
 If heaven must recompense our pains .
 Perish the grass, and fade the flower,
 If firm the word of God remains.

Interment of a pious young Female.

- 1 SISTER, thou wast mild and lovely,
 Gentle as the summer breeze,

Pleasant as the air of evening,
When it floats among the trees.

2 Peaceful be thy silent slumber, —
Peaceful in the grave so low ;
Thou no more wilt join our number ;
Thou no more our songs shalt know.

3 Dearest sister, thou hast left us ;
Here thy loss we deeply feel ;
But 't is God that hath bereft us :
He can all our sorrows heal.

4 Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

Burial of a Friend.

1 AS, bowed by sudden storms, the rose
Sinks on the garden's breast,
Down to the grave our brother goes,
In silence there to rest.

2 No more with us his tuneful voice
The hymn of praise shall swell ;
No more his cheerful heart rejoice
When peals the Sabbath bell.

3 Yet, if, in yonder cloudless sphere,
Amid a sinless throng,
He utters in his Saviour's ear
The everlasting song, —

4 No more we 'll mourn the absent friend,
But lift our earnest prayer,
And daily every effort bend
To rise and join him there.

Death of a Christian.

- 1 DEAR as thou wert, and justly dear,
We will not weep for thee :
One thought shall check the starting tear ,
It is, that thou art free.
- 2 And thus shall faith's consoling power
The tears of love restrain :
O, who that saw thy parting hour
Could wish thee here again !
- 3 Triumphant in thy closing eye
The hope of glory shone ;
Joy breathed in thy expiring sigh,
To think the race was run.
- 4 The passing spirit gently fled,
Sustained by grace divine ;
O, may such grace on us be shed,
And make our end like thine.

The Christian's Burial.

- 1 BROTHER, though from yonder sky
Cometh neither voice nor cry,
Yet we know for thee to-day
Every pain hath passed away.
- 2 Not for thee shall tears be given,
Child of God and heir of heaven ;
For he gave thee sweet release ;
Thine the Christian's death of peace.
- 3 Well we know thy living faith
Had the power to conquer death ;
As a living rose may bloom
By the border of the tomb.
- 4 Brother, in that solemn trust
We commend thee, dust to dust ;

In that faith we wait, till, risen,
Thou shalt meet us all in heaven.

- 5 While we weep as Jesus wept,
Thou shalt sleep as Jesus slept ;
With thy Saviour thou shalt rest,
Crowned, and glorified, and blest.

Funeral Hymn.

- 1 CLAY to clay, and dust to dust !
Let them mingle, — for they must !
Give to earth the earthly clod,
For the spirit 's fled to God.
- 2 Never more shall midnight's damp
Darken round this mortal lamp ;
Never more shall noonday's glance
Search this mortal countenance.
- 3 Deep the pit and cold the bed,
Where the spoils of death are laid :
Stiff the curtains, chill the gloom,
Of man's melancholy tomb.
- 4 Look aloft ! The spirit 's risen ; —
Death cannot the soul imprison :
'T is in heaven that spirits dwell,
Glorious, though invisible.
- 5 Thither let us turn our view :
Peace is there, and comfort too :
There shall those we love be found,
Tracing joy's eternal round.

The dying Christian.

- 1 WHEN life's tempestuous storms are o'er,
How calm he meets the friendly shore,
Who lived averse from sin !

Such peace on virtue's paths attends,
That, where the sinner's pleasure ends,
The Christian's joys begin.

- 2 See smiling patience smooth his brow !
See bending angels downward bow,
To cheer his way on high !
While, eager for the blest abode,
He joins with them to praise the God
Who taught him how to die.
- 3 No sorrow drowns his lifted eyes ;
No horror wrests the struggling sighs,
As from the sinner's breast ;
His God, the God of peace and love,
Pours kindly solace from above,
And soothes his soul to rest.
- 4 O, grant, my Father and my Friend,
Such joys may gild my peaceful end, —
So calm my evening close ;
While, loosed from every earthly tie,
With steady confidence I fly
To thee from whom I rose.

At a Funeral.

- 1 UNVEIL thy bosom, faithful tomb ;
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room,
To slumber in the silent dust.
- 2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
Invade thy bounds ; no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
While angels watch the soft repose.
- 3 So Jesus slept ; God's dying Son
Passed through the grave, and blest the oed ;
Rest, then, dear saint, till from his throne
The morning break, and pierce the shade.

- 4 Break from his throne, illustrious morn !
 Attend, O earth, his sovereign word ;
 Restore thy trust ; a glorious form
 Shall then arise to meet the Lord.

Burial of a Christian.

- 1 BROTHER, rest from sin and sorrow ;
 Death is o'er and life is won ;
 On thy slumber dawns no morrow ;
 Rest ; thine earthly race is run.
- 2 Brother, wake ; the night is waning ;
 Endless day is round thee poured ;
 Enter thou the rest remaining
 For the people of the Lord.
- 3 Brother, wake ; for he who loved thee, —
 He who died that thou mightst live, —
 He who graciously approved thee, —
 Waits thy crown of joy to give.
- 4 Fare thee well ; though woe is blending
 With the tones of earthly love,
 Triumph high and joy unending
 Wait thee in the realms above.

At a Funeral.

- 1 WHY do we mourn departing friends,
 Or shake at death's alarms ?
 'T is but the voice that Jesus sends
 To call them to his arms.
- 2 Why should we tremble to convey
 Their bodies to the tomb ?
 'T was there the Saviour's body lay,
 And left a long perfume.
- 3 The graves of all his saints he blest,
 And softened every bed :

Where should the dying members rest,
But with their dying Head ?

Death disarmed.

- 1 WHY should we start, and fear to die ?
What timorous worms we mortals are !
Death is the gate of endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.
- 2 The pains, the groans, and dying strife,
Fright our approaching souls away ;
Still we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 3 O, if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul would stretch her wings in haste,
Fly, fearless, through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she passed.
- 4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

Weep not.

- 1 WHY weep for those, frail child of woe,
Who 've fled and left thee mourning here !
Triumphant o'er their latest foe,
They glory in a brighter sphere.
- 2 Weep not for them ; — beside thee now
Perhaps they watch with guardian care,
And witness tears that idly flow
O'er those who bliss of angels share.
- 3 Or round their Father's throne above,
With raptured voice, his praise they sing,
Or on his messages of love
They journey with unwearied wing.

4 Space cannot check, thought cannot bound,
The high exulting souls, whom He,
Who formed these million worlds around,
Takes to his own eternity.

5 Weep, weep no more ; their voices raise
The song of triumph high to God,
And, wouldst thou join their song of praise,
Walk humbly in the path they trod.

Blessedness of the Righteous in Death.

1 HOW blest the righteous when he dies !
When sinks a weary soul to rest !
How mildly beam the closing eyes !
How gently heaves th' expiring breast !

2 So fades a summer cloud away ;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er ;
So gently shuts the eye of day ;
So dies a wave along the shore.

3 A holy quiet reigns around,
A calm which life nor death destroys ;
And naught disturbs that peace profound,
Which his unfettered soul enjoys.

4 Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears,
Where lights and shades alternate dwell ;
How bright th' unchanging morn appears !
Farewell, inconstant world, farewell !

5 Life's duty done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
“ How blest the righteous when he dies ! ”

BRYANT

Blessed are they that mourn.

1 DEEM not that they are blest alone,
Whose days a peaceful tenor keep ;

- The God, who loves our race, has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.
- 2 The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears,
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are earnest of serener years.
- 3 O, there are days of hope and rest
For every dark and troubled night !
And grief may bide, an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.
- 4 And thou, who o'er thy friend's low bier,
Dost shed the bitter drops like rain,
Hope that a brighter, happier sphere,
Will give him to thy arms again.
- 5 Nor let the good man's trust depart,
Though life its common gifts deny ;
Though with a pierced and broken heart,
And spurned of men, he goes to die.
- 6 For God hath marked each anguished day,
And numbered every secret tear ;
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

God the Refuge of the Afflicted.

- 1 AFFLICTION is a stormy deep,
Where wave resounds to wave ;
Though o'er our heads the billows roll,
We know the Lord can save.
- 2 When darkness and when sorrows rose,
And pressed on every side,
The Lord hath still sustained our steps,
And still hath been our Guide.
- 3 Perhaps, before the morning dawn,
He will restore our peace ;

For he who bade the tempest roar
Can bid the tempest cease.

Nor murmur at his rod ;
He 's more to us than all the world,
Our Health, our Life, our God.

- 1 NOT for the pious dead we weep ;
Their sorrows now are o'er ;
The sea is calm, the tempest past,
On that eternal shore.
- 2 Their peace is sealed, their rest is sure,
Within that better home ;
Awhile we weep and linger here,
Then follow to the tomb.
- 3 O, might some dream of visioned bliss,
Some trance of rapture, show
Where, on the bosom of their God,
They rest from human woe !
- 4 Thence may their pure devotion's flame
On us, on us descend ;
To us their strong aspiring hopes,
Their faith, their fervors lend.

And teach the chastened mind
To welcome all that 's left of good,
To all that 's lost resigned.

Human Frailty and Divine Support.

- 1 LET others boast how strong they be,

But we 'll confess, O Lord, to thee,
What feeble things we are.

- 2 Fresh as the grass our bodies stand,
 And flourish bright and gay ;
 A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land,
 And fades the grass away.
- 3 Our life contains a thousand springs,
 And dies if one be gone ;
 Strange ! that a harp of thousand strings
 Should keep in tune so long.
- 4 But 't is our God supports our frame,
 The God who built us first ;
 Salvation to th' almighty name,
 That reared us from the dust.
- 5 While we have breath, or use our tongues,
 Our Maker we 'll adore ;
 His spirit moves our heaving lungs,
 Or they would breathe no more.

Invitation to the Mercy-seat.

- 1 COME, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish ;
 Come, at the mercy-seat fervently kneel ;
 Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish ;
 Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.
- 2 Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
 Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure,
 Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
 Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.
- 3 Here see the bread of life ; see waters flowing
 Forth from the throne of God, pure from above ;
 Come to the feast of love ; come, ever knowing
 Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

Address to the dying Christian.

- 1 GO, spirit of the sainted dead,
 Go to thy longed-for, happy home :
 The tears of man are o'er thee shed ;
 The voice of angels bids thee come.
- 2 If life be not in length of days,
 In silvered locks and furrowed brow,
 But living to the Saviour's praise,
 How few have lived so long as thou !
- 3 Though earth may boast one gem the less,
 May not e'en heaven the richer be ?
 And myriads on thy footsteps press,
 To share thy blest eternity.

MONTGOMERY.

The Christian's tranquil Death.

- 1 THIS place is holy ground ;
 World, with its cares, away ;
 A holy, solemn stillness round
 This lifeless, mouldering clay ;
 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
 Can reach the peaceful sleeper here.
- 2 Behold the bed of death, —
 The pale and mortal clay ;
 Heard ye the sob of parting breath ?
 Marked ye the eye's last ray ?
 No ; life so sweetly ceased to be,
 It lapsed in immortality.
- 3 Why mourn the pious dead ?
 Why sorrows swell our eyes ?
 Can sighs recall the spirit fled ?
 Shall vain regrets arise ?
 Though death has caused this altered mien,
 In heaven the ransomed soul is seen.
- 4 Bury the dead, and weep
 In stillness o'er the loss :
 Bury the dead ; in Christ they sleep
 Who bore on earth his cross ;
 And from the grave their dust shall rise,
 In his own image, to the skies.

God the Author of Mercies and Afflictions.

- 1 NAKED, as from the earth we came,
 And rose to life at first,
 We to the earth return again,
 And mingle with the dust.
- 2 The dear delights we here enjoy,
 And fondly call our own,

- Are only favors borrowed now,
To be repaid anon.
- 3 'T is God who lifts our comforts high,
Or sinks them in the grave ;
He gives, and, blesséd be his name,
He takes but what he gave.
- 4 Peace, all our angry passions, then ;
Let each rebellious sigh
Be silent at his sovereign will,
And every murmur die.
- 5 If smiling mercy crown our lives,
Its praises shall be spread ;
And we 'll adore the justice, too,
That strikes our comforts dead.

TOPLADY.

The dying Christian to his Soul.

- 1 DEATHLESS spirit, now arise ;
Soar, thou native of the skies, —
Go to shine before the throne ;
Deck the Mediator's crown.
- 2 Go, his triumphs to adorn,
Made for God, to God return ;
Lo ! he beckons from on high ;
Fearless to his presence fly.
- 3 Burst thy shackles ; drop thy clay ;
Sweetly breathe thyself away ;
Singing, to thy crown remove,
Swift of wing and fired with love.
- 4 See the haven full in view ;
Love divine shall bear thee through ;
Trust to that propitious gale ;
Weigh thy anchor, spread thy sail.
- 5 Saints in glory, perfect made,
Wait thy passage through the shade ;

Swiftly to their wish be given ;
Kindle higher joy in heaven.

HEBER.

Farewell to a Friend departed.

- 1 THOU art gone to the grave ; but we will not deplore thee ;
Though sorrows and darkness encompass the tomb ;
The Saviour has passed through its portals before thee,
And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.
- 2 Thou art gone to the grave ; we no longer behold thee,
Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side ;
But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
And sinners may hope, since the Saviour hath died.
- 3 Thou art gone to the grave ; and, its mansion forsaking,
Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long ;
But the sunshine of heaven beamed bright on thy waking,
And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.
- 4 Thou art gone to the grave ; but we will not deplore thee ;
Since God was thy Refuge, thy Guardian, thy Guide ;
He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee ;
And death has no sting, since the Saviour hath died.

Those blessed who die in the Lord.

- 1 HEAR what the voice from heaven proclaims
For all the pious dead ;

“ Sweet is the savor of their names,
And soft their sleeping bed.

2 “ They die in Jesus and are blest ;
How kind their slumbers are !
From suffering and from sin released,
They ’re freed from every snare.

3 “ Far from this world of toil and strife,
They ’re present with the Lord ;
The labors of their mortal life
End in a large reward.”

DOANE.

Weep not.

1 LIFT not thou the wailing voice ;
Weep not ; ’t is a Christian dieth :
Up, where blesséd saints rejoice,
Ransomed now, the spirit flieth :
High in Heaven’s own light she dwelleth ;
Full the song of triumph swelleth :
Freed from earth, and earthly failing,
Lift for her no voice of wailing.

2 They who die in Christ are blest :
Ours be, then, no thought of grieving :
Sweetly with their God they rest,
All their toils and troubles leaving :
So be ours the faith that saveth,
Hope that every trial braveth,
Love that to the end endureth,
And, through Christ, the crown secureth.

PEABODY.

Peaceful Death of the Pious.

1 BEHOLD the western evening light !
It melts in deepening gloom ;
So calmly Christians sink away,
Descending to the tomb.

- 2 The winds breathe low ; the yellow leaf
 Scarce whispers from the tree ;
 So gently flows the parting breath,
 When good men cease to be.
- 3 How beautiful, on all the hills,
 The crimson light is shed !
 'T is like the peace the Christian gives
 To mourners round his bed.
- 4 How mildly on the wandering cloud
 The sunset beam is cast !
 So sweet the memory left behind,
 When loved ones breathe their last.
- 5 And, lo ! above the dews of night
 The vesper star appears :
 So faith lights up the mourner's heart,
 Whose eyes are dim with tears.
- 6 Night falls, but soon the morning light
 Its glories shall restore ;
 And thus the eyes that sleep in death
 Shall wake to close no more.

Trust and Submission.

- 1 MY God, I thank thee ; may no thought
 E'er deem thy chastisements severe ;
 But may this heart, by sorrow taught,
 Calm each wild wish, each idle fear.
- 2 Thy mercy bids all nature bloom ;
 The sun shines bright, and man is gay ;
 Thine equal mercy spreads the gloom,
 That darkens o'er his little day.
- 3 Full many a throb of grief and pain
 Thy frail and erring child must know :
 But not one prayer is breathed in vain,
 Nor does one tear unheeded flow.

- 4 Thy various messengers employ ;
 Thy purposes of love fulfil ;
 And, 'mid the wreck of human joy,
 Let kneeling faith adore thy will.

Friends separated by Death.

- 1 FRIEND after friend departs :
 Who hath not lost a friend ?
 There is no union here of hearts
 That finds not here an end :
 Were this frail world our final rest,
 Living or dying, none were blest.
- 2 Beyond the flight of time,
 Beyond the reign of death,
 There surely is some blessed clime
 Where life is not a breath,
 Nor life's affections transient fire,
 Whose sparks fly upward and expire.
- 3 There is a world above,
 Where parting is unknown ;
 A long eternity of love,
 Formed for the good alone ;
 And faith beholds the dying here
 Translated to that glorious sphere.
- 4 Thus star by star declines,
 Till all are passed away ;
 As morning high and higher shines,
 To pure and perfect day ;
 Nor sink those stars in empty night,
 But hide themselves in heaven's own light.

The Hope of Christian Friendship.

- 1 SWEET is the thought, the promise sweet,
 That friends, long-severed friends, shall meet,—

- That kindred souls, on earth disjoined,
 Shall meet, from earthly dross refined,
 Their mortal cares and sorrows o'er,
 And mingle hearts to part no more.
- 2 But for this hope, this blesséd stay,
 When earthly comforts all decay,
 O, who could view th' expiring eye,
 Nor wish, with those they love, to die ?
 Who could receive their parting breath,
 Nor long to follow them in death ?
- 3 But we have brighter hopes ; we know
 Short is this pilgrimage of woe ;
 We know that our Redeemer lives ;
 We trust the promises he gives ;
 And part in hope to meet above,
 Where all is joy, and all is love.

Blessedness of the pious Dead.

- 1 O, STAY thy tears ; for they are blest,
 Whose days are past, whose toil is done :
 Here midnight care disturbs our rest ;
 Here sorrow dims the noonday sun.
- 2 How blest are they whose transient years
 Pass like an evening meteor's flight !
 Not dark with guilt, nor dim with tears ;
 Whose course is short, unclouded, bright.
- 3 O, cheerless were our lengthened way ;
 But Heaven's own light dispels the gloom,
 Streams downward from eternal day,
 And casts a glory round the tomb.
- 4 O, stay thy tears ; the blest above
 Have hailed a spirit's heavenly birth,
 And sung a song of joy and love ;
 Then why should anguish reign on earth ?

Peaceful Death of the Righteous.

- 1 I LOOKED upon the righteous man
 And saw his parting breath,
 Without a struggle or a sigh,
 Serenely yield to death :
 There was no anguish on his brow,
 Nor terror in his eye :
 The spoiler aimed a fatal dart,
 But lost the victory.
- 2 I looked upon the righteous man,
 And heard the holy prayer
 Which rose above that breathless form,
 To soothe the mourners' care,
 And felt how precious was the gift
 He to his loved ones gave, —
 The stainless memory of the just,
 The wealth beyond the grave.
- 3 I looked upon the righteous man ;
 And all our earthly trust
 Of pleasure, vanity, or pride
 Seemed lighter than the dust,
 Compared with his celestial gain, —
 A home above the sky :
 O, grant us, Lord, his life to live,
 That we like him may die !

The Christian's parting Hour.

- 1 HOW sweet the hour of closing day,
 When all is peaceful and serene,
 And when the sun, with cloudless ray,
 Sheds mellow lustre o'er the scene !
- 2 Such is the Christian's parting hour ;
 So peacefully he sinks to rest ;

- When faith, indued from heaven with power,
Sustains and cheers his languid breast.
- 3 Mark but that radiance of his eye,
That smile upon his wasted cheek :
They tell us of his glory nigh,
In language that no tongue can speak.
- 4 A beam from heaven is sent to cheer
The pilgrim on his gloomy road ;
And angels are attending near,
To bear him to their bright abode.
- 5 Who would not wish to die like those Whom God's own Spirit deigns to bless ?
To sink into that soft repose,
Then wake to perfect happiness ?

Comfort in the Death of the Christian.

- 1 CEASE, ye mourners, cease to languish
O'er the grave of those you love ;
Pain, and death, and night, and anguish
Enter not the world above.
- 2 While our silent steps are straying,
Lonely, through night's deepening shade,
Glory's brightest beams are playing
Round the happy Christian's head.
- 3 Light and peace at once deriving
From the hand of God most high,
In his glorious presence living,
They shall never, never die.
- 4 Endless pleasure, pain excluding,
Sickness, there, no more can come ;
There, no fear of woe, intruding,
Sheds o'er heaven a moment's gloom.

My soul, that springs beyond thy sphere,
No more demands thy aid.
- 3 Ye stars are but the shining dust

The pavement of those heavenly courts
Where I shall see my God.

Nor shall one moment's darkness blend
With that unvaried day.

Reunion of Friends in Heaven.

- 1 IF death my friend and me divide,
Thou dost not, Lord, my sorrow chide,
Or frown my tears to see ;
Restrained from passionate excess,
Thou bidd'st me mourn in calm distress
For them that rest in thee.
- 2 I feel a strong, immortal hope,
Which bears my mournful spirit up
Beneath its mountain load ;
Redeemed from death, and grief, and pain,
I soon shall find my friend again,
Within the arms of God.

My Father's House.

- 1 THERE is a place of sacred rest,
Far, far beyond the skies,
Where beauty smiles eternally,
And pleasure never dies ; —
My Father's house, my heavenly nome,
Where " many mansions " stand,
Prepared, by hands divine, for all
Who seek the better land.
- 2 When tossed upon the waves of life,
With fear on every side, —

When fiercely howls the gathering storm
 And foams the angry tide, —
 Beyond the storm, beyond the gloom,
 Breaks forth the light of morn,
 Bright beaming from my Father's house,
 To cheer the soul forlorn.

- 3 Yes, even at that fearful hour,
 When death shall seize its prey
 And from the place that knows us now,
 Shall hurry us away, —
 The vision of that heavenly home
 Shall cheer the parting soul,
 And o'er it, mounting to the skies,
 A tide of rapture roll.
- 4 In that pure home of tearless joy
 Earth's parted friends shall meet,
 With smiles of love that never fade,
 And blessedness complete :
 There, there adieus are sounds unknown ;
 Death frowns not on that scene,
 But life and glorious beauty shine,
 Untroubled and serene.

The Creation, an Emblem of the Resurrection.

- 1 ALL nature dies, and lives again :
 The flowers that paint the field,
 The trees that crown the mountain's brow,
 And boughs and blossoms yield, —
- 2 Resign the honors of their form
 At winter's stormy blast ;
 And leave the naked, leafless plain,
 A desolated waste.
- 3 Yet soon reviving plants and flowers
 Anew shall deck the plain ;

- The woods shall hear the voice of spring,
And flourish green again.
- 4 So, to the dreary grave consigned,
Man sleeps in death's dark gloom,
Until th' eternal morning wake
The slumbers of the tomb.
- 5 O, may the grave become to us
The bed of peaceful rest ;
Whence we shall gladly rise at length,
And mingle with the blest.
- 6 Cheered by this hope, with patient mind
We 'll wait Heaven's high decree ;
Till the appointed period come
When death shall set us free.

'T is not refreshed by vernal showers ;
It never needs the moonbeam pale, —
For there are known no evening hours.
- 3 No ; for that world is ever bright
With purest radiance all its own :

Flow round it from th' eternal throne.
- 4 It is all holy and serene,
The land of glory and repose ;

There not a tear of sorrow flows.

Funeral Hymn.

- 1 BROTHER, thou art gone before us,
And thy saintly soul is flown,
Where tears are wiped from every eye,
And sorrow is unknown :
From the burden of the flesh,
And from care and fear released,
Where the wicked cease from troubling
And the weary are at rest.
- 2 Brother, yes, thy course is finished ;
'Thou hast borne earth's heavy load,
But Christ has taught thy languid feet
'To reach his blest abode :
Sweetly art thou sleeping now,
On thy Father's faithful breast,
Where the wicked cease from troubling
And the weary are at rest.
- 3 Sin no more can taint thy spirit,
Nor can doubt thy faith assail ;

LIFE, DEATH, AND FUTURITY.

Thy soul its welcome has received,
Thy strength shall never fail :
And thou 'rt sure to meet the good,
Whom on earth thou lovedst best,
Where the wicked cease from troubling
And the weary are at rest.

4 To thy grave we sadly bear thee,
There in dust we place thy head,
We lay the turf above thee now,
And seal thy narrow bed ;
But thy spirit soars away,
Free, among the faithful blest,
Where the wicked cease from troubling
And the weary are at rest.

5 When the Lord shall send his summons
Unto us who 're left behind,
May we, untainted by the world,
As sure a welcome find ;
Each like thee depart in peace
To the kingdom of the blest,
Where the wicked cease from troubling
And the weary are at rest.

WATTS

Brevity and Frailty of Life.

1 HOW short and hasty is our life !
How vast our soul's affairs !
Yet foolish mortals vainly strive
To lavish out their years.

2 Our days run thoughtlessly along,
Without a moment's stay ;
Just like a story or a song,
We pass our lives away.

- 3 God from on high invites us home ;
 But we march heedless on,
 And, ever hastening to the tomb,
 Stoop downward as we run.
- 4 Draw us, O God, with sovereign grace,
 And lift our thoughts on high,
 That we may end this mortal race,
 And see salvation nigh.

WATTS

Man hastening to the Grave.

- 1 LORD, what a feeble piece
 Is this our mortal frame !
 Our life, how poor a trifle 't is,
 'That scarce deserves the name !
- 2 Alas ! 't was brittle clay
 'That formed our body first ;
 And every month, and every day,
 'T is mouldering back to dust,
- 3 Our moments fly apace ;
 Nor will our minutes stay ;
 Just like a flood our hasty days
 Are sweeping us away.
- 4 Then, if our days must fly,
 We 'll keep their end in sight ;
 We 'll spend them all in wisdom's way,
 And let them speed their flight.
- 5 They 'll waft us sooner o'er
 This life's tempestuous sea :
 We soon shall reach the peaceful shore
 Of blest eternity.

WATTS.

Life short, and Man frail.

- 1 TEACH me the measure of my days,
 Thou Maker of my frame ;

- I would survey life's narrow space,
And learn how frail I am.
- 2 A span is all that we can boast ;
How short the fleeting time !
Man is but vanity and dust,
In all his flower and prime.
- 3 Some walk in honor's gaudy show,
Some dig for golden ore ;
They toil for heirs, they know not who,
And straight are seen no more.
- 4 What should I wish, or wait for, then,
From creatures, — earth and dust ?
They make our expectations vain,
And disappoint our trust.
- 5 Now I resign my earthly hope,
My fond desire recall ;
I give my mortal interest up,
And make my God my all.

Life rapidly passing away.

- 1 AS flows the rapid river,
With channel broad and free,
Its waters rippling ever,
And hasting to the sea,
So life is onward flowing,
And days of offered peace,
And man is swiftly going
Where calls of mercy cease.
- 2 As moons are ever waning,
As hastes the sun away,
As stormy winds, complaining,
Bring on the wintry day,
So fast the night comes o'er us, —
The darkness of the grave ;

And death is just before us :
 God takes the life he gave.

- 3 Say, hath thy heart its treasure
 Laid up in worlds above ?
 And is it all thy pleasure
 Thy God to praise and love ?
 Beware, lest death's dark river
 Its billows o'er thee roll,
 And thou lament for ever
 The ruin of thy soul.

Life a Winter's Day.

- 1 TIME is winging us away
 To our eternal home ;
 Life is but a winter's day, —
 A journey to the tomb :
 Youth and vigor soon will flee,
 Blooming beauty lose its charms ;
 All that 's mortal soon shall be
 Inclosed in death's cold arms.
- 2 Time is winging us away
 To our eternal home ;
 Life is but a winter's day, —
 A journey to the tomb ;
 But the Christian shall enjoy
 Health and beauty soon above,
 Where no worldly griefs annoy,
 Secure in Jesus' love.

Reflections on past Generations.

- 1 HOW swift the torrent rolls,
 That bears us to the sea !
 The tide which hurries thoughtless souls
 To vast eternity !

- 2 Our fathers ! — where are they,
 With all they called their own ? —
 Their joys and griefs, and hopes and cares,
 And wealth and honor ? — gone !
- 3 God of our fathers ! hear, —
 Thou everlasting Friend ! —
 While we, as on life's utmost verge,
 Our souls to thee commend.
- 4 Of all the pious dead
 May we the footsteps trace,
 Till with them, in the land of light,
 We dwell before thy face.

Swiftness of Time.

- 1 HOW swift, alas ! the moments fly !
 How rush the years along !
 Scarce here, yet gone already by, —
 The burden of a song.
- 2 See childhood, youth, and manhood pass,
 And age, with furrowed brow ;
 Time was, — time shall be, — but, alas !
 Where, where, in time, is now ?
- 3 Time is the measure but of change ;
 No present hour is found ;
 The past, the future, fill the range
 Of time's unceasing round.
- 4 Then, pilgrim, let thy joys and fears
 On time no longer lean ;
 But henceforth all thy hopes and fears
 From earth's affections wean.
- 5 To God let grateful accents rise :
 With truth, with virtue, live ;
 So all the bliss that time denies,
 Eternity shall give.

LOGAN.

The Christian summoned to depart.

- 1 THE hour of my departure 's come ;
I hear the voice that calls me home :
At last, O Lord, let trouble cease,
And let thy servant die in peace.
- 2 The race appointed I have run ;
The combat 's o'er, the prize is won ;
And now my witness is on high,
And now my record 's in the sky.
- 3 I leave the world without a tear,
Save for the friends I held so dear :
To heal their sorrows, Lord, descend,
And to the friendless prove a friend.
- 4 I come, I come ; at thy command,
I give my spirit to thy hand ;
Stretch forth thine everlasting arms,
And shield me in the last alarms.
- 5 The hour of my departure 's come ;
I hear the voice that calls me home :
Now, O my God, let trouble cease ;
Now let thy servant die in peace.

Journeying through Death to Life.

- 1 THROUGH sorrow's night and danger's path,
Amid the deepening gloom,
We, soldiers of a Heavenly King,
Are marching to the tomb.
- 2 There, when the turmoil is no more,
And all our powers decay,
Our cold remains, in solitude,
Shall sleep the years away.
- 3 Our labors done, securely laid
In this our last retreat,

Unheeded, o'er our silent dust
The storms of life shall beat.

- 4 Yet not thus lifeless, thus inane,
The vital spark shall lie :
For o'er life's wreck that spark shall rise,
To seek its kindred sky.

True Length of Life.

- 1 LIKE shadows gliding o'er the plain,
Or clouds that roll successive on,
Man's busy generations pass ;
And while we gaze, their forms are gone.
- 2 " He lived, — he died " ; behold the sum,
The abstract, of th' historian's page !
Alike, in God's all-seeing eye,
The infant's day, the patriarch's age.
- 3 O Father, in whose mighty hand
The boundless years and ages lie,
Teach us thy boon of life to prize,
And use the moments as they fly ; —
- 4 To crowd the narrow span of life
With wise designs and virtuous deeds :
So shall we wake from death's dark night,
To share the glory that succeeds.

C. H. M.

J. TAYLOR.

What is your Life ?

- 1 O, WHAT is life ? — 't is like a flower
That blossoms and is gone ;
It flourishes its little hour,
With all its beauty on :
Death comes, and, like a wintry day,
It cuts the lovely flower away.
- 2 O, what is life ? — 't is like the bow
That glistens in the sky :

We love to see its colors glow ;
 But, while we look, they die :
 Life fails as soon : — to-day 't is here ;
 To-morrow it may disappear.

- 3 Lord, what is life ? — if spent with thee,
 In humble praise and prayer,
 How long or short our life may be,
 We feel no anxious care :
 Though life depart, our joys shall last
 When life and all its joys are past.

Man's Mortality.

- 1 BENEATH our feet and o'er our head
 Is equal warning given ;
 Beneath us lie the countless dead,
 Above us is the heaven.
- 2 Their names are graven on the stone,
 Their bones are in the clay ;
 And ere another day is done,
 Ourselves may be as they.
- 3 Death rides on every passing breeze ;
 He lurks in every flower ;
 Each season has its own disease,
 Its peril every hour.
- 4 Our eyes have seen the rosy light
 Of youth's soft cheek decay,
 And fate descend in sudden night
 On manhood's middle day ; —
- 5 Our eyes have seen the steps of age
 Halt feebly towards the tomb ; —
 And yet shall earth our hearts engage,
 And dreams of days to come ?
- 6 Turn, mortal, turn ; thy danger know ;
 Where'er thy foot can tread,

The earth rings hollow from below,
And warn^s thee of her dead !

Life.

- 1 LIFE is the time to serve the Lord, —
The time t' insure the great reward ;
And while the lamp holds out to burn,
To thee the sinner may return.
- 2 Life is the hour that thou hast given
To fit us for the joys of heaven ;
The day of grace, and mortals may
Secure the blessings of the day.
- 3 Then the great work we have to do,
Let us, with all our might, pursue ;
And wisely every hour employ,
Till faith and hope are lost in joy.

Vanity of the World.

- 1 ALAS ! how poor and little worth
Are all those glittering toys of earth
That lure us here ! —
Dreams of a sleep that death must break :
Alas ! before it bids us wake,
They disappear.
- 2 Where is the strength that spurned decay,
The step that rolled so light and gay,
The heart's blithe tone ?
The strength is gone, the step is slow,
And joy grows weariness and woe
When age comes on.
- 3 Our birth is but a starting-place ;
Life is the running of the race,
And death the goal :

There all those glittering toys are brought ;
That path alone, of all unsought,
Is found of all.

- 4 O, let the soul its slumbers break,
Arouse its senses, and awake
To see how soon
Life, like its glories, glides away,
And the stern footsteps of decay
Come stealing on.

Human Frailty.

- 1 WEAK and irresolute is man :
The purpose of to-day,
Woven with pains into his plan,
To-morrow rends away.
- 2 Some foe to his upright intent
Finds out his weaker part ;
Virtue engages his assent,
But pleasure wins his heart.
- 3 Bound on a voyage of awful length,
Through dangers little known,
A stranger to superior strength,
Man vainly trusts his own.

To reach the distant coast ;
The breath of heaven must swell the sail,
Or all the toil is lost.

Frail Life and succeeding Eternity.

- 1 THEE we adore, Eternal Name,
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we.
- 2 Our wasting lives grow shorter still,
As months and days increase ;

- And every beating pulse we tell
 Leaves but the number less.
- 3 The year rolls round, and steals away
 The breath that first it gave ;
 Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
 We 're travelling to the grave.
- 4 Dangers stand thick through all the ground,
 To push us to the tomb ;
 And fierce diseases wait around,
 To hurry mortals home.
- 5 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense,
 To walk this dangerous road ;
 And, if our souls are hurried hence,
 May they be found with God !

I would not live alway.

- 1 I WOULD not live alway ; I ask not to stay
 Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way :
 I would not live alway ; no, welcome the tomb ;
 Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom.
- 2 Who, who would live alway, away from his God,
 Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
 Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
 And the noontide of glory eternally reigns ?—
- 3 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
 Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet,
 While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
 And the smile of the Lord is the life of the soul !

The dying Christian to his Soul.

- 1 VITAL spark of heavenly flame,
 Quit, O, quit this mortal frame !

Trembling, hoping, lingering, flying,
 O, the pain, the bliss of dying !
 Cease, fond nature, cease thy strife,
 And let me languish into life.

- 2 Hark ! they whisper ! angels say,
 " Sister spirit, come away."
 What is this absorbs me quite,
 Steals my senses, shuts my sight,
 Drowns my spirit, draws my breath ?
 Tell me, my soul, can this be death ?
- 3 The world recedes ; it disappears ;
 Heaven opens on my eyes ; my ears
 With sounds seraphic ring.
 Lend, lend your wings ! I mount, I fly !
 O Grave, where is thy victory ?
 O Death, where is thy sting ?

The Summons.

- 1 " SPIRIT, leave thy house of clay ;
 Lingering dust, resign thy breath ;
 Spirit, cast thy chains away ;
 Dust, be thou dissolved in death " :
 Thus the blesséd Saviour speaks,
 While the faithful Christian dies ;
 Thus the bonds of life he breaks,
 And the ransomed captive flies.
- 2 " Prisoner, long detained below,
 Prisoner now with freedom blest,
 Welcome from a world of woe ;
 Welcome to a land of rest " :
 Thus the choir of angels sing,
 As they bear the soul on high,
 While with hallelujahs ring
 All the regions of the sky.

Meditation on the Tomb.

- 1 HARK ! from the tombs a warning sound ;
My ears, attend the cry : —
“ Ye living men, come view the ground
Where you must shortly lie.
- 2 “ Princes, this clay must be your bed,
In spite of all your towers ;
The tall, the wise, the reverend head
Must lie as low as ours.”
- 3 Great God, is this our certain doom ?
And are we still secure ? —
Still walking downward to the tomb,
And yet prepare no more ?
- 4 Grant us the power of quickening grace,
To fit our souls to fly ;
Then, when we drop this dying flesh,
We 'll rise above the sky.

Fear of Death overcome.

- 1 I CANNOT shun the stroke of death ;
Lord, help me to surmount the fear ;
That, when I must resign my breath,
Serene my summons I may hear.
- 2 'T is sin gives venom to the dart ;
In me let every sin be slain ;
From secret faults, Lord, cleanse my heart,
From wilful sins my hands restrain.
- 3 May I, my God, with holy zeal,
Closely the ends of life pursue,
Seek thy whole pleasure to fulfil,
And honor thee in all I do.
- 4 Let all my bliss and treasure lie
Where, in thy light, I light may see ;

The soul may freely dare to die,
That longs to be possessed of thee.

The Grave.

- 1 THERE is a calm for those who weep,
A rest for weary pilgrims found :
They softly lie and sweetly sleep,
Low in the ground.
- 2 The storm that sweeps the wintry sky
No more disturbs their deep repose,
Than summer evening's latest sigh,
That shuts the rose.
- 3 Then, traveller in the vale of tears
To realms of everlasting light,
Through time's dark wilderness of years
Pursue thy flight.
- 4 Thy soul, renewed by grace divine,
In God's own image, freed from clay,
In heaven's eternal sphere shall shine,
A star of day.

Prayer for the Dying Christian.

- 1 GENTLY, my Father, let me down,
To slumber in the arms of death :
I rest my soul on thee alone,
E'en till my last expiring breath.

- 2 Soon will the storms of life be o'er,
 And I shall enter endless rest :
 There I shall live to sin no more,
 And bless thy name, for ever blest.
- 3 Bid me possess sweet peace within ;
 Let childlike patience keep my heart ;
 Then shall I feel my heaven begin,
 Before my spirit hence depart.
- 4 Hasten thy chariot, God of love !
 And take me from this world of woe,
 I long to reach those joys above,
 And bid farewell to all below.

 Still louder notes than angels sing, —
 Extol the riches of thy grace,

The Pilgrimage of Life.

- 1 OUR country is Immanuel's ground ;
We seek that promised soil ;
The songs of Zion cheer our hearts,
While strangers here we toil.
- 2 Oft do our eyes with joy o'erflow,
And oft are bathed in tears ;
Yet naught but heaven our hopes can raise,
And naught but sin our fears.
- 3 We tread the path our Master trod ;
We bear the cross he bore ;
And every thorn that wounds our feet,
His temples pierced before.
- 4 Our powers are oft dissolved away
In ecstasies of love ;
And while our bodies wander here,
Our souls are fixed above.

- 5 We purge our mortal dross away,
 Refining as we run ;
 But while we die to earth and sense,
 Our heaven is here begun.

Foretaste of Heaven.

- 1 WHAT must it be to dwell above,
 At God's right hand, where Jesus reigns,
 Since the sweet earnest of his love
 O'erwhelms us on these earthly plains !
 No heart can think, no tongue explain,
 What bliss it is with Christ to reign.
- 2 When sin no more obstructs our sight,
 When sorrow pains our hearts no more,
 How shall we view the Prince of Light
 And all his works of grace explore !
 What heights and depths of love divine
 Will there through endless ages shine !
- 3 This is the heaven I long to know ;
 For this, with patience, I would wait,
 Till, weaned from earth, and all below,
 I mount to my celestial seat,
 And wave my palm, and wear my crown,
 And, with the elders, cast them down.

Heaven desired.

- 1 THE dove let loose in eastern skies,
 Returning fondly home,
 Ne'er stoops to earth her wing, nor flies,
 Where idle warblers roam ; —
- 2 But high she shoots through air and light,
 Above all low delay,
 Where nothing earthly bounds her flight,
 Nor shadow dims her way.

- 3 So grant me, Lord, from every snare
Of sinful passion free,
Aloft, through faith's serener air,
To urge my course to thee ;—
- 4 No sin to cloud, no lure to stay
My soul, as home she springs,
Thy sunshine on her joyful way,
Thy freedom on her wings.

Close of the Christian Warfare.

- 1 WHEN we pass through yonder river,
When we reach the farther shore,
There 's an end of war for ever ;
We shall see our foes no more :
All our conflicts then shall cease,
Followed by eternal peace.
- 2 After warfare, rest is pleasant :
O, how sweet the prospect is !
Though we toil and strive at present,
Let us not repine at this :
Toil, and pain, and conflict past,
All endear repose at last.
- 3 When we gain the heavenly regions,
When we touch the heavenly shore, —
Blesséd thought ! — no hostile legions
Can alarm or trouble more :
Far beyond the reach of foes,
We shall dwell in sweet repose.

Name ever dear to me !
When shall my labors have an end
In joy, and peace, and thee ?
- 2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-built walls
And pearly gates behold ?
Thy bulwarks, with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold ?
- 3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know :
Blest seats ! through rude and stormy scenes
I onward press to you.
- 4 Why should I shrink at pain and woe ?
Or feel at death dismay ?

- I 've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.
- 5 Apostles, martyrs, prophets, there,
Around my Saviour stand ;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.

Heaven.

- 1 O, WHEN the hours of life are past,
And death's dark shade arrives at last, —
It is not sleep, — it is not rest, —
'T is glory opening to the blest.
- 2 Their way to heaven was pure from sin,
And Christ shall there receive them in ;
There each shall wear a robe of light
Like his, divinely fair and bright.
- 3 There parted hearts again shall meet
In union holy, calm, and sweet ;
There grief find rest, and never more
Shall sorrow call them to deplore.
- 4 There angels will unite their prayers
With spirits bright and blest as theirs,
And light shall glance on every crown,
From suns that never more go down.
- 5 For there the God of mercy sheds
His purest influence on their heads,
And gilds the spirits round the throne
With glory radiant as his own.

A Prospect of Heaven.

- 1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign ;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers :
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green :
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
And Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink,
To cross this narrow sea ;
And linger shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O, could we make our doubts remove, —
Those gloomy doubts that rise, —
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbeckoned eyes, —
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er, —
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

Once they knew, like us below,

Gloomy doubts, distressing fears,
Torturing pain, and heavy woe.

3 Happy spirits, ye are fled
Where no grief can entrance find,
Lulled to rest the aching head,
Soothed the anguish of the mind.

4 'Mid the chorus of the skies,
'Mid th' angelic lyres above,
Hark ! their songs melodious rise, —
Songs of praise to Jesus' love.

Heaven in Prospect.

1 ON Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.

2 O, the transporting, rapturous scene
That rises to my sight ! —
Sweet fields, arrayed in living green
And rivers of delight.

3 No chilling winds, nor poisonous breath,
Can reach that healthful shore ;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.

4 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be for ever blest ?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest ?

5 Filled with delight, my raptured soul
Would here no longer stay ;
Though Jordan's waves should round me roll,
I 'd fearless launch away.

The Changes of Nature Types of Immortality.

- 1 AS twilight's gradual veil is spread
 Across the evening sky ;
 So man's bright hours decline in shade,
 And mortal comforts die.
- 2 The bloom of spring, the summer rose,
 In vain pale winter brave ;
 Nor youth, nor age, nor wisdom knows
 A ransom from the grave.
- 3 But morning dawns, and spring revives,
 And genial hours return ;
 So man's immortal soul survives,
 And scorns the mouldering urn.

 He sinks into a Father's arms,
 Nor dreads the coming day.

Glories of Heaven.

- 1 FAR from these narrow scenes of night,
 Unbounded glories rise,
 And realms of joy and pure delight,
 Unknown to mortal eyes.
- 2 Fair, distant land ! — could mortal eyes
 But half its charms explore,
 How would our spirits long to rise,
 And dwell on earth no more !
- 3 No cloud those blissful regions know, —
 Realms ever bright and fair ;
 For sin, the source of mortal woe,
 Can never enter there.
- 4 O, may the heavenly prospect fire
 Our hearts with ardent love,

Till wings of faith, and strong desire,
Bear every thought above.

- 5 Prepare us, Lord, by grace divine,
For thy bright courts on high ;
Then bid our spirits rise and join
The chorus of the sky.

The Worship of Heaven.

- 1 O, FOR a sweet, inspiring ray,
To animate our feeble strains,
From the bright realms of endless day,
The blissful realms where Jesus reigns.
- 2 There, low before his glorious throne,
Adoring saints and angels fall ;
And, with delightful worship, own
His smile their bliss, their heaven, their all.
- 3 Immortal glories crown his head,
While tuneful hallelujahs rise,
And love, and joy, and triumph spread
Through all th' assemblies of the skies.
- 4 He smiles, — and seraphs tune their songs
To boundless rapture, while they gaze ;
Ten thousand thousand joyful tongues
Resound his everlasting praise.
- 5 There all the followers of the Lamb
Shall join at last the heavenly choir ;
O, may the joy-inspiring theme
Awake our faith and warm desire.

The Issues of Life and Death.

- 1 O, WHERE shall rest be found, —
Rest for the weary soul ?
'T were vain the ocean depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

- 2 The world can never give
 The bliss for which we sigh ;
 'T is not the whole of life to live,
 Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears,
 There is a life above,
 Unmeasured by the flight of years ;
 And all that life is love : —
- 4 There is a death, whose pang
 Outlasts the fleeting breath ;
 O, what appalling horrors hang
 Around the “ second death ” !
- 5 Lord God of truth and grace !
 Teach us that death to shun,
 Lest we be banished from thy face,
 And utterly undone.
- 6 Here would we end our quest ;
 Alone are found in thee
 The life of perfect love, — the rest
 Of immortality.

The Redeemed in Heaven.

- 1 WHO are these in bright array,
 This exulting, happy throng,
 Round the altar, night and day,
 Hymning one triumphant song ? —
 “ Worthy is the Lamb, once slain,
 Blessing, honor, glory, power,
 Wisdom, riches, to obtain,
 New dominion every hour.”
- 2 These through fiery trials trod ;
 These from great affliction came ;
 Now, before the throne of God,
 Sealed with his almighty name,

Clad in raiment pure and white,
 Victor-palms in every hand,
 Through their great Redeemer's might,
 More than conquerors they stand.

- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease, unknown,
 On immortal fruits they feed ;
 Them the Lamb, amidst the throne,
 Shall to living fountains lead ;
 Joy and gladness banish sighs ;
 Perfect love dispels all fears ;
 And for ever from their eyes
 God shall wipe away their tears.

The visible World a Shadow of the invisible.

- 1 I PRAISED the earth in beauty seen,
 With garlands gay, of various green ;
 I praised the sea, whose ample field
 Shone glorious as a silver shield ;
 And earth and ocean seemed to say,
 " Our beauties are but for a day."
- 2 I praised the sun, whose chariot rolled
 On wheels of amber and of gold ;
 I praised the moon, whose softer eye
 Gleamed sweetly through the summer sky ;
 And moon and sun in answer said,
 " Our years are told, when we must fade."
- 3 O God ! O good beyond compare !
 If thus thy meaner works are fair, —
 If thus thy bounties gild the span
 Of sinful earth and mortal man, —
 How glorious must thy mansion be
 Where thy redeemed shall dwell with thee !

Death and immediate Glory.

- 1 THERE is a house not made with hands,
Eternal and on high ;
And here my spirit waiting stands,
Till God shall bid it fly.
- 2 We walk by faith of joys to come ;
Faith lives upon his word ;
But while the body is our home,
We 're absent from the Lord.

Must be dissolved and fall ;
Then, O my soul, with joy obey
Thy Heavenly Father's call.

The Christian in the Prospect of Death.

- 1 O, MOST delightful hour by man
Experienced here below,
The hour that terminates his span,
His folly, and his woe.
- 2 Worlds should not bribe me back to tread
Again life's dreary waste,
To see again my day o'erspread
With all the gloomy past.
- 3 My home henceforth is in the skies ;
Earth, seas, and sun, adieu !
All heaven unfolded to my eyes,
I have no sight for you.
- 4 So speaks the Christian, firm possessed
Of faith's supporting rod,
Then breathes his soul into its rest,
The bosom of his God.

Heaven and Earth.

- 1 BEHOLD yon bright array
 Before the heavenly throne !
 There young nor old, there rich nor poor,
 There bond nor free, are known
- 2 At once they strike their lyres ;
 At once break off, — and all,
 With trembling joy and silent love,
 In adoration fall.
- 3 Whate'er their lot below,
 As fellow-heirs of bliss,
 In heaven their services are one :
 Let earth be heaven in this.
- 4 As brethren so may we
 Worship with one accord ;
 In stillness wait, in prayer bow down,
 And bless and praise the Lord.
- 5 As pilgrims on the way,
 God's earthly courts we fill ;
 And travel on from strength to strength,
 Abreast, to Zion's hill.
- 6 There may our spirits meet,
 When faith is changed to sight,
 Where God the Lord himself shall be
 The temple, life, and light.

- 1 AND is there, Lord, a rest
 For weary souls designed,
 Where not a care shall stir the breast,
 Or sorrow entrance find ?
- 2 Is there a blissful home,
 Where kindred minds shall meet,

- And live and love, nor ever roam
From that serene retreat ?
- 3 For ever blesséd they,

- 1 FAR as thy name is known
The world declares thy praise ;
Thy saints, O Lord, before thy throne,
Their songs of honor raise.
- 2 With joy thy people stand
On Zion's chosen hill,
Proclaim the wonders of thy hand,
And counsels of thy will.
- 3 Let strangers walk around
The city where we dwell,
Survey with care thine holy ground,
And mark the building well, —
- 4 The order of thy house,
The worship of thy court,
The cheerful songs, the solemn vows,
And make a fair report.

- 5 How decent, and how wise !
How glorious to behold !
Beyond the pomp that charms the eyes,
And rites adorned with gold.
- 6 The God we worship now
Will guide us till we die, —
Will be our God while here below,
And ours above the sky.

One fellowship of mind,

Their bliss and glory find.
- 2 Here, in their house of pilgrimage,
Thy statutes are their song ;
There, through one bright eternal age,
Thy praises they prolong.

Derive its pulse from thee, the heart,
Its life from thee, the soul.

- 1 COME, let us join our friends above,
Who have obtained the prize,
And on the eagle wings of love
To joy celestial rise.
- 2 Let saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone ;
For all the servants of our King
In heaven and earth are one.
- 3 E'en now to their eternal home
Some happy spirits fly ;

And we are to the margin come,
And soon expect to die.

Then, when the word is given,
Bid death's cold flood its waves divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

Zion, city of our God ;
He whose word can ne'er be broken
Chose thee for his own abode.

Still is precious in thy sight,
Judah's temple far excelling,
Beaming with the gospel's light.
- 3 On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake her sure repose ?
With salvation's wall surrounded,
She can smile at all her foes.
- 4 See, the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply her sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove.

See the cloud and fire appear,
For a glory and a covering,
Showing that the Lord is near.

Awake, for thy foes shall oppress thee no more :
Bright o'er thy hills dawns the daystar of gladness ;
Arise, for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.

And scattered their legions, was mightier far ;
They fled like the chaff from the scourge that pursued
them ;
Vain were their steeds and their chariots of war.

The heathen's rage and scoff ;
Thy providence its fenced wall, —
“ The Lamb the light thereof.”
- 3 Thy Christ hath reached his heavenly seat
Through sorrows and through scars ;
The golden lamps are at his feet,
And in his hand the stars.

In humble posture stand,
On every head a starry crown,

 And triumphed in his name.

 In ceaseless songs of praise,
 And to Jehovah, holy One,
 Loud hallelujahs raise.

Dedication of Children to God and Christ.

- 1 SEE Israel's gentle Shepherd stand,
 With all-engaging charms ;
 Hark ! how he calls the tender lambs,
 And folds them in his arms !
- 2 " Permit them to approach," he cries,
 " Nor scorn their humble name ;
 For 't was to bless such souls as these
 The Lord of angels came."
- 3 We bring them, Lord, in thankful hands,
 And yield them up to thee ;
 Joyful that we ourselves are thine,
 Thine let our offspring be.
- 4 Ye little flock, with pleasure hear ;
 Ye children, seek his face,
 And fly with transport to receive
 The blessings of his grace.
- 5 If orphans they are left behind,
 God's guardian care we trust ;
 That care shall heal our bleeding hearts,
 If weeping o'er their dust.

 With the shepherd's kindest care,
 All the feeble gently leading,
 While the lambs thy bosom share, —
- 2 Now, these little ones receiving,
 Fold them in thy gracious arm ;
 There, we know, — thy word believing,
 Only there secure from harm.
- 3 Never, from thy pasture roving,
 Let them be the lion's prey ;
 Let thy tenderness, so loving,
 Keep them all life's dangerous way.
- 4 Then within thy fold eternal
 Let them find a resting-place,
 Feed in pastures ever vernal,
 Drink the rivers of thy grace.

 From age to age endure ;
 The angel of the covenant proves

1 ACCORDING to thy gracious word,
In meek humility,
This will I do, my dying Lord, —

2 Thy body, broken for my sake,
My bread from heaven shall be ;
Thy testamental cup I take,
And thus remember thee.

3 Gethsemane can I forget ?
Or there thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat,
And not remember thee ?

4 When to the cross I turn mine eyes,
And rest on Calvary,
O Lamb of God, my sacrifice,

5 Remember thee, and all thy pains,
And all thy love to me ;
Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember thee.

O, for an angel's tongue,
To speak the mighty love of Him

How through a thousand sorrows burned
That flame unquenchable.

Beyond expression dear :
Come, gather round this table, then,
And celebrate it here.
- 4 These symbols of his death,
O, with what power they speak !
Prophetic lips and angels' lyres,

With our forgetful souls ?
Forbid it, God, while through our veins

- 1 FROM the table now retiring,
 Which for us the Lord hath spread,
 May our souls, refreshment finding,
 Grow in all things like our Head !

 May our lives his image bear !
 Him our Lord and Master calling,
 His commands may we revere !

 Walking steadfast in his way,
 Joy attend us in believing,
 Peace from God through endless day !

Remembrance and Love of Christ.

- 1 OUR Father ! we approach thy board,
 As children that would be forgiven ;
 Remembering him, thy Son, who poured
 His blood, to seal our hope of heaven.

 That he who hung on Calvary's hill,
 And gave thee back his spirit there,
 May live in our affections still.

The Love of our Saviour prompting to Christian Love.

- 1 JESUS, the Friend of man,
Invites us to his board ;
The welcome summons we obey,
And own our gracious Lord.
- 2 Here we show forth his love,
Which spake in every breath,
Prompted each action of his life,
And triumphed in his death.
- 3 Here let our powers unite
His honored name to raise ;
Let grateful joy fill every mind,
And every voice be praise.
- 4 One faith, one hope, one Lord,
One God alone we know ;
Brethren we are ; let every heart
With kind affections grow.
- 5 Warmed with our Master's love,
And thy unmeasured grace,
Lord ! let our thankful hearts expand,
And all mankind embrace.

Communion Hymn.

- 1 NOT with terror do we meet
At the board by Jesus spread ;
Not in mystery drink and eat
Of the Saviour's wine and bread.
- 2 'T is his memory we record,
'T is his virtues we proclaim ;
Grateful to our honored Lord,
Here we bless his sacred name.
- 3 See him, on the dreadful day
Of his mortal agony,

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

Break the bread, and hear him say,
“ Eat of this, and think of me ! ”

- 4 See him standing on the brink
Of the tomb, and hark, he cries,
“ Take the cup, and, as you drink,
O, remember him who dies ! ”
- 5 Yes, we will remember thee,
Friend and Saviour ; and thy feast
Of all services shall be
Holist and welcomest.

Communion Hymn.

- 1 O GOD, accept the sacred hour
Which we to thee have given,
And let this hallowed scene have power
To raise our souls to heaven.
- 2 Still let us hold, till life departs,
The precepts of thy Son,
Nor let our thoughtless, thankless hearts
Forget what he has done.
- 3 His true disciples may we live,
From all corruption free,
And humbly learn like him to give
Our powers, our wills, to thee.
- 4 And oft along life's dangerous way,
To smooth our passage through,
Wilt thou on this thy holy day
For us this scene renew.

- 1 'T WAS on that dark, that awful night,
 When powers of earth and hell arose
 Against the Son of God's delight,
 And friends betrayed him to his foes, —
- 2 Before the mournful scene began,
 He took the bread, and blest, and brake,
 What love through all his actions ran!
 What wondrous words of grace he spake!
- 3 "This is my body, broke for sin;
 Receive and eat the living food";
 Then took the cup and blest, and said,
 "'T is the new covenant in my blood."
- 4 "Do this," he cried, "till time shall end,
 In memory of your dying Friend;
 Meet at my table, and record
 The love of your departed Lord."
- 5 Jesus, thy feast we celebrate;
 We show thy death, we sing thy name,
 Till thou return, and we shall eat
 The marriage-supper of the Lamb.

Communion with God and Christ.

- 1 OUR Heavenly Father calls,
 And Christ invites us near;
 With both our friendship shall be sweet,
 And our communion dear.

1 AS in solemn congregation
We attend upon thy house
For the sweet commemoration
And renewal of our vows ;
Let thy favor, with us resting,
Consecrate the bread and wine ,
May we, of thy goodness tasting,
All be filled with love divine !

- 2 Jesus gave the sacred token
 Of his passion, wine and bread,
 Symbols of his body broken,
 And his blood for sinners shed.
 To the rite we come, confessing
 Free redemption, grace unbought ;
 His be every name of blessing,
 For his love, surpassing thought !
- 3 May thy counsels, King of glory !
 Grateful awe and rapture move,
 As we meditate the story
 Of the Saviour's dying love ;
 Hear us, Lord, of thee entreating
 Strength to walk in Jesus' ways !
 God of light, shine on our meeting !
 God of grace, accept our praise !

Christ blessing the Bread.

- 1 BEHOLD, amid his little flock,
The Saviour stands serene,
Unawed by suffering yet to be,
Unchanged by what hath been.
- 2 Still beams the light of love undimmed
In that benignant eye,
Nor, save his own prophetic word,
Aught speaks him soon to die.
- 3 He pours within the votive cup
The rich blood of the vine,
And "Drink ye all the hallowed draught,"
He cries ; "this blood is mine."
- 4 He breaks the bread ; then clasps his hands,
And lifts his eyes in prayer,
"Receive ye this and view by faith
My body symbolled there.
- 5 "And oft your willing vows renew
Around the sacred board,
And break the bread and pour the wine
In memory of your Lord.
- 6 "To drink with me the grape's fresh blood
To you shall yet be given,
Fresh from the deathless Vine that blooms
In blest abodes of heaven."

With vital ardor glows,
And shines in all the fairest charms
That beauty can disclose, —

Are yet by vice enslaved,
Be thy Creator's glorious name

The sunshine of thy days,
And cares and toils, in endless round,
Encompass all thy ways ; —
- 4 Ere yet thy heart the woes of age,
With vain regret, deplore,
And sadly muse on former joys,
That now return no more.

Importance of the Bible to the Young.

 And guard their lives, from sin ?
 Thy word the choicest rules imparts
 To keep the conscience clean.
- 2 'T is, like the sun, a heavenly light,
 That guides us all the day,
 And, through the dangers of the night,
 A lamp to lead our way.

 We hate the sinner's road :
 We hate our own vain thoughts that rise,
 But love thy law, O God !

 How pure is every page !
 That holy book shall guide our youth,
 And well support our age.

"Remember thy Creator in the Days of thy Youth."

- 1 IN the soft season of thy youth,
 In nature's smiling bloom,
 Ere age arrive, and, trembling, wait
 Its summons to the tomb, —
- 2 Remember thy Creator, God ;
 For him thy powers employ ;
 Make him thy fear, thy love, thy hope,
 Thy confidence, thy joy.
- 3 He shall defend and guide thy course
 Through life's uncertain sea,

Till thou art landed on the shore
Of blest eternity.

- 4 Then seek the Lord betimes, and choose
The path of heavenly truth ;
The earth affords no lovelier sight

While youth's fair spring is bright,
Before thy cares are greater,
Before comes age's night ;
While yet the sun shines o'er thee,
While stars the darkness cheer,
While life is all before thee,
Thy great Creator fear.

- 2 "Remember thy Creator"
Ere life resigns its trust,
Ere sinks dissolving nature,
And dust returns to dust ;
Before with God, who gave it,
The spirit shall appear :
He cries, who died to save it,
"Thy great Creator fear."

"Remember thy Creator, while the evil Days come not."

- 1 TRULY the light of morn is sweet,
And sweet it is to see the sun ;
But, cheerful though the hours may fleet,
And years pass gaily, one by one,
O, blot not, reckless, from thy mind
The thought of darker days behind.
- 2 Rejoice, O child of mortal birth,
In all the pride of youth rejoice ;

And let the beauteous things of earth
 Allure thine eye, invite thy choice ;
 Yet know, for blessings freely given,
 Thine is a large account with Heaven.

- 3 And, O, remember, ere the day,
 The evil day, of grief shall come,
 When all the joy is passed away,
 And naught is left but gathering gloom, —
 Remember, ere thy pleasures pall,
 Him first, and last, who gave them all.

 In this house of God again ;
 Constant friends have led us hither,
 Here to chant the solemn strain ;
 Here to breathe our adoration,
 Here the Saviour's praise to sing ;
 May the Spirit of salvation
 Come with healing in his wing.
- 2 We have met, and time is flying ;
 We shall part, and still his wing,
 Sweeping o'er the dead and dying,
 Will the changeful seasons bring :
 Let us, while our hearts are lightest,
 In our fresh and early years,
 Turn to Him whose smile is brightest,
 And whose grace will calm our fears.
- 3 He will aid us, should existence
 With its sorrows sting the breast ;
 Gleaming in the onward distance,
 Faith will mark the land of rest :
 There, 'midst day-beams round him playing,
 We our Father's face shall see,
 And shall hear him gently saying,
 “ Little children, come to me.”

Songs of Children in Heaven.

- 1 THERE is a glorious world of light
 Above the starry sky,
 Where saints departed, clothed in white,
 Adore the Lord most high.
- 2 And hark ! — amid the sacred songs
 Those heavenly voices raise,
 Ten thousand thousand infant tongues
 Unite in perfect praise.

- 3 Those are the hymns that we shall know
 If Jesus we obey ;
 That is the place where we shall go,
 If found in wisdom's way.
- 4 This is the joy we ought to seek,
 And make our chief concern ;
 For this we come, from week to week,
 To read, and hear, and learn.
- 5 Soon will our earthly race be run,
 Our mortal frame decay ;
 Children and teachers, one by one,
 Must pass from earth away.

 That both the teachers and the taught
 May enter to thy rest.

And storms obey his will.
- 4 How oft when pressed by mighty foes
Did no escape appear :
Trust in the Lord thou didst repose,
And come off conqueror.
- 5 And will he now his help deny,
And leave thee to thy lot ?
Trust in the Lord ; he still is nigh,
His nature changes not.
- 6 Yes, O my soul, I yet will say,
'Midst anguish and distress,
Trust in the Lord ! e'en though he slay,
My cause with him shall rest.

The Spring.

- 1 SWEET is the time of spring,
When nature's charms appear ;
The birds with ceaseless pleasure sing,
And hail the opening year :
But sweeter far the spring
Of wisdom and of grace,
When children bless and praise their King,
Who loves the youthful race.
- 2 Sweet is the dawn of day,
When light just streaks the sky ;

- When shades and darkness pass away,
 And morning's beams are nigh :
 But sweeter far the dawn
 Of piety in youth ;
 When doubt and darkness are withdrawn,
 Before the light of truth.
- 3 Sweet is the early dew,
 Which gilds the mountain tops,
 And decks each plant and flower we view
 With pearly, glittering drops :
 But sweeter far the scene
 On Zion's holy hill,
 When there the dew of youth is seen
 Its freshness to distil.

Summer.

- 1 'T IS summer, glorious summer ; —
 Behold the glad, green earth,
 How from her grateful bosom
 The herb and flower spring forth ; —
 These are her rich thanksgivings,
 The incense floats above !
 Father ! what may we offer ?
 Thy chosen flower is love !
- 2 'T is summer, blesséd summer ; —
 The lofty hills are bright ;
 All nature's fountains sparkle, —
 Shall ours have lesser light ?
 No ; bid each spirit praise Him
 Who hangs on every tree
 A thousand living lyres,
 Awak'ning harmony !
- 3 'T is summer in our bosoms,
 When youthful snares we fly,

And strength and peace are given
 By angel ministry ; —
 'T is summer in yon heaven,
 Where, teachers, ye shall know,
 While time shall last, the blessedness
 Wrought by your love below.

Autumn Warnings.

- 1 SEE the leaves around us falling,
 Dry and withered, to the ground ;
 Thus to thoughtless mortals calling,
 In a sad and solemn sound : —
- 2 “ Youth, on length of days presuming,
 Who the paths of pleasure tread, —
 View us, late in beauty blooming,
 Numbered now among the dead.
- 3 “ What though yet no losses grieve you,
 Gay with health and many a grace ;
 Let not cloudless skies deceive you :
 Summer gives to autumn place.
- 4 “ Yearly in our course returning,
 Messengers of shortest stay,
 O, receive our kindly warning, —
 Heaven and earth shall pass away.”
- 5 On the tree of life eternal,
 Let our highest hopes be stayed :
 This alone, for ever vernal,
 Bears a leaf that shall not fade.

Thunder-storm.

- 1 THE thunder bursts ! its rolling might
 Seems the firm hills to shake ;
 And in terrific splendor bright,
 The gathered lightnings break.

- 2 Yet doth not God behold thee still,
 With all-surveying eye ?
 Doth not his power all nature fill,
 Around, beneath, on high ?
- 3 Then fear not, though the angry sky
 A thousand darts should cast ;
 Why should we tremble e'en to die,
 And be with him at last ?

The Lord's Prayer.

- 1 OUR Father in heaven,
 We hallow thy name !
 May thy kingdom holy
 On earth be the same !
 O, give to us daily
 Our portion of bread ;
 It is from thy bounty
 That all must be fed.
- 2 Forgive our transgressions,
 And teach us to know
 That humble compassion
 Which pardons each foe :
 Keep us from temptation,
 From weakness and sin,
 And thine be the glory
 For ever. — Amen.

 And, O, accept my prayer ;
 Thou canst hear all the words I say,
 For thou art everywhere.
- 2 A little sparrow cannot fall
 Unnoticed, Lord, by thee ;

And though I am so young and small,
Thou dost take care of me.

And make it still my chief delight
To serve thee while I live.

Sunday Morning. For a Child.

- 1 CALLED by the Sabbath bells away
Unto thy holy temple, Lord,
I 'll go, with willing mind, to pray,
To praise thy name, and hear thy word.
- 2 O sacred day of peace and joy,
Thy hours are ever dear to me ;
Ne'er may a sinful thought destroy
The holy calm I find in thee.

For God has given them in his love,
To tell how calm, how blest, shall be
The endless day of heaven above.

For ever burning there,
What I so thirst for, grant,
O Thou who hearest prayer!

A likeness to thy Son;
This would I rather have
Than call the world my own.
- 3 Like him, now in my youth,

Brotherly Love.

- 1 FATHER in heaven ! we thank the care
That planned our lot on earth,
Made us each other's love to share,
By ties of kindred birth.
- 2 Brothers and sisters hand in hand
Together taught to go ;
Our pleasures one, a happy band, —
Or one in scenes of woe.
- 3 Since God such ties has round us thrown,
To make us happy here, —
O, let no want of love be shown,
To cause a single tear.
- 4 Thus happy live, thus happy die,
In union sweet below,
That when to other worlds we fly,
To higher joys may go.

So small a drop as I
Can ne'er refresh these thirsty fields,
I 'll tarry in the sky ?
- 2 What if a shining beam of noon
Should in its fountain stay,
Because its feeble light alone
Cannot create a day ?
- 3 Doth not each rain-drop help to form
The cool, refreshing shower,
And every ray of light to warm
And beautify the flower ?
- 4 Go thou, and strive to do thy share ; —
One talent, — less than thine, —

Improved with steady zeal and care,

Of the hand that fashioned her ;
So must we, by love and duty,
All our gifts to thee refer.

Throw their doors for us apart,
Trained to be both true and gentle,
Wise in mind and pure in heart.

- 1 PRAISE the Lord, when blushing morning
 Wakes the blossoms fresh with dew,
Praise him when revived creation
 Beams with beauties fair and new.
- 2 Praise the Lord, when early breezes
 Come so fragrant from the flowers,
Praise, thou willow, by the brook-side,
 Praise, ye birds, among the bowers.
- 3 Praise the Lord, and may his blessing
 Guide us in the way of truth,
Keep our feet from paths of error,
 Make us holy in our youth.

All things utter forth his glory,
 Sound aloud Jehovah's praise.

- Thine altar is the contrite heart,
 Thine incense the repentant sigh.

“ Is it such a Fast that I have chosen ? ”

- 1 “ IS this a fast for me ? ” —
 Thus saith the Lord our God ; —
 “ A day for man to vex his soul,
 And feel affliction’s rod ? —
- 2 “ Like bulrush low to bow
 His sorrow-stricken head,
 With sackcloth for his inner vest,
 And ashes round him spread ?
- 3 “ Shall day like this have power
 To stay th’ avenging hand,
 Efface transgression, or avert
 My judgments from the land ?
- 4 “ No ; is not this alone
 The sacred fast I choose, —
 Oppression’s yoke to burst in twain,
 The bands of guilt unloose ? —
- 5 “ To nakedness and want
 Your food and raiment deal,
 To dwell your kindred race among,
 And all their sufferings heal ?
- 6 “ Then, like the morning ray,
 Shall spring your health and light ;
 Before you, righteousness shall shine,
 Behind, my glory bright ! ”

 Or outward form of prayer,
 But let it in thy heart be known

And stay the lifted rod.

4 O righteous Judge, if thou wilt deign

We pray for time to turn again,
And grace to turn indeed.

God our Deliverer.

- 1 O LORD, our fathers oft have told,
 In our attentive ears,
 Thy wonders in their days performed,
 And in more ancient years.
- 2 'T was not their courage, nor their sword,
 To them salvation gave ;
 'T was not their number, nor their strength,
 That did their country save.
- 3 But thy right hand, — thy powerful arm, —
 Whose succour they implored ;
 Thy providence protected them,
 Who thy great name adored.
- 4 As thee their God our fathers owned,
 So thou art still our King ;
 O, therefore, as thou didst to them,
 To us deliverance bring.

Praises to the King of kings ;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

Thanks for an abundant Harvest.

- 1 FOUNTAIN of mercy, God of love !
How rich thy bounties are !
The rolling seasons, as they move,
Proclaim thy constant care.
- 2 When in the bosom of the earth
The sower hid the grain,
Thy goodness marked its secret birth,
And sent the early rain.
- 3 The spring's sweet influence, Lord, was thine :
The plants in beauty grew :
Thou gav'st refulgent suns to shine,
And mild, refreshing dew.
- 4 These various mercies from above
Matured the swelling grain ;

- A kindly harvest crowns thy love,
 And plenty fills the plain.
- 5 We own and bless thy gracious sway;
 Thy hand all nature hails ;
 Seed-time nor harvest, night nor day,
 Summer nor winter, fails.

The Joy in Harvest.

- 1 GREAT God, as seasons disappear,
 And changes mark the rolling year,
 Thy favor still doth crown our days,
 And we would celebrate thy praise.
- 2 The harvest song we would repeat :
 " Thou givest us the finest wheat " :
 " The joy of harvest " we have known :
 The praise, O Lord, is all thine own.
- 3 Our tables spread, our garner's stored,
 O, give us hearts to bless thee, Lord ;
 Forbid it, Source of light and love,
 That hearts and lives should barren prove.
- 4 Another harvest comes apace :
 Mature our spirits by thy grace,
 That we may calmly meet the blow
 The sickle gives to lay us low ; —
- 5 That so, when angel reapers come
 To gather sheaves to thy blest home,
 Our spirits may be borne on high
 To thy safe garner in the sky.

- 1 THE God of harvest praise ;
 In loud thanksgiving raise
 Hand, heart, and voice ;

 Forests and mountains ring,
 The plains their tribute bring,
 The streams rejoice.

- 2 Yea, bless his holy name,
 And purest thanks proclaim
 Through all the earth ;
 To glory in your lot
 Is duty, — but be not
 God's benefits forgot,
 Amidst your mirth.
- 3 The God of harvest praise ;
 Hands, hearts, and voices raise,
 With sweet accord ;
 From field to garner throng,
 Bearing your sheaves along,
 And in your harvest song
 Bless ye the Lord.

New Year's Day.

- 1 WHILE, with ceaseless course, the sun
 Hasted through the former year,
 Many souls their race have run,
 Never more to meet us here ;
 Fixed in an eternal state,
 They have done with all below ;
 We a little longer wait,
 But how little none can know.
- 2 As the wingéd arrow flies,
 Speedily the mark to find ;
 As the lightning from the skies
 Darts and leaves no trace behind ;—
 Swiftly thus our fleeting days
 Bear us down life's rapid stream :
 Upward, Lord, our spirits raise ;
 All below is but a dream.
- 3 Thanks for mercies past receive ;
 Pardon of our sins renew ;
 Teach us, henceforth, how to live,
 With eternity in view ;
 Bless thy word to old and young ;
 Fill us with a Saviour's love ;
 When our life's short race is run,
 May we dwell with thee above.

A Song for the opening Year.

- 1 GREAT God, we sing that mighty hand
By which supported still we stand ;
The opening year thy mercy shows ;
Let mercy crown it till its close.
- 2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still we are guarded by our God ;
By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.
- 3 With grateful hearts the past we own ;
'The future — all to us unknown —
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.
- 4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Be thou our joy, and thou our rest ;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.
- 5 When death shall close our earthly songs,
And seal in silence mortal tongues,
Our Helper, God, in whom we trust,
In brighter worlds our souls shall boast.

New Year. Providential Goodness.

- 1 GOD of our lives, thy various praise
Our voices shall resound :
Thy hand directs our fleeting days,
And brings the seasons round.
- 2 To thee shall grateful songs arise,
Our Father and our Friend,
Whose constant mercies from the skies
In genial streams descend.
- 3 In every scene of life, thy care,
In every age, we see ;
And constant as thy favors are,
So let our praises be.
- 4 Still may thy love, in every scene,
In every age, appear ;
And let the same compassion deign
To bless the opening year.
- 5 If mercy smile, let mercy bring
Our wandering souls to God :
In our affliction we shall sing
If thou wilt bless the rod.

The New Year.

- 1 COME, let us anew
Our journey pursue, —
Roll round with the year,
And never stand still till the Master appear ;

His adorable will
 Let us gladly fulfil,
 And our talents improve
 By the patience of hope, and the labor of love

2 Our life is a dream ;
 Our time, as a stream,
 Glides swiftly away,
 And the fugitive moment refuses to stay ;
 The arrow is flown ;
 The moment is gone ;
 The millennial year
 Rushes on to our view, and eternity 's near.

3 O, that each, in the day
 Of his coming, may say,
 " I have fought my way through ;
 I have finished the work thou didst give me to do " ;
 O, that each from his Lord
 May receive the glad word,
 " Well and faithfully done ;
 Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne. "

Close of the Year.

- 1 AWAKE, ye saints, and raise your eyes,
 And lift your voices high ;
 Awake, and praise that sovereign love
 That shows salvation nigh.
- 2 On all the wings of time it flies ;
 Each moment brings it near :
 Then welcome each declining day ;
 Welcome each closing year.
- 3 Not many years their rounds shall run,
 Nor many mornings rise,
 Ere all its glories stand revealed
 To our admiring eyes.

OPENING AND CLOSING OF THE YEAR.

- 4 Ye wheels of nature, speed your course ;
Ye mortal powers, decay ;
Fast as ye bring the night of death,
Ye bring eternal day.

Reflections at the End of the Year.

- 1 AND now, my soul, another year
Of thy short life is past ;
I cannot long continue here,
And this may be my last.
- 2 Much of my hasty life is gone,
Nor will return again ;
And swift my passing moments run, —
The few that yet remain.
- 3 Awake, my soul ; with utmost care
Thy true condition learn :
What are thy hopes ? how sure ? how fair ?
What is thy great concern ?
- 4 Behold another year begins ;
Set out afresh for heaven ;
Seek pardon for thy former sins,
In Christ so freely given.
- 5 Devoutly yield thyself to God,
And on his grace depend ;
With zeal pursue the heavenly road,
Nor doubt a happy end.

Close of the Year.

- 1 OUR Helper, God, we bless his name,
Whose love for ever is the same ;
The tokens of whose gracious care
Begin, and crown, and close the year.
- 2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand,
Supported by his guardian hand ;

And see, when we review our ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far his arm hath led us on ;
Thus far we make his mercy known ;
And while we tread this desert land,
New mercies shall new songs demand.

4 Our grateful souls on Jordan's shore
Shall raise one sacred pillar more,
Then bear, in his bright courts above,
Inscriptions of immortal love.

Close of the Year.

1 REMARK, my soul, the narrow bound
Of each revolving year ;
How swift the weeks complete their round !
How short the months appear !

2 So fast eternity comes on,
And that important day
When all that mortal life hath done
God's judgment shall survey.

3 Yet like an idle tale we pass
The swift-revolving year,
And study artful ways t' increase
The speed of its career.

4 Awake, O God, my careless heart
Its great concerns to see,
That I may act the Christian part,
And give the year to thee.

5 So shall their course more grateful roll,
If future years arise ;
Or this shall bear my waiting soul
To joy beyond the skies.

The changing Year.

- 1 GOD of the changing year, whose arm of power
In safety leads through danger's darkest hour,
Here in thy temple bow thy creatures down,
To bless thy mercy, and thy might to own.
- 2 Thine are the beams that cheer us on our way.
And pour around the gladdening light of day ;
Thine is the night, and the fair orbs that shine
To cheer its hours of darkness, — all are thine.
- 3 If round our path the thorns of sorrow grew,
And mortal friends were faithless, thou wert true,
Did sickness shake the frame, or anguish tear
The wounded spirit, thou wert present there.
- 4 Yet when our hearts review departed days,
How vast thy mercies ! how remiss our praise !
Well may we dread thine awful eye to meet,
Bend at thy throne, and worship at thy feet.
- 5 O, lend thine ear, and lift our voice to thee ;
Where'er we dwell, still let thy mercy be ;
From year to year, still nearer to thy shrine
Draw our frail hearts, and make them wholly thine.

Uncertainty of Life. New Year.

- 1 SEE ! another year is gone !
Quickly have the seasons past !
This we enter now upon
Will to many prove their last.
Mercy hitherto has spared,
But have mercies been improved ?
Let us ask, Am I prepared
Should I be this year removed ?
- 2 Some we now no longer see,
Who their mortal race have run,

OPENING AND CLOSING OF THE YEAR.

- Seemed as fair for life as we,
When the former year begun.
Some — but who God only knows —
That are here assembled now,
Ere the present year shall close,
To the stroke of death must bow
- 3 If from guilt and sin set free
By the knowledge of thy grace,
Welcome, then, the call will be
To depart and see thy face.
To thy saints while here below,
With new years new mercies come
But the happiest year they know
Is the last, that leads them home.

Purposes on Beginning a New Year.

- 1 MY few revolving years,
How swift they glide away !
How short the term of life appears
When past, — but as a day !
- 2 A dark and cloudy day,
Clouded by grief and sin ;
A host of enemies without,
Distressing fears within.
- 3 Lord, through another year
If thou permit my stay,
With diligence may I pursue
The true and living way !

The Flight of Time.

- 1 GOD of eternity, from thee
Did infant Time his being draw ;
Moments, and days, and months, and years
Revolve by thine unvaried law.

- 2 Silent and swift they glide away ;
Steady and strong the current flows,
Lost in eternity's wide sea, —
The boundless gulf from whence it rose.
- 3 With it the thoughtless sons of men
Upon the rapid stream are borne
Swift on to their eternal home,
Whence not one soul can e'er return.
- 4 Yet, while the shore, on either side,
Presents a gaudy, flattering show,
We gaze, in fond amazement lost,
Nor think to what a world we go.
- 5 Great Source of wisdom, teach my heart
To know the price of every hour,
That time may bear me on to joys
Beyond its measure and its power.

For New Year's Day.

- 1 HOUSE of our God, with cheerful anthems ring,
While all our lips and hearts his graces sing ;
The opening year his bounties shall proclaim,
And all its days be vocal with his name.
The Lord is good, his mercy never-ending,
His blessings in perpetual showers descending.
- 2 Thou earth, enlightened by his rays divine,
Pregnant with grass, and corn, and oil, and wine ;
Crowned with his goodness, let the nations meet,
And lay their crowns at his paternal feet ;
With grateful love that liberal hand confessing,
Which through each heart diffuseth every blessing.
- 3 His mercy never ends ; the dawn, the shade,
Still see new beauties through new scenes displayed ;
Succeeding ages bless this sure abode,
And children lean upon their father's God.

The soul of man, through its immense duration,
Drinks from this source immortal consolation.

4 Burst into praise, my soul ! all nature join ;
Angels and men in harmony combine ;
While human years are measured by the sun,
And while eternity its course shall run,
His goodness, in perpetual showers descending,
Exalt in songs and raptures never-ending.

The Providence of God in the Seasons.

- 1 THE rolling year, Almighty Lord !
Obeys thy powerful nod ;
Each season, as it silent moves,
Declares the present God.
- 2 Waked by thy voice, blooms forth the spring,
In living verdure dressed ;
On hills, in vales, through fields and groves,
Thy beauties stand confessed.
- 3 The sun calls forth the summer months,
Nor do the hours delay ;
The fruits with varied colors glow
Beneath his ripening ray.
- 4 Thy bounty, Lord ! in autumn shines,
And spreads a general feast ;
In which thy creatures all partake,
The greatest and the least.
- 5 When winter rears her hoary head,
And shows her furrowed brow,
In storms and tempests, frosts and snows,
How awful, Lord, art thou !

- 6 The rolling year, Almighty Lord !
 Obeys thy powerful nod ;
 Each season, as it silent moves,
 Declares the present God.

- 1 GREAT God ! at whose all-powerful call
 At first arose this beauteous frame,
 By thee the seasons change, and all

 While in each herb, and flower, and tree,
 Thy bright perfections shine confessed !
- 4 Indulgent God ! from every part,

Autumn.

- 1 THE leaves around me falling
 Are preaching of decay ;

The hollow winds are calling,
 "Come, pilgrim, come away" :
 The day, in night declining,
 Says I must, too, decline ;
 The year its bloom resigning,
 Its lot foreshadows mine.

2 The light my path surrounding,
 The loves to which I cling,
 The hopes within me bounding,
 The joys that round me wing, —
 All, all, like stars at even,
 Just gleam and shoot away,
 Pass on before to heaven,
 And chide at my delay.

3 The friends gone there before me
 Are calling from on high,
 And happy angels o'er me
 Tempt sweetly to the sky :
 "Why wait," they say, "and wither,
 'Mid scenes of death and sin ?
 O, rise to glory, hither,
 And find true life begin."

- 2 Forth in the flowery spring,
 We see thy beauty move ;
 The birds on branches sing
 Thy tenderness and love ;
 Wide flush the hills ; | Devotion's calm
 The air is balm ; | Our bosom fills.
- 3 Then come, in robes of light,
 The summer's flaming days ;
 The sun thine image bright,
 Thy majesty, displays ;
 And oft thy voice | But still our souls
 In thunder rolls ; | In thee rejoice.
- 4 In autumn, a rich feast
 Thy common bounty gives
 To man, and bird, and beast,
 And every thing that lives.
 Thy liberal care | And harvest moon,
 At morn and noon, | Our lips declare.
- 5 In winter, awful thou !
 With storms around thee cast ;
 The leafless forests bow
 Beneath thy northern blast.
 While tempests lower | We homage bring,
 To thee, dread King, | And own thy power.

- 2 O, guard our shores from every foe,
 With peace our borders bless,
 With prosperous times our cities crown,
 Our fields with plenteousness.
- 3 Unite us in the sacred love

 And let our hills and valleys shout
 The songs of liberty.
- 4 Here may religion pure and mild
 Smile on our Sabbath hours ;

And piety and virtue bless

 Are all thy works and words and ways,
 And unto thee alone are due
 Thanksgiving and eternal praise !
 As children of thy gracious care,
 We veil the eye, — we bend the knee, —
 With broken words of praise and prayer,
 Father and God, we come to thee.
- 2 For thou hast heard, O God of right,
 The sighing of the hapless slave ;
 And stretched for him the arm of might,
 Not shortened that it could not save.
 The laborer sits beneath his vine,
 The shackled soul and hand are free ; --
 Thanksgiving ! — for the work is thine !
 Praise ! — for the blessing is of thee.
- 3 Speed on thy work, Lord God of hosts !
 And when the bondsman's chain is riven,
 And swells from all our country's coasts
 The anthem of the free to heaven,
 O, not to those whom thou hast led,
 As with thy cloud and fire before,
 But unto thee, in fear and dread,
 Be praise and glory evermore.

Our Forefathers.

- 1 WHEN, driven by oppression's rod,
 Our fathers fled beyond the sea,
 Their care was first to honor God,
 And next to leave their children free.
- 2 Above the forest's gloomy shade
 The altar and the school appeared ;
 On that the gifts of faith were laid,
 In this their precious hopes were reared.
- 3 Armed with intelligence and zeal,
 Their sons shook off the tyrant's chain,
 The rights of freemen quick to feel,
 And nobly daring to maintain.
- 4 The altar and the school still stand,
 The sacred pillars of our trust,
 And freedom's sons shall fill the land
 When we are sleeping in the dust.
- 5 Before thine altar, Lord, we bend,
 With grateful song and fervent prayer,
 For thou who wast our fathers' friend
 Wilt make our offspring still thy care.

The God of our Fathers.

- 1 LIKE Israel's hosts to exile driven,
 Across the flood the pilgrims fled ;

Their hands bore up the ark of Heaven,
 And Heaven their trusting footsteps led,
 Till on these savage shores they trod,
 And won the wilderness for God.

2 Then, where their weary ark found rest,
 Another Zion proudly grew ;
 In more than Judah's glory dressed,
 With light that Israel never knew.
 From sea to sea her empire spread,
 Her temple Heaven, and Christ her head.

3 Then let the grateful Church to-day
 Its ancient rite with gladness keep ;
 And still our fathers' God display
 His kindness, though the fathers sleep.
 O, bless, as thou hast blessed the past,
 While earth, and time, and heaven shall last.

The Progress of Freedom.

1 OPPRESSION shall not always reign ;
 There comes a brighter day,
 When freedom, burst from every chain,
 Shall have triumphant way.
 Then right shall over might prevail,
 And truth, like hero armed in mail,
 The hosts of tyrant wrong assail,
 And hold eternal sway.

2 What voice shall bid the progress stay
 Of truth's victorious car ?
 What arm arrest the growing day,
 Or quench the solar star ?
 What reckless soul, though stout and strong,
 Shall dare bring back the ancient wrong,
 Oppression's guilty night prolong,
 And freedom's morning bar ?

- 3 The hour of triumph comes apace,
 The fated, promised hour,
 When earth upon a ransomed race
 Her bounteous gifts shall shower.
 Ring, Liberty, thy glorious bell !
 Bid high thy sacred banner swell !
 Let trump on trump the triumph tell
 Of Heaven's redeeming power.

For the Blessing of Schools.

- 1 O THOU, at whose dread name we bend,
 To whom our purest vows we pay,
 God over all, in love descend,
 And bless the labors of this day.
- 2 Our fathers here, a pilgrim band,
 Fixed the proud empire of the free ;
 Art moved in gladness o'er the land,
 And Faith her altars reared to thee.
- 3 Here, too, to guard, through every age,
 The sacred rights their valor won,
 They bade instruction spread her page,
 And send down truth from sire to son.
- 4 Here still, through all succeeding time,
 Their stores may truth and learning bring,
 And still the anthem-note sublime
 To thee from children's children sing.

Dedication of a House of Worship.

- 1 O, BOW thine ear, Eternal One !
 On thee our heart adoring calls ;
 To thee the followers of thy Son
 Have raised and now devote these walls.
- 2 Here let thy holy days be kept ;
 And be this place to worship given,
 Like that bright spot where Jacob slept,
 The house of God, the gate of heaven.
- 3 Here may thine honor dwell ; and here,
 As incense, let thy children's prayer,
 From contrite hearts and lips sincere,
 Rise on the still and holy air.
- 4 Here be thy praise devoutly sung ;
 Here let thy truth beam forth to save,
 As when, of old, thy spirit hung,
 On wings of light, o'er Jordan's wave.
- 5 And when the lips, that with thy name
 Are vocal now, to dust shall turn,
 On others may devotion's flame
 Be kindled here, and purely burn !

Dedication Hymn.

- 1 O THOU, whose own vast temple stands,
 Built over earth and sea,
 Accept the walls that human hands
 Have raised to worship thee.
- 2 Lord, from thine inmost glory send,
 Within these courts to bide,

The peace that dwelleth, without end,
Serenely by thy side.

- 3 May erring minds that worship here
Be taught the better way,
And they who mourn, and they who fear,
Be strengthened as they pray !
- 4 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm,
And pure devotion rise,
While round these hallowed walls the storm
Of earth-born passion dies !

WILLIS.

Dedication Hymn.

- 1 THE perfect world, by Adam trod,
Was the first temple, — built by God ;
His fiat laid the corner-stone,
And heaved its pillars, one by one.
- 2 He hung its starry roof on high, —
The broad, illimitable sky ;
He spread its pavement, green and bright,
And curtained it with morning light.
- 3 The mountains in their places stood, —
The sea, the sky, — and “ all was good ” ;
And, when its first pure praises rang,
The “ morning stars together sang.”
- 4 Lord ! 't is not ours to make the sea,
And earth, and sky a house for thee ;
But in thy sight our offering stands,
A humbler temple, “ made with hands.”

FRANCIS.

Prayer for God's Presence and Blessing.

- 1 GREAT King of glory, come,
And with thy favor crown
This temple as thy home,
This people as thine own :

Beneath this roof, O, deign to show
How God can dwell with men below.

2 Here may thine ears attend
Our interceding cries,
And grateful praise ascend,
Like incense to the skies :
Here may thy word melodious sound,
And spread celestial joys around.

3 Here may our unborn sons
And daughters sound thy praise,
And shine, like polished stones,
Through long-succeeding days :
Here, Lord, display thy saving power,
While temples stand and men adore.

4 Here may the listening throng
Imbibe thy truth and love ;
Here Christians join the song
Of seraphim above ;
Till all, who humbly seek thy face,
Rejoice in thy abounding grace.

MONTGOMERY

A blessing implored.

- 1 HERE, in thy name, Eternal God,
We build this earthly house for thee ;
O, choose it for thy fixed abode,
And guard it long from error free.
- 2 Here, when thy people seek thy face,
And dying sinners pray to live,
Hear thou, in heaven, thy dwelling-place,
And when thou hearest, Lord, forgive.
- 3 Here, when thy messengers proclaim
The blesséd gospel of thy Son,
Still by the power of his great name
Be mighty signs and wonders done.

- 4 When children's voices raise the song,
 Hosanna ! to their Heavenly King,
 Let heaven with earth the strain prolong ;
 Hosanna ! let the angels sing.
- 5 But will, indeed, Jehovah deign
 Here to abide, no transient guest ?
 Here will our great Redeemer reign,
 And here the Holy Spirit rest ?
- 6 Thy glory never hence depart ;
 Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone ;
 Thy kingdom come to every heart ;
 In every bosom fix thy throne.

The House of Prayer and Praise.

- 1 LORD of hosts, to thee we raise
 Here a house of prayer and praise ;
 'Thou thy people's hearts prepare
 Here to meet for praise and prayer.
- 2 Let the living here be fed
 With thy word, the heavenly bread ;
 Here, in hope of glory blest,
 May the dead be laid to rest ; —
- 3 Here to thee a temple stand,
 While the sea shall gird the land ;
 Here reveal thy mercy sure,
 While the sun and moon endure.
- 4 Hallelujah ! — earth and sky
 To the joyful sound reply ;
 Hallelujah ! — hence ascend
 Prayer and praise till time shall end.

A Pastor welcomed.

- 1 WE bid thee welcome in the name
 Of Jesus, our exalted Head ;

- Come as a servant ; so he came,
 And we receive thee in his stead.
- 2 Come as an angel, hence to guide
 A band of pilgrims on their way ;
 That, safely walking at thy side,
 We never fail, nor faint, nor stray.
- 3 Come as a teacher sent from God,
 Charged his whole council to declare ;
 Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
 While we uphold thy hands with prayer
- 4 Come as a messenger of peace,
 Filled with the Spirit, fired with love ;
 Live to behold our large increase,
 And die to meet us all above.

Prayer for a Minister's Success.

- 1 O HOLY Lord, our God!
 By heavenly hosts adored,
 Hear us, we pray ;
 To thee the cherubim,
 Angels, and seraphim
 Unceasing praises bring, —
 Their homage pay.
- 2 Here give thy word success,
 And this thy servant bless, —
 His labors own ;
 And while the sinner's Friend
 His life and words commend,
 Thy Holy Spirit send,
 And make him known.
- 3 May every passing year
 More happy still appear
 Than this glad day ;

With numbers fill the place,
 Adorn thy saints with grace ;
 Thy truth may all embrace,
 O Lord ! we pray.

- 4 O Lord, our God ! arise ;
 And now, before our eyes,
 Thy arm make bare ;
 Unite our hearts in love,
 Till, raised to heaven above,
 We all its goodness prove,
 And praise thee there.

Benefits of the Ministry.

- 1 BLEST is the hour when cares depart,
 And earthly scenes are far, —
 When tears of woe forget to start,
 And gently dawns upon the heart
 Devotion's holy star.
- 2 Blest is the place where angels bend
 To hear our worship rise,
 Where kindred thoughts their musings blend,
 And all the soul's affections tend
 Beyond the veiling skies.
- 3 Blest are the hallowed vows that bind
 Man to his work of love, —
 Bind him to cheer the humble mind,
 Console the weeping, lead the blind,
 And guide to joys above.
- 4 Sweet shall the song of glory swell,
 Spirit divine, to thee,
 When they whose work is finished well
 In thy own courts of rest shall dwell,
 Blest through eternity.

- 1 O THOU, who art above all height !
Our God, our Father, and our Friend !
Beneath thy throne of love and light,
Let thine adoring children bend.
- 2 We kneel in praise, that here is set
A vine that by thy culture grew ;
We kneel in prayer, that thou wouldst wet
Its opening leaves with heavenly dew.
- 3 Since thy young servant now hath given
Himself, his powers, his hopes, his youth
To the great cause of truth and heaven,
Be thou his guide, O God of truth !
- 4 Here may his doctrines drop like rain,
His speech like Hermon's dew distil,
Till green fields smile, and golden grain,
Ripe for the harvest, waits thy will.
- 5 And when he sinks in death, — by care,
Or pain, or toil, or years oppressed, —
O God ! remember then our prayer,
And take his spirit to thy rest.

May he teach as Christ hath taught,
Tread the path his Saviour trod.
- 3 To the vineyard may he come
Girded with celestial might ;

Skilled to draw thy children home,
 Taught to give the darkened light.

- 4 Unto thee a people bend, —
 Bind us heart to heart in love ;
 Flock and pastor, we would tend
 Ever toward our home above.

 Didst send thy spirit like a dove,
 To mark the long expected one,

 Went forth, his glorious truth to spread,
 Didst send it down in tongues of flame

 Give him the tongue of living fire,
 Give him the temper of the dove.

 'T is ours to labor, watch, and pray ;
 Be thine to cheer, sustain and bless.

 Bow at his throne, and feel his grace,

Who ask in prayer, and own in praise,
That bounteous love which gilds your days,
Catch from above the hallowed flame,

For all the grace we see ?
The goodness feeble man can yield
Extendeth not to thee.

We 'll cheerfully repair,
And, with the gifts thy hand bestows,
Relieve the sufferers there.

The Rewards of Beneficence.

- 1 BLEST is the man, whose heart is kind,
 And melts in pity to the poor ;
 Who, with a sympathizing mind,
 Feels what his fellow-men endure.
- 2 His heart contrives for their relief
 More good than his own hands can do ;
 He, in the time of general grief,
 Shall find the Lord hath pity too.
- 3 This man shall live secure on earth
 With secret blessings on his head,
 While sword, or pestilence, or dearth
 Around him multiply their dead.
- 4 Or if with mortal sufferings tried,
 Sufferings shall all his soul refine ;
 Sweet hope his refuge shall provide,
 And minister a bliss divine.

For a charitable Occasion.

- 1 O, HOW can they look up to heaven,
 And ask for mercy there,
 Who never soothed the poor man's pang,
 Nor dried the orphan's tear !
- 2 The dread Omnipotence of heaven
 We every hour provoke ;
 Yet still the mercy of our God
 Withholds th' avenging stroke.
- 3 And Christ was still the healing Friend
 Of poverty and pain,

And never did imploring wretch
His garment touch in vain.

4 May we with humble effort take
Example from above,
And thence the active lesson learn
Of charity and love.

5 But chiefly be the labor ours
To shade the early plant ;
To guard from ignorance and guilt
The infancy of want.

- 1 MIGHTY One, whose name is Holy,
Thou wilt save thy work alive ;
And the spirit of the lowly
Thou wilt visit and revive.
What thy prophets thus have spoken,
Ages witness as they roll ;
Bleeding hearts and spirits broken
'Touched by thee, O God, are whole
- 2 By thy pitying spirit guided,
Jesus sought the sufferer's door,
Comforts for the poor provided,
And the mourner's sorrows bore.
So, it was thy spirit beaming
In his face whose name we bear,
That sustained him, while redeeming
Power's pale victims from despair.
- 3 To the prisoner, wan and wasting
In the voiceless dungeon's night,
He thine own apostle hasting,
Led him forth, unbound, to light.
So thy mercy's angel, bending,
Heard a friendless prisoner call,

And, through night's cold vault descending,
Loosed from chains thy servant Paul.

- 4 Father, as thy love is endless,
Working by thy servants thus,
The forsaken and the friendless
Deign to visit, e'en by us.
So shall each, with spirit fervent
Laboring with thee here below,
Be declared thy faithful servant,
Where there 's neither want nor woe.

Missionary Hymn.

- 1 FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand, —
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand, —

- From many an ancient river,
 From many a palmy plain, —
 They call us to deliver
 Their land from error's chain.
- 2 What though the spicy breezes
 Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle ;
 Though every prospect pleases,
 And only man is vile ;
 In vain, with lavish kindness,
 The gifts of God are strown ;
 The heathen, in his blindness,
 Bows down to wood and stone.
- 3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
 By wisdom from on high,
 Shall we to men benighted
 The lamp of life deny ?
 Salvation ! O, salvation !
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till each remotest nation
 Has learnt Messiah's name.

SACRED SONGS.

Death of a Missionary.

- 1 WEEP not for the saint that ascends
To partake of the joys of the sky ;
Weep not for the seraph that bends
With the worshipping chorus on high ;
Weep not for the spirit now crowned
With the garland to martyrdom given ;
O, weep not for him ; he has found
His reward and his refuge in heaven.
- 2 But weep for their sorrows who stand
And lament o'er the dead by his grave ;

Who sigh when they muse on the land
 Of their home far away o'er the wave ;
 And weep for the nations that dwell
 Where the light of the truth never shone,
 Where anthems of peace never swell,
 And the love of the Lord is unknown.

- 1 RISE, crowned with light, imperial Salem rise ;
 Exalt thy towering head, and lift thine eyes ,
 See heaven its sparkling portals wide display,
 And break upon thee in a flood of day.
- 2 See a long race thy spacious courts adorn ;
 See future sons and daughters, yet unborn,
 In crowding ranks on every side arise,
 Demanding life, impatient for the skies.

- 3 See barbarous nations at thy gates attend,
Walk in thy light, and in thy temple bend ;
See thy bright altars thronged with prostrate kings,
While every land its joyous tribute brings.
- 4 The seas shall waste, the skies to smoke decay,
Rocks fall to dust, and mountains melt away ;

- 1 WHEN, Lord, to this our western land,
Led by thy providential hand,
Our wandering fathers came,
Their ancient homes, their friends in youth,
Sent forth the heralds of thy truth,
To keep them in thy name.
- 2 Then, through our solitary coast,
The desert features soon were lost ;
Thy temples there arose ;
Our shores, as culture made them fair,
Were hallowed by thy rites, by prayer,

 Still westward, like our fathers, roam,
 Still guided by thy hand.

Till God command, and tempests rise,
That heave the ocean to the skies.

- 3 When land is far and death is nigh,
Bereaved of hope, to God they cry :
His mercy hears their loud address,
And sends salvation in distress.
- 4 He bids the winds their wrath assuage,
And stormy tempests cease to rage ;
The grateful band their fears give o'er,
And hail with joy their native shore.
- 5 O, may the sons of men record
The wondrous goodness of the Lord ;
Let them their purest offerings bring,
And in the church his glory sing.

ADDISON.

The Christian Mariner safe.

- 1 HOW are thy servants blest, O Lord !
How sure is thy defence !
Eternal Wisdom is their guide,
Their help, Omnipotence.
- 2 In foreign realms, and lands remote,
Supported by thy care,
Through burning climes they pass unhurt,
And breathe in tainted air.
- 3 When by the dreadful tempest borne
High on the broken wave,
They know thou art not slow to hear,
Nor impotent to save.
- 4 The storm is laid ; the winds retire,
Obedient to thy will ;
The sea, that roars at thy command,
At thy command is still.
- 5 In midst of dangers, fears, and deaths,
Thy goodness we 'll adore ;

We 'll praise thee for thy mercies past,
And humbly hope for more.

Prayer at Sea.

- 1 PRAYER may be sweet in cottage homes,
Where sire and child devoutly kneel,
While through the open casement nigh
'The vernal blossoms fragrant steal.
- 2 Prayer may be sweet in stately halls,
Where heart with kindred heart is blent,
And upward to th' eternal throne
'The hymn of praise melodious sent.
- 3 But he who fain would know how warm
'The soul's appeal to God may be,
From friends and native land should turn,
A wanderer on the faithless sea ;—
- 4 Should hear its deep, imploring tone
Rise heavenward o'er the foaming surge,
When billows toss the fragile bark,
And fearful blasts the conflict urge.
- 5 Naught, naught appears but sea and sky ;
No refuge where the foot may flee :
How will he cast, O Rock divine,
'The anchor of his soul on thee !

MADAN'S COLL.

Thanksgiving for Deliverance in a Storm.

- 1 OUR little bark, on boisterous seas,
By cruel tempests tossed,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Expecting to be lost, —
- 2 We to the Lord, in humble prayer,
Breathed out our sad distress ;
'Though feeble, yet with contrite hearts,
We begged return of peace.

- 3 Then ceased the stormy winds to blow ;
 The surges ceased to roll ;
 And soon again a placid sea
 Spoke comfort to the soul.
- 4 O, may our grateful, trembling hearts
 Their hallelujahs sing
 To him who hath our lives preserved, —
 Our Father and our King.

The Mariner's Hymn.

- 1 GLORY to thee, whose powerful word
 Bids the tempestuous wind arise ;
 Glory to thee, the sovereign Lord
 Of air, and earth, and seas, and skies !
- 2 Let air, and earth, and skies obey,
 And seas thine awful will perform ;
 From them we learn to own thy sway,
 And shout to meet the gathering storm.
- 3 What though the floods lift up their voice,
 Thou hearest, Lord, our louder cry ;
 They cannot damp thy children's joys,
 Or shake the soul when God is nigh.
- 4 Roar on, ye waves ! our souls defy
 Your roaring to disturb our rest ;
 In vain t' impair the calm ye try,
 The calm in a believer's breast.

The Seaman's Hymn of Praise.

- 1 O GOD, thy name they well may praise,
 Who to the deep go down,
 And trace the wonders of thy ways,
 When rocks and billows frown.
- 2 If glorious be that awful deep,
 No human power can bind,

What then art thou, who bidst it keep
Within its bounds confined.

Eternal praise to thee,
Whose word can rouse the tempest's might,
Or still the raging sea.

The Sailor's Grave.

- 1 NOT in the church-yard shall he sleep,
Amid the silent gloom, —
His home was on the mighty deep,
And there shall be his tomb.
- 2 He loved his own bright, deep blue sea,
O'er it he loved to roam ;
And now his winding sheet shall be
That same bright ocean's foam.
- 3 No village bell shall toll for him
Its mournful, solemn dirge ;
The winds shall chant a requiem
To him beneath the surge.
- 4 For him, break not the grassy turf,
Nor turn the dewy sod ;
His dust shall rest beneath the surf,
His spirit with its God.

The Mariner's Hymn.

- 1 LORD of the Sea ! — thy potent sway
Old Ocean's wildest waves obey ;
The gale that whistles through the shrouds,
The storm that drives the frightened clouds, —
If but thy whisper order peace,
How soon their rude commotions cease !
- 2 Lord of the Sea ! — the silent hour,
And deep, dull calm, confess thy power ;

SEAMEN'S HYMNS.

The sun that pours his welcome light,
 The moon that makes the dark scene bright,
 The guiding star, the favoring wind,
 Display a good and sovereign mind.

- 3 Lord of the Sea ! — the seaman keep
 From all the dangers of the deep !
 When high the white-capped billows rise,
 When tempests roar along the skies,
 When foes or shoals awaken fear, —
 O, in thy mercy be thou near !
- 4 Lord of the Sea ! — when, safe from harm,
 The sailor rests in slumbers calm,
 May dreams of home his spirit cheer, —
 Dreams that shall never false appear ;
 May thoughts of friends, and peace, and thee,
 His solid consolation be !
- 5 Lord of the Sea ! — a sea is life
 Of care and sorrow, woe and strife !
 With watchful pains we steer along,
 To keep the right path, shun the wrong :
 God grant, that, after every roam,
 We gain an everlasting home !

Night at Sea.

- 1 WHEN restless on my bed I lie,
 Still courting sleep, which still will fly,
 Then shall reflection's brighter power
 Illume the lone and midnight hour.
- 2 If hushed the breeze, and calm the tide,
 Soft will the stream of memory glide ;
 And all the past, a gentle train,
 Waked by remembrance, live again.

 And darkness wraps the sullen sky,

SEAMEN'S HYMNS.

I muse on life's tempestuous sea,
And sigh, O Lord, to come to thee.

There 's Deity circling us round, —
Omnipotence walks o'er the deep !

A Home everywhere.

- 1 HEAVE, mighty ocean, heave,
And blow thou boisterous wind,
Onward we swiftly glide, and leave
Our home and friends behind.
- 2 Away, away, we steer,
Upon the ocean's breast ;
And dim the distant heights appear,
Like clouds along the west.

- 3 There is a loneliness
 Upon the mighty deep ;
 And hurried thoughts upon us press,
 As onwardly we sweep.
- 4 But there is hope and joy,
 Wherever we may be ;
 Danger nor death can e'er destroy
 Our trust, O God, in thee.
- 5 Then wherefore should we grieve,
 Or what have we to fear ?
 Though home and friends and life we leave,
 Our God is ever near.
- 6 Sweep, mighty ocean, sweep ;
 Ye winds, blow foul or fair ;
 Our God is with us on the deep,
 Our home is everywhere.

Meeting of Christian Friends.

- 1 KINDRED in Christ, for his dear sake,
 A hearty welcome here receive ;
 May we together now partake
 The joys which only he can give.
- 2 May he by whose kind care we meet,
 Send his good Spirit from above,
 Make our communications sweet,
 And cause our hearts to burn with love.
- 3 Forgotten be each worldly theme,
 When Christians meet together thus ;
 We only wish to speak of him
 Who lived, and died, and reigns, for us.

- 4 We 'll talk of all he did, and said,
 And suffered, for us here below,
 The path he marked for us to tread,
 And what he 's doing for us now.

The Joy of social Devotion.

- 1 O, IT is joy in one to meet
 Whom one communion blends,
 Council to hold in converse sweet,
 And talk as Christian friends.
- 2 'T is joy to think the angel train,
 Who 'mid heaven's temple shine,
 To seek our earthly temples deign,
 And in our anthems join.
- 3 But chief 't is joy to think that He,
 To whom his church is dear,
 Delights her gathered flock to see,
 Her joint devotions hear.

 While here such joys are given ?
 " This is indeed the house of God,
 And this the gate of heaven ! "

Call to social Worship.

- 1 LET us join, as God commands,
 Let us join our hearts and hands ;
 Help to gain our calling's hope ;
 Help to build each other up ;
 Carry on the Christian's strife ;
 Walk in holiness of life ;
 Faithfully our gifts improve
 For the sake of him we love ; —
- 2 Still forget the things behind ;
 Follow Christ in heart and mind ;

Toward the mark unwearied press,
 Seize the crown of righteousness.
 While we walk with God in light,
 God our hearts will still unite;
 Dearest fellowship we prove, —
 Fellowship in Jesus' love.

- 3 Hence may all our actions flow,
 Love the proof that Christ we know;
 Mutual love the token be,
 Lord, that we belong to thee;
 Love, thine image, love impart;
 Stamp it on our face and heart;
 Only love to us be given;
 Lord, we ask no other heaven.

Sweet be the accents of our tongues

In pain a while to part ;
'T is by his care we meet again,
And gladness fills our heart.

And blest the goodness of the Lord,
Which to this hour we share.
- 4 O, may thy spirit's quickening power
Now sanctify our joy,
And warm our zeal in works of love

Soon shall our wanderings cease ;
Then with our Father we shall dwell,

Hope of Meeting.

- 1 WHEN forced to part from those we love,
Though sure to meet to-morrow,
We still a painful anguish prove, —
We feel a pang of sorrow.
- 2 But who can e'er describe the tears
We shed when thus we sever,
If doomed to part for months, for years, —
To part perhaps for ever ?

- 3 Yet, if our aims are fixed aright,
 A sacred hope is given
 Though here our prospects end in night,
 We 'll meet again in heaven.
- 4 Then let us form those bonds above
 Which time can ne'er dissever,
 Since, parting in a Saviour's love,
 We part to meet for ever.

Reunion in Heaven.

- 1 WHEN shall we meet again? —
 Meet ne'er to sever?
 When will Peace wreath her chain
 Round us for ever?
 Our hearts will ne'er repose
 Safe from each blast that blows
 In this dark vale of woes, —
 Never, — no, never!
- 2 When shall love freely flow
 Pure as life's river?
 When shall sweet friendship glow
 Changeless for ever?
 Where joys celestial thrill,
 Where bliss each heart shall fill,
 And fears of parting chill
 Never, — no, never!
- 3 Up to that world of light
 Take us, dear Saviour;
 May we all there unite,
 Happy for ever:
 Where kindred spirits dwell,
 There may our music swell,
 And time our joys dispel
 Never, — no, never!

- 4 Soon shall we meet again,
 Meet ne'er to sever ;
 Soon shall Peace wreath her chain
 Round us for ever :
 Our hearts will then repose
 Secure from worldly woes ;
 Our songs of praise shall close
 Never, — no, never !

Whose hands are strong, whose hearts are clear,
Waste not of hope the morning light !
Ah, fools ! why stand ye idle here ? ”

That wait on life’s declining year,
Secure a blessing for your age,
And work your Master’s business here ! ”

Foretell your latest travail near,
How swiftly fades your worthless day !
And stand ye yet so idle here ? ”

Recall us to thy vineyard, Lord,
And grant us grace to please thee here !

 With joy and gladsome cheer,
 Till all before our God at length
 In Zion do appear.

Morning Prayer Meeting.

- 1 HOW sweet the melting lay,
Which breaks upon the ear,
When, at the hour of rising day,
Christians unite in prayer !
- 2 The breezes waft their cries
Up to Jehovah's throne ;
He listens to their humble sighs,
And sends his blessings down.

Once on the chilling mount did stay,
And wrestle all the night.

To rescue souls condemned to die,
And make his people one.

 And let that will be mine.
- 2 All-wise, almighty, and all-good,
 In thee I firmly trust ;
 Thy ways, unknown or understood,
 Are merciful and just.
- 3 May I remember that to thee
 Whate'er I have I owe ;
 And back, in gratitude, from me
 May all thy bounties flow.
- 4 Thy gifts are only then enjoyed,
 When used as talents lent ;
 Those talents only well employed
 When in thy service spent.

5 And though thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign thy will ?

No, let me bless thy name, and say,
“ The Lord is gracious still.”

6 A pilgrim through the earth I roam,
Of nothing long possessed,
And all must fail when I go home,
For this is not my rest.

“ With his stripes we are healed.”

1 A VOICE upon the midnight air,
Where Kedron’s moonlit waters stray,
Weeps forth in agony and prayer,
“ O Father, take this cup away ! ”

2 Ah ! thou who sorrow’st unto death,
We conquer in thy mortal fray ;
And earth for all her children saith,
“ O God, take not this cup away ! ”

3 O Lord of sorrow, meekly die ;
Thou ’lt heal or hallow all our woe ;
Thy name refresh the mourner’s sigh ;
Thy peace revive the faint and low.

4 Great Chief of faithful souls, arise ;
None else can lead the martyr band,
Who teach the brave how peril flies,
When faith, unarmed, uplifts the hand.

5 O King of earth, the cross ascend ;
O’er climes and ages, ’t is thy throne ;
Where’er thy fading eye may bend,
The desert blooms and is thine own.

6 Thy parting blessing, Lord, we pray ;
Make but one fold below, above ;
And when we go the last, lone way,
O, give the welcome of thy love !

T. MOORE.

Divine Consolations.

- 1 O THOU who driest the mourner's tear,
How dark this world would be,
If, when deceived and wounded here,
We could not fly to thee !
- 2 But thou wilt heal that broken heart,
Which like the plants that throw
Their fragrance from the wounded part,
Breathes sweetness out of woe.
- 3 When joy no longer soothes or cheers,
And e'en the hope that threw
A moment's sparkle o'er our tears
Is dimmed and vanished too ;
- 4 O, who would bear life's stormy doom,
Did not thy wing of love
Come, brightly wafting through the gloom
Our peace-branch from above ?
- 5 Then sorrow, touched by thee, grows bright
With more than rapture's ray ;
The darkness shows us worlds of light
We never saw by day.

Morning Hymn.

- 1 NOW the shades of night are gone ;
Now the morning light is come ;
Lord, may we be thine to-day,
Drive the shades of sin away.
- 2 Fill our souls with heavenly light,
Banish doubt, and clear our sight ;

- In thy service, Lord, to-day,
 May we stand, and watch and pray.
- 3 Keep our haughty passions bound ;
 Save us from our foes around ;
 Going out and coming in,
 Keep us safe from every sin.
- 4 When our work of life is past,
 O, receive us then at last ;
 Night and sin will be no more,
 When we reach the heavenly shore.

Morning Thanksgiving.

- 1 SERENE I laid me down,
 Beneath his guardian care :
 I slept, — and I awoke, and found
 My kind Preserver near.
- 2 Thus does thine arm support
 This weak, defenceless frame ;
 But whence these favors, Lord, to me,
 All worthless as I am ?
- 3 O, how shall I repay
 The bounties of my God ?
 This feeble spirit pants beneath
 The pleasing, painful load.
- 4 My life I would anew
 Devote, O Lord, to thee ;
 And in thy service I would spend
 A long eternity.

A Morning Hymn.

- 1 GOD of the morning, at thy voice
 The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
 And like a giant doth rejoice
 To run his journey through the skies.

- 2 O, like the sun may I fulfil
 Th' appointed duties of the day ;
 With ready mind and active will
 March on, and keep my heavenly way.
- 3 Lord, thy commands are clean and pure,
 Enlightening our beclouded eyes ;
 Thy threatenings just, thy promise sure ;
 Thy gospel makes the simple wise.
- 4 Give me thy counsels for my guide,
 And then receive me to thy bliss ;
 All my desires and hopes beside
 Are faint and cold compared with this.

SACRED OFFERING.

Grateful Acknowledgment.

- 1 AGAIN, from calm and sweet repose,
 I rise to hail the dawn ;
 Again my waking eyes unclose,
 To view the smiling morn.
- 2 Great God of love, thy praise I'll sing ;
 For thou hast safely kept
 My soul beneath thy guardian wing,
 And watched me while I slept.
- 3 Glory to thee, Eternal Lord !
 O, teach my heart to pray,
 And thy blest Spirit's help afford,
 To guide me through the day.
- 4 Let every thought and word accord
 With thy most holy will ;
 Each deed the precepts of thy word
 With pious aim fulfil.
- 5 From danger, sin, and every ill,
 My constant guardian prove ;
 O, sanctify my heart, and fill
 With thoughts of holy love.

A Morning Invocation.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run ;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praises to th' Eternal King.
- 3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept :
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake.
- 4 Lord, I to thee my vows renew ;
Dispel my sins as morning dew ;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

All I design, or do, or say,
That all my powers, with true delight,
In thy sole glory may unite.

Gratitude and Supplication.

- 1 GOD of my life, my morning song
To thee I cheerful raise :
Thine acts of love 't is good to sing,
And pleasant 't is to praise.
- 2 Preserved by thy almighty arm,
I passed the shades of night,
Serene, and safe from every harm,
To see the morning light.

And restless pains and woes,

In gentle sleep I closed my eyes,
And woke from sweet repose.

4 O, let the same almighty care
Through all this day attend ;
From every danger, every snare,
My heedless steps defend.

5 Smile on my minutes as they roll,
And guide my future days ;
And let thy goodness fill my soul
With gratitude and praise.

CARMINA SACRA

Sabbath Morning.

1 WHILE this day its light is shedding,
Worldly thoughts and cares forbidding,
Let us give our souls to rest ;
Let us now in supplication
Look to him whose great salvation
All the world has freely blest.

2 God above, we bow before thee ;
Humbly will we now adore thee ;
Glad we 'll haste to Zion's gate ;
Glad we 'll join those holy praises
Zion's temple ever raises
High to thee, so good and great.

3 Hail ! thou place of light and glory,
Where resounds salvation's story,
Fraught with peace to sinful man :
O, how soon earth's night retreated,
O, how soon sweet hope we greeted,
When thy word its course began !

Morning Gratitude.

1 IN sleep's serene oblivion laid,
I safely passed the silent night ;

- Again I see the breaking shade, —
 I drink again the morning light.
- 2 New-born, I bless the waking hour,
 Once more, with awe, rejoice to be ;
 My conscious soul resumes her power,
 And springs, my guardian God ! to thee.
- 3 O, guide me through the various maze,
 My doubtful feet may this day tread ;
 And spread thy shield's protecting blaze,
 Where dangers press around my head.
- 4 A deeper shade will soon impend, —
 A deeper sleep mine eyes oppress ;
 Yet then thy strength shall still defend, —
 Thy goodness still delight to bless.
- 5 That deeper shade shall break away,
 That deeper sleep shall leave mine eyes,
 Thy light shall give eternal day,
 Thy love the rapture of the skies.

 On each returning day,
 The praises of our Heavenly King,
 And grateful homage pay.
- 2 The countless worlds, which, bathed in light,

 Proclaim his wisdom and his might,
 But, O, how great his love !

 With tender care to bind ;
 And comfort, hope, and grace impart
 To heal the wounded mind.

Acknowledging God's Hand. Morning.

- 1 WHAT secret hand, at morning light,
Softly unseals mine eye,
Draws back the curtain of the night,
And opens earth and sky ;
- 2 'T is thine, my God, — the same that kept
My resting hours from harm ;
No ill came nigh me, for I slept
Beneath th' Almighty's arm.
- 3 'T is thine, my daily bread that brings,
Like manna scattered round,
And clothes me, as the lily springs
In beauty from the ground.
- 4 In death's dark valley though I stray,
'T would there my steps attend,
Guide with the staff my lonely way,
And with the rod defend.
- 5 May that sure hand uphold me still
Through life's uncertain race,
To bring me to thy holy hill,
And to thy dwelling-place.

Morning or Evening Hymn.

- 1 WHEN, streaming from the eastern skies,
The morning light salutes mine eyes,
O Sun of righteousness divine,
On me with beams of mercy shine ;

- Chase the dark clouds of sin away,
And turn my darkness into day.
- 2 As every day thy mercy spares
Will bring its trials or its cares,
O Father, till my life shall end,
Be thou my counsellor and friend ;
Teach me thy statutes all divine,
And let thy will be always mine.
- 3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy, richly blest,
Guard me, my Father, while I rest ;
And as each morning sun shall rise,
O, lead me onward to the skies !
- 4 And at my life's last setting sun, —
My conflicts o'er, my labors done, —
Father, thine heavenly radiance shed,
To cheer and bless my dying bed ;
And from death's gloom my spirit raise,
To see thy face, and sing thy praise.

845.C. M.KIPPIS.Morning and Evening Praise.

- 1 ON thee, each morning, O my God,
My waking thoughts attend,
In whom are founded all my hopes,
In whom my wishes end.
- 2 My soul, in pleasing wonder lost,
Thy boundless love surveys,
And, fired with grateful zeal, prepares
The sacrifice of praise.
- 3 When evening slumbers press my eyes,
With thy protection blest,
In peace and safety I commit
My weary limbs to rest.

- 4 My spirit, in thy hands secure,
 Fears no approaching ill ;
 For, whether waking or asleep,
 Thou, Lord, art with me still.
- 5 Then will I daily to the world
 Thy wondrous acts proclaim,
 Whilst all with me shall praise and sing,
 And bless thy sacred name.
- 6 At morn, at noon, at night, I 'll still
 The pleasing work pursue,
 And thee alone will praise, to whom
 All praise is ever due.

Prayer at Morning and Evening.

- 1 TO prayer, to prayer ! for the morning breaks,
 And earth in her Maker's smile awakes ;
 His light is on all below and above, —
 The light of gladness, and life, and love.
 O, then, on the breath of this early air,
 Send upward the incense of grateful prayer.
- 2 To prayer ! for the glorious sun is gone,
 And the gathering darkness of night comes on ;
 Like a curtain from God's kind hand it flows,
 To shade the couch where his children repose.
 Then kneel, while the watching stars are bright,
 And give your last thoughts to the Guardian of night.

Perpetual blessings from thine hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

Has my guardian been, my guide !
Every hallowed wish and prayer
Has thy hand of love supplied ;
Thine is every thought of bliss,
Left by hours and days gone by ;
Every hope thy offspring is,
Beaming from futurity.
- 2 Every sun of splendid ray ;
Every moon that shines serene ;
Every morn that welcomes day ;
Every evening's twilight scene ;
Every hour which wisdom brings ;
Every incense at thy shrine ;
These, — and all life's holiest things,
And its fairest, — all are thine.
- 3 And for all, my hymns shall rise
Daily to thy gracious throne :
Thither let my asking eyes
Turn unwearied, righteous One !
Through life's strange vicissitude
There reposing all my care,
Trusting still through ill and good,
Fixed, and cheered, and counselled there.

Trusting God. Evening Hymn.

- 1 GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light :
Keep me, O, keep me, King of kings,

- 2 Forgive me, Lord, through thy dear Son,
The ills which I this day have done ;
That with the world, myself, and thee,

- 3 Teach me to live that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
Teach me to die that so I may
With joy behold the judgment-day.
- 4 Be thou my guardian while I sleep ;
Thy watchful station near me keep ;
My heart with love celestial fill,
And guard me from th' approach of ill.

But rises, gladly free,

Nature's Evening Hymn.

- 1 THE heavenly spheres to thee, O God,
 Attune their evening hymn :
 All wise, all holy, thou art praised
 In song of seraphim !
 Unnumbered systems, suns, and worlds
 Unite to worship thee,
 While thy majestic greatness fills
 Space, time, eternity.
- 2 Nature, — a temple worthy thee,
 That beams with light and love ;
 Whose flowers so sweetly bloom below,
 Whose stars rejoice above,
 Whose altars are the mountain cliffs
 That rise along the shore ;
 Whose anthems, the sublime accord
 Of storm and ocean roar ;

- 3 Her song of gratitude is sung
 By spring's awakening hours ;
 Her summer offers at thy shrine
 Its earliest, loveliest flowers ;
 Her autumn brings its ripened fruits,
 In glorious luxury given ;
 While winter's silver heights reflect
 Thy brightness back to heaven.
- 4 On all thou smil'st ; and what is man
 Before thy presence, God ?
 A breath but yesterday inspired,
 To-morrow but a clod.
 That clod shall mingle in the vale,
 But, kindled, Lord, by thee,
 The spirit to thy arms shall spring,
 To life, to liberty.

And night to night thy voice makes known ;
Through all the earth, where thought may reach,

And I, perhaps, am near my home ;
But he forgives my follies past,
He gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep ;
Peace is the pillow for my head :

- While well appointed angels keep
 Their watchful stations round my bed.
- 4 Faith in his name forbids my fear :
 O, may thy presence ne'er depart !
 And in the morning make me hear
 Thy love and kindness in my heart.
- 5 And when the night of death shall come,
 Still may I trust almighty love, —
 The love which triumphs o'er the tomb,
 And leads to perfect bliss above.

 And all our trembling lips would tell.
- 2 Thou only canst assuage our grief,
 And give our sorrowing hearts relief :
 In mercy, then, thy servant spare,
 Nor turn aside thy people's prayer.
- 3 Avert thy desolating stroke,
 Nor smite the shepherd of the flock ;
 Restore him, sinking to the grave,
 Stretch out thine arm, make haste to save.
- 4 Bound to each soul by tender ties,
 In every heart his image lies ;
 Thy pitying aid, O God, impart,
 Nor rend him from each bleeding heart.
- 5 But if our supplications fail,
 And prayers and tears cannot prevail,
 Be thou his strength and thou his stay,
 Through death's dark vale to endless day.

The Pure Heart.

- 1 WHATEVER dims thy sense of truth,
 Or stains thy purity,

Though light as breath of summer air,
Count it as sin to thee.

2 Preserve the tablet of thy thoughts
From every blemish free,
While the Redeemer's lowly faith
Its temple makes with thee.

3 And pray of God, that grace be given
To tread time's narrow way :—
How dark soever it may be,
It leads to cloudless day.

The Religious Influences of Nature.

1 GOD of the rolling orbs above,
Thy name is written clearly bright
In the warm day's unvarying blaze,
Or evening's golden shower of light :
For every fire that fronts the sun,
And every spark that walks alone
Around the utmost verge of heaven,
Were kindled at thy burning throne.

2 God of the world, the hour must come,
And nature's self to dust return ;
Her crumbling altars must decay ;
Her incense-fires shall cease to burn :
But still her grand and lovely scenes
Have made man's warmest praises flow,
For hearts grow holier as they trace
The beauty of the world below.

The Protestant Reformation.

1 AN offering at the shrine of power
Our hands shall never bring ;
A garland on the car of pomp
Our hands shall never fling ;

Applauding in the conqueror's path
 Our voices ne'er shall be ;
 But we have hearts to honor those
 Who bade the world go free.

- 2 Praise to the good, the pure, the great,
 Who made us what we are !
 Who lit the flame, which yet shall glow
 With radiance brighter far.
 Glory to them in coming time,
 And through eternity,
 Who burst the captive's galling chains,
 And bade the world go free.

The Death of Martyrs.

- 1 FLUNG to the heedless winds,
 Or on the waters cast,
 Their ashes shall be watched,
 And gathered at the last ;
 And from that scattered dust,
 Around us and abroad,
 Shall spring a plenteous seed
 Of witnesses for God.
- 2 The Father hath received
 Their latest living breath ;
 Yet vain is Satan's boast
 Of victory in their death :
 Still, still, though dead, they speak,
 And, trumpet-tongued, proclaim
 To many a waking land
 The one availing name.

"The Dayspring from on High."

- 1 TOILING through the livelong night,
 Faint, uncertain of his way,

- How the traveller hails the light,
Herald of the coming day.
- 2 Thus, when fraud and rapine threw
O'er the world their cloud afar,
On the good man's raptured view
Broke the dawn of Judah's star.
- 3 Tears of joy and gratitude
Hailed the Baptist's natal morn,
For the heavenly light renewed,
For another prophet born.
- 4 Born to go before the face
Of Judea's Saviour-king ;
Tidings of celestial grace
To the mourning land to bring.
- 5 Thus began the song of praise
For the dayspring's earliest ray ;
How should we the anthem raise
For the gospel's perfect day !

In a Thunder-storm.

- 1 LET coward guilt, with pallid fear,
To sheltering caverns fly,
And justly dread the vengeful fate,
That thunders through the sky.
- 2 Protected by that hand whose law
The threatening storms obey,
Intrepid virtue smiles secure
As in the blaze of day.
- 3 In the thick cloud's tremendous gloom,
The lightning's lurid glare,
It views the same all-gracious Power,
That breathes the vernal air.
- 4 When through creation's vast expanse
The last dread thunders roll,

- Untune the concord of the spheres,
 And shake the guilty soul ;
- 5 Unmoved may we the final storm
 Of jarring worlds survey,
 That ushers in the tranquil morn
 Of life's eternal day.

God seen in All.

- 1 MY God ! all nature owns thy sway ;
 Thou giv'st the night and thou the day ;
 When all thy loved creation wakes,
 When morning, rich in lustre, breaks,
 And bathes in dew the opening flower,
 To thee we owe her fragrant hour ;
 And when she pours her choral song,
 Her melodies to thee belong.
- 2 Or when, in paler tints arrayed,
 The evening slowly spreads her shade,
 That soothing shade, that grateful gloom,
 Can, more than day's enlivening bloom,
 Still every fond and vain desire,
 And calmer, purer thoughts inspire ;
 From earth the pensive spirit free,
 And lead the softened heart to thee.
- 3 In every scene thy hands have dressed,
 In every form by thee impressed,
 Upon the mountain's awful head,
 Or where the sheltering woods are spread ;
 In every note that swells the gale,
 Or tuneful stream that cheers the vale,
 The cavern's depth, or echoing grove, —
 A voice is heard of praise and love.
- 4 As o'er thy work the seasons roll,
 And soothe, with change of bliss, the soul,

O, never may their smiling train
 Pass o'er the human sense in vain !
 But oft, as on their charms we gaze,
 Attune the wandering soul to praise ;
 And be the joys that most we prize
 Those joys that from thy favor rise !

A happy Life.

- 1 HOW happy is he born and taught,
 Who serveth not another's will ;
 Whose armor is his honest thought,
 And simple truth his utmost skill !
- 2 Whose passions not his masters are,
 Whose soul is still prepared for death,
 Untied to this vain world by care
 Of public fame or private breath ;
- 3 Who hath his life from rumors freed,
 Whose conscience is his strong retreat ,
 Whose state can neither flatterers feed,
 Nor ruin make oppressors great ;
- 4 Who God doth late and early pray
 More of his grace than gifts to lend ;
 To crave for less and more obey,
 Nor dare with Heaven's high will contend.
- 5 This man is freed from servile bands
 Of hope to rise or fear to fall ;
 Lord of himself, though not of lands,
 And, having nothing, yet hath all.

 Our Saviour would linger in moonlight's soft beam ;
 And by thy bright waters would oftentimes stray,
 And lose in thy murmurs the toils of the day.

- 2 How damp were the vapors that fell on his head
 How hard was his pillow, how humble his bed !
 The angels, astonished, grew sad at the sight,
 And followed their Master with solemn delight
- 3 O garden of Olivet ! dear, honored spot !
 The fame of thy wonders shall ne'er be forgot ;
 The theme most transporting to seraphs above,
 The triumph of sorrow, the triumph of love.

All Men are equal.

- 1 ALL men are equal in their birth,
 Heirs of the earth and skies ;
 All men are equal when that earth
 Fades from their dying eyes.
- 2 God meets the throngs who pay their vows
 In courts that hands have made ;
 And hears the worshipper who bows
 Beneath the plantain shade.
- 3 'T is man alone who difference sees,
 And speaks of high and low,
 And worships those, and tramples these,
 While the same path they go.
- 4 O, let man hasten to restore
 To all their rights of love ;
 In power and wealth exult no more ;
 In wisdom lowly move.
- 5 Ye great, renounce your earth-born pride,
 Ye low, your shame and fear :
 Live, as ye worship, side by side ;
 Your brotherhood revere.

Quiet Religion.

- 1 OPEN, Lord, my inward ear,
 And bid my heart rejoice ;
 Bid my quiet spirit hear
 The comfort of thy voice ;
 Never in the whirlwind found,
 Or where earthquakes rock the place,
 Still and silent is the sound,
 The whisper of thy grace.
- 2 From the world of sin, and noise,
 And hurry, I withdraw ;
 For the small and inward voice
 I wait with humble awe ;
 Silent I am now and still,
 Dare not in thy presence move ;
 To my waiting soul reveal
 The secret of thy love.

Silent Worship.

- 1 LET deepest silence all around
 Its peaceful shelter spread ;
 So shall the living word abound,
 The word that wakes the dead.
- 2 How sweet to wait upon the Lord
 In stillness and in prayer !
 What though no preacher speak the word,
 A minister is there.

- 3 He knows to bend the heart of steel,
 He bows the loftiest soul ;
 O'er all we think and all we feel,
 How matchless his control !
- 4 And, O, how precious is his love,
 In tender mercy given ;
 It whispers of the blest above,
 And stays the soul on heaven.
- 5 From mind to mind, in streams of joy,
 The holy influence spreads ;
 'T is peace, 't is praise without alloy,
 For God that influence sheds.
- 6 To thee, O God, we still will pray,
 And praise thee as before ;
 For this thy glorious gospel-day,
 Teach us to praise thee more.

Marriage Hymn.

- 1 WHEN on her Maker's bosom
 The new-born earth was laid,
 And nature's opening blossom
 Its fairest bloom displayed ;
 When all with fruits and flowers
 The laughing soil was dressed,
 And Eden's fragrant bowers
 Received their human guest, —
- 2 No sin his face defiling,
 The heir of nature stood,
 And God, benignly smiling,
 Beheld that all was good.
 Yet in that hour of blessing
 A single want was known, —
 A wish the heart distressing, —
 For Adam was alone.

- 3 O God of pure affection,
 By men and saints adored,
 O, give us thy protection
 Around this nuptial board ;
 May thy rich bounties ever
 To wedded love be shown,
 And no rude hand dissever
 Whom thou hast linked in one.

 Of sorrow, pain, and fear,
 When Heaven's wise discipline doth make
 Our earthly journey drear ; —
- 3 Not for this span of life alone,
 Which like a blast doth fly,

 Just blossom, droop, and die ; —
- 4 But for a being without end
 This vow of love we take ;
 Grant us, O God, one home at last,
 For thy great mercy's sake.

Temperance Hymn.

- 1 LET the still air rejoice, —
Be every youthful voice
Blended in one :
While we renew our strain
To Him, with joy, again,
Who sends the evening rain,
And morning sun.

- 2 His hand in beauty gives
 Each flower and plant that lives,
 Each sunny rill ;
 Springs ! which our footsteps meet, —
 Fountains ! our lips to greet, —
 Waters ! whose taste is sweet,
 On rock and hill.
- 3 Each summer bird that sings
 Drinks from dear Nature's springs
 Her early dew ;
 And the refreshing shower
 Falls on each herb and flower,
 Giving it life and power,
 Fragrant and new.
- 4 So let each faithful child
 Drink of this fountain mild,
 From early youth ;
 Then shall the song we raise
 Be heard in future days, —
 Ours be the pleasant ways
 Of peace and truth.
- 5 Now let each heart and hand,
 Of all this youthful band,
 United, move !
 Till on the mountain's brow,
 And in the vale below,
 Our land may ever glow
 With peace and love.

 Odors of Edom, and offerings divine ?
 Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
 Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine ?

- 1 NO war nor battle's sound
 Was heard the earth around, —
 No hostile chiefs to furious combat ran ;
 But peaceful was the night
 In which the Prince of Light
 His reign of peace upon the earth began.
- 2 No conqueror's sword he bore,
 Nor warlike armor wore,
 Nor haughty passions roused to contest wild ;

In peace and love he came,
 And gentle was the reign,
 Which o'er the earth he spread by influence mild.

3 Unwilling kings obeyed,
 And sheathed the battle blade,
 And called their bloody legions from the field ;
 In silent awe they wait,
 And close the warrior's gate,
 Nor know to whom their homage thus they yield

4 The peaceful conqueror goes,
 And triumphs o'er his foes,

 Behold the vanquished sit
 Submissive at his feet,
 And strife and hate are changed to peace and love.

HEMANS.

The Pilgrim Fathers.

1 THE breaking waves dashed high
 On a stern and rock-bound coast,
 And the woods against a stormy sky
 Their giant branches tossed ;
 And the heavy night hung dark,
 The hills and waters o'er,
 When a band of exiles moored their bark
 On the wild New England shore.

2 Not as the conqueror comes,
 They, the true-hearted, came ;
 Not with the roll of the stirring drums,
 And the trumpet that sings of fame ;
 Not as the flying come,
 In silence and in fear ; —
 They shook the depths of the desert gloom
 With their hymns of lofty cheer.

3 Amidst the storm they sang,
 And the stars heard, and the sea !

And the sounding aisles of the dim woods rang
To the anthem of the free.

The ocean eagle soared

From his nest by the white wave's foam,
And the rocking pines of the forest roared, —
This was their welcome home.

4 What sought they thus afar ?

Bright jewels of the mine ?

The wealth of seas, the spoils of war ? —

They sought a faith's pure shrine !

Ay, call it holy ground,

The soil where first they trod !

They have left unstained what there they found, —
Freedom to worship God.

Humility.

1 THE bird that soars on highest wing

Builds on the ground her lowly nest ;

And she that doth most sweetly sing

Sings in the shade when all things rest : —

In lark and nightingale we see

What honor hath humility.

2 When Mary chose the better part,

She meekly sat at Jesus' feet ;

And Lydia's gently opened heart

Was made for God's own temple meet : —

Fairest and best adorned is she

Whose clothing is humility.

3 The saint that wears heaven's brightest crown

In deepest adoration bends ;

The weight of glory bows him down

Then most when most his soul ascends : —

Nearest the throne itself must be

The footstool of humility.

Praise to God.

- 1 ALL nature's works his praise declare
To whom they all belong ;
There is a voice in every star,
In every breeze a song.
- 2 Sweet music fills the world abroad
With strains of love and power ;
The stormy sea sings praise to God, —
The thunder and the shower.
- 3 To God the tribes of ocean cry,
And birds upon the wing ;
To God the powers that dwell on high
Their tuneful tribute bring.
- 4 Like them let man the throne surround,
With them loud chorus raise,
While instruments of loftiest sound
Assist his feeble praise.
- 5 Great God, to thee we consecrate
Our voices and our skill ;
We bid the pealing organ wait
To speak alone thy will.
- 6 O, teach its rich and swelling notes
To lift our souls on high ;
And while the music round us floats,
Let earth-born passion die.

True and False Zeal.

- 1 ZEAL is that pure and heavenly flame
The fire of love supplies ;
While that which often bears the name
Is self, in a disguise.
- 2 True zeal is merciful and mild,
Can pity and forbear ;

The false is headstrong, fierce, and wild,
And breathes revenge and war.

3 While zeal for truth the Christian warms,
He knows the worth of peace ;
But self contends for names and forms,
Its party to increase.

4 Self may its poor reward obtain,
And be applauded here ;
But zeal the best applause will gain,
When Jesus shall appear.

5 O God, the idol self dethrone,
And from our hearts remove ;
And let no zeal by us be shown,
But that which springs from love.

And, to the weary, rest.

3 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought,
But when I see thee as thou art,

And may the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death.

On joining the Church.

- 1 O HAPPY day, that fixed my choice
On thee, my Saviour and my Lord !
Well may this glowing heart rejoice,
And tell its raptures all abroad !
- 2 O happy bond, that seals my vows
To Him who merits all my love !
Let cheerful anthems fill the house,
While to his altar now I move.
- 3 Now rest, my long-divided heart ;
Fixed on this blissful centre, rest ;
Here have I found a nobler part ;
Here heavenly pleasures fill my breast.
- 4 High Heaven, that hears the solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear ;

The everlasting Bliss of Heaven.

- 1 HEAVEN is the land where troubles cease,
Where toils and tears are o'er ; —
The blissful clime of rest and peace,
Where cares distract no more ;
And not the shadow of distress
Dims its unsullied blessedness.
- 2 Heaven is the dwelling-place of joy,
The home of light and love,
Where faith and hope in rapture die,
And ransomed souls above
Enjoy, before th' eternal throne,
Bliss everlasting and unknown.

Earth's broken Ties.

- 1 THE broken ties of happier days,
How often do they seem
To come before the mental gaze,
Like a remembered dream ;
Around us each dissevered chain
In sparkling ruin lies,
And earthly hand can ne'er again
Unite these broken ties.
- 2 O, who, in such a world as this,
Could bear their lot of pain,
Did not one radiant hope of bliss
Unclouded yet remain ?
That hope the sovereign Lord has given,
Who reigns above the skies ;
Hope that unites our souls to heaven,
By faith's endearing ties.

- 3 Each care, each ill of mortal birth,
 Is sent in pitying love
 To lift the lingering heart from earth,
 And speed its flight above.
 And every pang that wrings the breast,
 And every joy that dies,
 Tells us to seek a purer rest,
 And trust to holier ties.

The Christian's Death.

- 1 LO ! the prisoner is released,
 Lightened of his fleshly load ;
 Where the weary are at rest,
 He is gathered unto God :
 Lo ! the pain of life is past,
 And his warfare now is o'er ;
 Death and hell behind are cast,
 Grief and suffering are no more.
- 2 Yes ! the Christian's course is run,
 Ended is the glorious strife ;
 Fought the fight, the crown is won,
 Death is swallowed up of life ;
 Borne by angels on their wings,
 Far from earth his spirit flies
 To the Lord he loved, and sings
 Triumphant in paradise.
- 3 Join we then with one accord
 In the new and joyful song ;
 Absent from our glorious Lord
 We shall not continue long ;
 We shall quit the house of clay,
 Better joys with him to share ;
 We shall see the realms of day,
 We shall meet our brethren there.

 Like evening lights away,
 For hopes that, like the stars decayed,

- 1 HEAR what God, the Lord, hath spoken :
 O my people, faint and few,
 Comfortless, afflicted, broken,
 Fair abodes I build for you ;
 Scenes of heartfelt tribulation
 Shall no more perplex your ways ;
 You shall name your walls salvation,
 And your gates shall all be praise.
- 2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
 Pleasures without end shall flow ;
 For the Lord, your faith rewarding,
 All his bounty shall bestow ;
 Still in undisturbed possession
 Peace and righteousness shall reign ;

Never shall you feel oppression,
Hear the voice of war again.

- 3 Ye, no more your suns descending,
Waning moons no more shall see ;
But, your griefs for ever ending,
Find eternal noon in me ;
God shall rise, and, shining o'er you,
Change to day the gloom of night ;
He, the Lord, shall be your glory,
God your everlasting light.

The Departed.

- 1 WHEN spirits from their cumbering clay
Ascend to heaven's bright shore,
Our hoping hearts with triumph say, —
“Not lost, but gone before.”
- 2 Then calmly may our spirits bow
Beneath affliction's rod ;
Who, who would murmur that his friend
Is safe in joy and God ?

ANONYMOUS

Close of Service.

BY us the seed is sown, —
Thy blessing, Lord, bestow ;
The power is thine alone
To make it spring and grow :
Do thou the gracious harvest raise,
And thou alone shalt have the praise.

APPENDIX.

THE following hymns are here inserted as originally written by the author, Rev. R. Palmer.

382. Self-consecration. 6. 4.

1 MY faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine:
Now hear me while I pray;
Take all my guilt away;
O, let me from this day
Be wholly thine.

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O, may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be —
A living fire.

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll;
Bless'd Saviour, then, in love,
Fear and distress remove;
O, bear me safe above, —
A ransomed soul.

602. Heavenly Rest. S. M.

1 AND is there, Lord, a rest
For weary souls designed,
Where not a care shall stir the breast,
Or sorrow entrance find.

2 Is there a blissful home,
Where kindred minds shall meet,
And live, and love, nor ever roam
From that serene retreat?

3 Are there bright, happy fields,
Where nought that blooms shall die;

Where each new scene fresh pleasure yields
And healthful breezes sigh?

4 Are there celestial streams,
Where living waters glide,
With murmurs sweet as angel dreams,
And flowery banks beside?

5 For ever blessed they,
Whose joyful feet shall stand,
While endless ages waste away,
Amid that glorious land.

6 My soul would thither tend,
While toilsome years are given;
Then let me, gracious God, ascend
To sweet repose in heaven.

830. Self-consecration. L. M.

1 O, sweetly breathe the lyres above,
When angels touch the quivering
string,
And wake, to chant Immanuel's love,
Such strains as angel lips can sing.

2 And sweet, on earth, the choral swell
From mortal tongues, of gladsome lays;
When pardoned souls their raptures
tell,
And, grateful, hymn Immanuel's praise.

3 Jesus, — thy name our souls adore;
We own the bond that makes us
thine;
And carnal joys, that charmed before,
For thy dear sake we now resign.

4 Our hearts, by dying love subdued,
Accept thine offered grace to-day;
Beneath the cross, with blood bedewed,
We bow, and give ourselves away.

5 In thee we trust, — on thee rely;
Though we are feeble, thou art strong
O, keep us till our spirits fly
To join the bright, immortal throng
